BRIEF MENTION.

Leaves From the Notebook of Chronicle Reporters.

He spent four weeks in urging on A mustache sleek and brown. But when he went to see his girl she straightway called it down.

One premature drunk did penance before the city recorder this morning.

Smith Bros. are preparing the Wingate hall for their dance this evening. Dancing commences at 8:30.

This morning George Ruch made preliminary arrangements for Christmas by burning out a chimney on his residence. The idea seems to be contagious.

There will be work in the Third tonight at the regular session of Friendship Lodge No. 9, K. O. P. All Knights in good standing are requested to be present.

Christmas "fixins" are abundant the shop windows displaying all kinds, qualities and styles of things suitable for Christmas presents, and the prettiest of them all are the collections of dolls.

The suit of C. E. Greene against constable Urquhart, tried Saturday, was taken under advisement until this morning by Justice Davis, at which time it was decided in favor of the defendant.

The alarm of fire yesterday evening was caused by a burning chimney on the residence of Mr. John Michell, editor of the Times-Mountaineer. It may have been all right, but it looks to us like a put up job by brother Michell, as an extra inducement to Santa Claus. No damage was done.

The Methodist Sunday school will have Christmas exercises and a Christmas tree Tuesday night. Friends desiring may put presents on the tree, but not more than two presents for any one person. Presents should be at the church by 2 o'clock. Exercises commence at 7 o'clock.

C. A. Greiss left Dickinson, North Dakota, last September, coming across country on horseback. He stopped at Wenatchee, leaving there on the 8th, and arriving here yesterday at noon. He will leave in a few days for Los Angeles, going by way of Prineville. He is engaged in writing up the country for Eastern papers.

As it is eminently proper that everyone should celebrate Christmas, no paper will be issued from this office tomorrow. In lieu thereof we wish all our readers a merry and happy Christmas. May each one's cup of happiness be filled to overflowing, and may all of the youngsters get what they want, and escape from some of those things they will probably need.

Remember the magic lantern show Christmas night at Armory Hall, for the benefit of St. Paul's Sunday school. A selection will be made from four hundred views, both instructive and amusing. The lantern is a large one and shows a splendid picture. An interesting program aside from the lantern show, has been arranged. Admission 25 cents, children 10 cents. Exercises begin at 7 o'clock.

A couple of boys were arrested last night for disturbing the Salvation Army services. They are large enough and old enough to know better. While the Salvation Army is looked upon by many as a nuisance, as long as they behave themselves they are entitled to hold their meetings without being disturbed. Those who do not like their style of worship should not go to the barracks, but if they do go they should behave themselves.

Salvation Army.

The ship "Glad Tidings," laden with good things, for whom it may concern, will be on exhibition at the opera house on the evening of the 25th of December. This will be the grandest exhibit of the kind ever seen in the state of Oregon. Adults, 10 cents; children free. Doors will be open early. Everyone welcome.

Sweets to the Sweet.

Mr. Andrew Keller, the confectioner, has a beautiful display of Christmas goods in his line. Fancy candies, in endless varieties, cakes plain and ornamental, and the thousand of things "just too sweet" make up the outlay. Remember the little folks will want candy and they all like Keller's.

Notice.

Members of Columbia Lodge, No. 5, I. O. O. F., will meet at their hall tomorrow afternoon at 1 o'clock; for the purpose of attending the funeral of our late brother, Thomas N. Joles. By order Attest: H. FERG, N. G. H. Clough, Secy.

Lost.

Some place between Joles, Collins & Co.'s store and The Dalles Lumber Co.'s store, yesterday, a large clasp purse, containing $286; $170 gold, $110 currency and $6 silver. A suitable reward will be paid for its return to THE CHRONICLE office. J. F. JONES.

Christmas Services.

There will be a Christmas service at the Congregational church Tuesday, a. m. at 11 o'clock. All are cordially invited.

Death of Thomas N. Joles.

Yesterday afternoon between 4 and 5 o'clock, Thomas N. Joles died at the residence of his brother in this city. The news was a shock to the community, as his death was sudden and unexpected. Mr. Joles has not been in good health for some time, having had a very severe spell of sickness last summer, from which he never entirely recovered; but yet he was able to attend to his business, and was apparently regaining his health.

The first report was that he had taken a dose of carbolic acid by mistake. This report was caused by the fact that Mr. Joles, a few moments before the fatal attack, had put some carbolic acid on his lips, which were chapped, mistaking it for salve. This, of course, had nothing to do with his death. He had gone to his room shortly after dinner, and had been there but a short time when he was seized with a choking spell. Dr. Logan was sent for, but by the time he arrived the end was reached, and with a gasp or two, the spirit of the stricken man took flight. No autopsy was held, but the doctors agree that death was caused by fatty degeneration of the heart.

The funeral takes place tomorrow afternoon at 2 o'clock from the Methodist church, under the direction of the A. O. U. W. order, of which he was an honored member.

Deceased came here from Geneseo, Illinois, about twelve years ago, and has been in business nearly ever since that time. At the time of his death he was senior member of the firm of Joles, Collins & Co., one of the leading business houses of the city. He was a member of the city council at the time of his death, a position he had held for several years, and was energetic and conscientious in the discharge of his duties. He was unmarried, aged 35 years, and will be sincerely mourned by a large circle of friends. Besides being a Workman, deceased was also a member of Columbia Lodge, I. O. O. F., of Mt. Hood Camp, Woodmen of the World, and The Dalles Lodge, I. O. G. T.

Attention, A. O. U. W.

The members of Temple Lodge, No. 3, A. O. U. W., will meet at their hall tomorrow afternoon at 1 o'clock, for the purpose of attending the funeral of our deceased brother, Thomas N. Joles. By order of C. F. STEPHENS, Master Workman.

Notice.

The D. P. & A. N. Co. will tie up their steamers for necessary repairs on Jan. 6th, 1895, and will resume operations as soon after repairs are made as possible. W. C. ALLAWAY, Agent.

When Baby was sick, we gave her Castoria. When she was a Child, she cried for Castoria. When she became a Miss, she clung to Castoria. When she had Children, she gave them Castoria.
