BRIEF MENTION.

The Portland exposition is to run seven days each week.

The meeting of the literary society has been postponed for one week.

Winter suits and overcoats in sizes from 42 to 48 at A. M. Williams & Co.'s.

The meeting of the King's Daughters has been postponed until next Tuesday.

From present appearances the Savage case will go to the jury some time tomorrow.

The jury in the Savage case were taken to the express office this morning, and thence to where the money taken from it was found.

The Seattle papers still insist that the shape of the summit of Mt. Ranier has changed, the middle peak being much lower than it was.

Mr. Sherar, who returned last week from Boston, is highly pleased with his trip. He says that the last lot of wool taken back by him was pronounced the finest ever reaching Boston from the Pacific coast.

Ed Gibson and wife went to Arlington today, where Mrs. Gibson's people are said to reside. The couple have become so confirmed in the morphine habit that there is no chance of their ever reforming here. The girl's parents may be able to do something with them but it is not probable.

Ed Gibson and his wife were arrested Saturday night, charged with stealing sixteen rolls of butter from Mr. Helm. These people are a disgrace to the community, and should be sent to the asylum. They are regular morphine fiends, and in consequence their moral susceptibilities are utterly destroyed.

An alarm of fire at 5 o'clock Saturday evening was caused by the burning of a chimney at Mrs. Obarr's restaurant. The engines and hose carts were soon on the way to the scene of the fire, though fortunately their services were not needed. The prompt response to the alarm speaks well of the discipline of the companies.

The collectors have been numerous and busy today, and each of them had a plethora-looking sack it is fair to presume that all Dalles people had money to meet their bills. Prompt payment every collection day speaks stronger than anything else in favor of Wasco county and The Dalles. It is the best town in the state by great big odds.

The case of the State against Savage continues to draw quite a crowd of spectators, the courtroom being well filled with many ladies in the audience. The prosecution closed its case a few minutes before noon, and the defense opened theirs on the coming in of court this afternoon. Up to 3 o'clock Sam Simmons, Dick Nolan, Mr. Ferguson and Ad Edgar had been examined by the defense.

A Villainous Deed.
At about 9 o'clock on the night of the 22nd two barns belonging to George Saxon, whose place is about a mile west of the Pleasant postoffice, were burned to the ground. The fires occurred simultaneously and, as the barns were nearly three-quarters of a mile apart, they were beyond question the work of an incendiary. Mr. Saxon had gone to bed and was waked up by the hired man who in turn had been waked by the roar of the flames of the barn nearest the house. But it was too late to save anything. The buildings contained about 40 tons of hay, Mr. Saxon's sole reliance for the winter feed of 450 head of sheep, besides a number of cattle and horses. Two horses were roasted in their stalls while a third broke loose after his halter rope had been burned in two, but so badly roasted by the flames that he had to be shot to put him out of misery. A valuable brood sow also escaped but not till her ears and tail had been burned to a crisp and her body fatally scorched. A new hack, two sets harness, nearly new, a $35 saddle as good as new besides a lot of ropes, halters and other such articles as are usually found in a farmer's barn also perished. Mr. Saxon is an industrious young man, and the loss represents the labor of four years of hard work, all reduced to worthless ashes to appease the vengeance of some cowardly miscreant for whom a gallows as high as Haman's would not be sufficient punishment. It is devoutly to be hoped that the perpetrator of the crime may be discovered and punished as he deserves. There was no insurance and the loss falls with crushing weight on Mr. Saxon, more especially at the beginning of the winter.—Golden-dale Republican.

PERSONAL MENTION.

Mr. J. G. Day of the Cascade Locks is in the city.

Mr. and Mrs. H. U. Myers of Alkali Flat, Crook county, are in the city.

Moster Happenings-1

"Uncle Billy" Hayes has been quite ill for several days.

Wm. Watson will give a dance New Year evening at his home on Rock creek.

A very enjoyable country dance was given at the residence of Thomas Harlan Thanksgiving evening. About thirty couples were present, and the festivities, as usual, were prolonged until daylight.

The telegraph line outfit have removed their mess car to Hood River, having progressed from here three miles westward.

Miss Alice Root, one of Mosier's most estimable young ladies, and Mr. Wallace Hugbonds, also long and favorably known in the vicinity, were married Thanksgiving day at the schoolhouse.

Weddings and King of Tompkins County apples are ripe in this neighborhood. There have been two of the former, and two others are daily expected. Neither has reference to Carl Weidner, whose horse fell dead under him while on his way to see his inamorata. His remark was scarcely like King Richard's when a similar accident befell him—"My kingdom for a horse." All Carl said was: "Well, I'll be danged."

Miss Myra Rowland was married Friday evening, November 30th, to Mr. Oscar Depee of The Dalles, late of Chicago. The marriage was to have taken place Thanksgiving day, but the groom committed the extraordinary offense of being late in his appointment, having missed the boat in the morning. The nuptial knot was therefore tied the following day at Mosier by Thos. Harlan, justice of the peace. The good wishes of hosts of friends follow the young couple in their new relation of man and wife.

Mrs. Bachelor's house on Rock creek was broke open a few days ago and the contents destroyed. The miscreant took excrement from a vault, depositing it in the bureau drawers among the wearing apparel and bedding, upon the center table and the fine carpets in the parlor and bedrooms. The wire fence was also cut between each post, and the apple trees in the orchard girdled. A large mirror was broken, the furniture demolished, and the house badly damaged. The property destroyed will amount to several hundred dollars. A criticism here upon the total depravity of the human hog-hyena who committed these almost unnamable atrocities would be useless. He would neither be able to read nor intelligently understand.

REGULAR.

PORTLAND EXPOSITION.

Opens December 1, 1894, and Closes January 15, 1895.

During this time the Dalles, Portland & Astoria Navigation Company will sell tickets from The Dalles to Portland and return, including two meals on the steamer Dalles City at $2.50. Tickets limited to ten days from date of sale. Regulator will leave at 7 a. m. and the Dalles City will arrive at Portland at 5:30 p. m. Quick transfers at the locks.

For sick headache, caused by a disordered stomach, Ayer's Cathartic Pills are the most reliable remedy. "My mother first recommended these Pills to me, thirty years ago. They are the mildest and best purgative in use."—S. C. Bradburn, Worthington, Mass.

Uncle Tom's Cabin.

Wednesday night, Dec. 5th, at the opera house, we will have Rasco & Swift's big production of Uncle Tom's Cabin, the largest and best now playing this old time favorite. These gentlemen have the reputation of always keeping faith with the people, and carry all their own scenery, band and orchestra. The company is headed by Miss Coral Deming, the greatest living Topsy, and the only lady who plays this part in her bare feet, and little Venus, the beautiful child actress as Eva. Among the many special features offered are the little Shetland ponies that took the premium at the world's fair as being the most perfect marked animal in the world, the cute Egyptian donkey from the streets of Cairo, world's fair, the genuine imported blood hounds, etc. Watch for the grand street parade at noon. Prices for this engagement will be 25, 50 and 75 cents. Reserved seats at Blakeley & Houghton's now.

Notice to the Public.

Dated at Rufus, Sherman county, Or., this 20th day of November, 1894.

Notice. All persons who have not paid their road tax and desire to work the same out, will be on hand Wednesday and Thursday mornings at 8 o'clock, with picks or shovels. Work will be done on the road at the brewery hill.

The success that has attended the use of Dr. J. H. McLean's Volcanic Oil Liniment in the relief of pain and in curing diseases which seemed beyond the reach of medicine, has been truly remarkable. Hundreds supposed to be crippled for life with arms and legs drawn up crooked or distorted, their muscles withered or contracted by disease have been cured through the use of this remedy. Price 25c, 50c and $1.00 per bottle. For sale by the Snipes-Kinersly Drug Co.

Do you want THE CHRONICLE and San Francisco Examiner for a year? If so send us $2.25 and you can have them, 156 papers for $2.25 or less than a cent and a half a piece.
