

Wednesday, Dec. 12th, We will commence Our Annual Fall Sale.

As this has been our practice since the beginning of our business, we offer no apology or give any further reason for this

GREAT SMASH IN PRICES.

This year our sale will be far more important than ever before, as our stock is fuller, more varied, and owing to our taking advantage of Tariff changes and the business depression, allows us to offer more tempting prices. Now is the time to get out your savings and invest them to good advantage. While a Dollar in our house is not any bigger in size than anywhere else, it looks so because it will buy so much more. This is not a sale of old goods carried over from year to year, for at the commencement of the year our stock was extremely low, and this has allowed us to be liberal buyers. This is strictly a sale of Fresh, Choice and

UP-TO-DATE MERCHANDISE,

Bought as Low as Cash will Purchase, and Now Offered at Unheard-of Prices.

We are not dissatisfied with our goods; they are all right, for our business during the present year has been extremely satisfactory, beyond any sanguine anticipations we might have formed at its commencement. We therefore owe something to our friends and customers, and will endeavor to show our appreciation of their kindness by giving them an opportunity of selecting from our stock, goods at away below regular prices. As every article in the house will be marked down it will be impossible for us to be ready until Wednesday. To avoid confusion, goods will be sold at regular prices until then.

Of course, if you haven't a cent in the world, these reduced prices will be of little service to you. Or if you have so much money that you don't know how to spend it, then reductions are not an inducement. But if you are like the majority of people, with just a little money and inclined to make it go as far as possible, then our figures are interesting. We want in this sale to see how much more we can make a Dollar buy than it used to.

The Christmas number of Town Topics reaches us in particularly attractive guise, its handsome colored cover attracting the eye as readily as the excellence of the contents appeals to the mind of the reader. In its 48 pages of choicest reading matter are to be found stories and poems, tragic, sentimental and humorous, by the contemporary authors, including Bret Harte, Walter Beant, Bliss Carman, etc., etc., as well as a series of ably-prepared reviews of the doings of the year 1894 in the realms of society, music, the drama, literature and the fine arts. There is also a goodly collection of the bright verses and witticisms that have earned the paper its high reputation, most of the latter being turned on the customs and traditions of the time. One may safely say that a glance through the pages of this number will be certain to add to one's enjoyment of the holiday period of mirth and rejoicing. Court Notes.

Upon the opening of court this morning there was quite a crowd present, it being expected that the Savage case would be decided, and the crowd made no mistake. The motion for a new trial was overruled, and Otis Savage, being told to stand up, was asked by Judge Bradshaw if he had anything to say why sentence should not be pronounced upon him. The prisoner retained his wonderful nerve to the last. There was just a shadow of moisture in his eyes, but he said, in a firm voice, "I do not know of anything I can say. It is evident that a job has been put up to convict me, and I shall have to take such medicine as you give me." Judge Bradshaw delivered a brief, but sensible and pathetic lecture to him, and then sentenced him to four years in the penitentiary. He will not be taken below for a little while, perhaps not until the appeal is heard from.

Frank Klein was then sentenced to eighteen months in the penitentiary.

William Smith, a boy of 17, who plead guilty to stealing a horse, was sent to the reform school.

Johnson vs. Taylor, sale on execution confirmed.

Bolton vs. Rhinehart, sale on foreclosure confirmed.

Hansbury vs. Soeabe, writ of review, argued and submitted.

Breese vs. Taylor, application for deed from present sheriff on sale made by former sheriff.

Several motions were set for argument this afternoon, and it is probable court will adjourn for the term when these are finished.

Council Meeting.

City council met Saturday night pursuant to adjournment of Dec. 3, present, M. T. Nolan, G. C. Eshelman, S. S. Johns, R. B. Hood and C. F. Laner. The mayor being absent, Councilman Nolan was elected chairman pro tem.

The regular monthly reports of the recorder, treasurer and marshal were read, received and placed on file.

Report of street commissioner on proposed improvement, by constructing a road east of the Wasco warehouse, was read.

E. F. Sharp, of the committee on Court street sewer, read a report on the same, and presented a plat of said sewer, and on motion it was ordered that said report be received and laid on the table temporarily.

On motion a committee of three was appointed by the chair, to draft a general sewer system and draw plans for the same, and that they be empowered to employ an engineer for that purpose. Thereupon the chair appointed S. S. Johns, R. B. Hood and C. F. Laner as said committee.

On motion it was ordered that the street commissioner be authorized to employ an engineer, and to establish the grade on the proposed improvement of Union street as heretofore prayed for by J. Simonsen and others, and to estimate the cuts and fills of stone and earth on said street, and make an estimate of the cost thereof, and report at next council meeting.

Chair reported that Mr. R. V. Gibbons, had desired to tender his resignation as nightwatch and it was on motion ordered that said resignation be accepted.

On motion it was ordered that the services of one watchman be dispensed with temporarily, and F. G. Connelly was thereupon retained as nightwatchman.

On motion it was ordered that a committee of three be appointed for the purpose of cutting down the number of arc lights, to curtail expenses. Laner, Hood and Eshelman were appointed as such committee.

On motion adjourned.

A Collision.

There was a head-end collision between numbers 22 and 23, freight trains, at Squally Hook at 10:02 yesterday morning, in which Engineer George Lang received a broken leg and his left foot and arm were severely burned. The right leg is broken midway between the ankle and knee. The accident was caused by the west-bound train, No. 23, being a few minutes late. Mr. Lang was in charge of the engine on 22. Arriving at Squally Hook, which is the regular meeting point, and not finding 23 side-tracked there, as it should have been, he supposed the train was annulled, and as he had the right-of-way, did not stop. He had scarcely passed the switch when he saw the other train coming; or, as he says, when he first saw the other train he thought it was stopped, but at once did everything to stop his own train. When the engines met that of 22 climbed up on top of the other, and Lang was thrown back and fell between the boiler-head and the shovel-plate, which was turned up. His foot and arm were against the boiler-head. Fortunately nothing inside of the cab broke, not even the water gauge. Had they done so, he would no doubt have been scalded to death. As it was, only for the prompt action of brakeman Miller, who shoveled away the coal and sawed a board into that was holding Lang against the fire box, he would soon have roasted to death.

Lang was brought here yesterday and Drs. Doane and Logan attended to his injuries. It was indeed a lucky escape for Lang and time will set all things right with him. Four or five cars were damaged, but Mr. Lang's engine was pretty badly smashed.

Some Artistic Work.

In the Snipes-Kinnersly Drug Co.'s windows are displayed some very handsome oil paintings, done by Mrs. Glenn, Mrs. S. C. Wilson, Mrs. Briggs and Mrs. Inez Filloon, under the instruction of Miss Holcomb. Mrs. Glenn has four pictures, three of which are of fruits, and one a pretty bit of coloring in the shape of two large roses. Mrs. Briggs has one piece only, showing two oranges, one of them with the rind lifted, showing the golden tinted and translucent flesh, and a banana. Mrs. S. C. Wilson has a beautiful piece, a collection of pears, and Mrs. Filloon two, one of them a basket of grapes and the other a display of pansies.

We are not artist enough to criticize any of this work, but if being true enough to nature to make one's teeth water is an evidence of art, then every picture in that lot is a gem.
