WHAT THEY KNOW.

It is really astonishing how little the people in the East know about the United States in general, and the Pacific coast in particular. An Illinois paper of a recent date eases the editorial brain with the following effusion:

"There is so much wheat and the price is so low in the Northwest this season that many farmers are leaving their wheat standing. In Spokane county, Oregon, there are a number of fields of wheat, ranging between one and two hundred acres each, and yielding eighteen or twenty bushels to the acre, which the owners will not cut, as the returns would not cover the cost of harvesting."

Debs and his lieutenants will go to jail for contempt of court. That contempt consisted, so the court says, in conspiring to interfere with the running of trains in charge of the receivers of the court, and in defiance of its orders. This decision is correct; but it needs to be supplemented by the conviction of those railroad magnates who also conspired to prevent the running of trains by refusing to run them without Pullman cars. The matter was pitifully stated by one of the workmen who said that it took a postage stamp and a Pullman car to transmit a letter through the mails. These railroad magnates were as guilty of a misdemeanor as were Debs or his followers.

The genius of the American people acknowledges no limit to the field of industries that may yet be invaded by it. The latest field in which this genius has sought distinction is in robbing graves, not of the bodies, but of the coffins. According to today's dispatches quite an industry has been started, it being confined of course to newly buried people's coffins that have not had time to become soiled. The corpse is probably as well off without a coffin as with it, but how would a poor fellow feel on his deathbed, thinking he was going to be put away in a second-hand coffin with the probabilities strongly in favor of that being stolen from him.

The Oregonian today says that Mr. Hardt will retire from the management of the Portland exposition, and that Van B. DeLashmutt has been suggested for the place. From all accounts it is high time not only that the management be changed but that the doors be closed. Portland received thousands of visitors through its fairs heretofore, but they were good, and honestly conducted. The present thing is a cold, dead swindle, according to the reports of all who have visited it, and the sooner it is knocked in the head the better for everybody concerned.

Last June the total vote of Oregon was little over 87,000. The total vote of Washington in November was 73,755. This year's school statistics show about 10,000 more persons of school age in Oregon than the larger population—though the census of 1890, negligently taken in Washington, gave Washington considerably more people than Oregon.—Baker City Democrat.

AYER'S SARSAPARILLA

S. P. SMITH, of Towanda, Pa., whose constitution was completely broken down, is cured by Ayer's Sarsaparilla. He writes: "For eight years, I was, most of the time, a great sufferer from constipation, kidney trouble, and indigestion, so that my constitution seemed to be completely broken down. I was induced to try Ayer's Sarsaparilla, and took nearly seven bottles, with such excellent results that my stomach, bowels, and kidneys are in perfect condition, and, in all their functions, as regular as clock-work. At the time I began taking Ayer's Sarsaparilla, my weight was only 129 pounds; I now can brag of 159 pounds, and was never in so good health. If you could see me before and after using, you would want me for a traveling advertisement. I believe this preparation of Sarsaparilla to be the best in the market to-day."
