When persons are weak and languid, from sickness or overwork, feel debilitated and depressed, it is an indication that the blood is out of order, and they need help to throw off the miserable feeling. It restores lost strength, gives vigor to circulation, promotes good appetite and a flow of cheerful spirits. Price $1.00 per bottle. For sale by the Snipes-Kinersly Drug Co.

Employer—How did you break that vase? Office Boy—I had it in my hand when I heard your bell ring, and dropped it because you told me yesterday to drop everything and answer your bell whenever you rang.—Harper's Bazar.

For a pain in the side or chest there is nothing so good as a piece of flannel dampened with Chamberlain's Pain Balm and bound on over the seat of pain. It affords prompt and permanent relief and if used in time will often prevent a cold from resulting in pneumonia. This same treatment is a sure cure for lame back. For sale by Blakeley & Houghton Druggists.

Teachers' Institute.

The institute met in the Court street schoolhouse at 9:30 this morning, and was opened by some spirited singing, led by Prof. Stratton, Miss Irene Callison being at the organ. The enrollment of teachers showed a large attendance. The woful condition of roads leading to town from the southern part of the county prevented several teachers from being present.

The program as printed was fully carried out. The papers read by the teachers were of a very high order, showing much careful thought in their preparation. President Chapman, of the State University, came in soon after the opening exercises, and by his ready criticisms contributed no little to the interest. Mr. Williams, agent for Maynard & Merrill, was present during the morning session, and gave a very instructive account of his experience in managing bad boys.

J. M. Carroll is secretary and Miss Irene Callison holds the undesirable position of critic.

President Chapman will lecture tonight in the opera house on "The College and the World."

The attendance of citizens is encouragingly large. The roll-call showed the following teachers in attendance: Matilda G. Hollister, Lena E. Snell, Louise Rintoul, Maggie Flinn, Emma Vogt, J. F. McArthur, Nan Cooper, Catharine Martin, Elsie Ball, Francis Rowe, Salina Phirman, O. B. Connelly, Minnie Michell, Ida Omeg, Mabel Riddell, M. N. Stratton, Grace Hill, Dasie Allaway, May Elton, John Gavin, Katie E. Cooper, Lura Welch, Ella Cooper, Melissa Hill, Tena Rintoul, The Dalles; Hattie Stirnweiss, R. A. Gailey, P. P. Underwood, Boyd; Cassie M. Cheese, 5-Mile; Nellie Hudson, L. B. Thomas, Dufur; Dollie Mosier, J. M. Carroll, Mosier; Annie Sears, Irene Callison, Josie Hansberry, Bess Isenberg, F. N. Isenberg, O. L. Gilbert, Grace Graham, Hood River; Ida L. Everhart, Millie E. Parkins, Cascade Locks; Rilla MacCulloch, Boyd.

Specimen Cases.

S. H. Clifford, New Cassel, Wis., was troubled with neuralgia and rheumatism, his stomach was disordered, his liver was affected to an alarming degree, appetite fell away, and he was terribly reduced in flesh and strength. Three bottles of Electric Bitters cured him.

Edward Shepherd, Harrisburg, Ill., had a running sore on his leg of eight years' standing. Used three bottles of Electric Bitters and seven boxes of Bucklen's Arnica Salve, and his leg is sound and well. John Speaker, Catawba, O., had five large fever sores on his leg, doctors said he was incurable. One bottle Electric Bitters and one box Bucklen's Arnica Salve cured him entirely. Sold by Snipes & Kinersly.
