JOIN AND SEE.

The action of the pope concerning secret societies will not hurt the latter materially, but will injure the church. The societies, as such, will pay no attention to the matter, as religion and politics are strictly forbidden in all, or nearly all secret societies.

Secret societies are for benevolent purposes only; they are fighting no creed, no religion; on the contrary they inculcate good morals, friendship, charity, benevolence, love, truth and hope.

James G. Fair, the greatest of all the miners who won fortunes from the Comstock, and ex-United States senator from Nevada, died at San Francisco late Friday night last.

"James Elkins, who has been on a trip to the Carolinas with horses, has returned to Albany," says the Oregonian yesterday. It then quotes Mr. Elkins as saying he had "just escaped the big eastern storm, but at Ogden there was about six inches of snow and at The Dalles two feet."

The horrible affair at Silver Lake Christmas eve, in which forty men, women and children lost their lives, is the most dreadful and heartrending catastrophe that ever occurred in Oregon.

Some of the railroad commissioners claim that Engineer Sherman was to blame for the accident at the Summit. Sensible people put the blame on the railroad commissioners for allowing trains to be run over the roads longer than the sidings.

It is now plain that Mt. Rainier has not been smoking. What Seattle people saw was the smoke of the senatorial battle being waged or waged between Spokane and Walla Walla.

About the most satisfactory work the Lexow committee has done is the implicating of that holier-than-thou man Anthony Comstock in accepting bribes.

Exposure to rough weather, dampness, extreme cold, etc., is apt to bring on an attack of rheumatism or neuralgia; chapped hands and face, cracked lips and violent itching of the skin also owe their origin to cold weather.

Some place between Joles, Collins & Co.'s store and The Dalles Lumber Co.'s flume, yesterday, a large clasp purse, containing $286; $170 gold, $110 currency and $6 silver. A suitable reward will be paid for its return to THE CHRONICLE office.

Not every woman who arrives at middle age, retains the color and beauty of her hair, but every woman may do so by the occasional application of Ayer's Hair Vigor.

All city warrants registered prior to January 2, 1892, are now due and payable at my office. Interest ceases after this date.

Consumption.

The incessant wasting of a consumptive can only be overcome by a powerful concentrated nourishment like Scott's Emulsion. If this wasting is checked and the system is supplied with strength to combat the disease there is hope of recovery.

Scott's Emulsion of Cod-liver Oil, with Hypophosphites, does more to cure Consumption than any other known remedy. It is for all Affections of Throat and Lungs, Coughs, Colds, Bronchitis and Wasting.

Mrs. J. H. HORSYDER, 152 Pacific Ave., Santa Cruz, Cal., writes:

"When a girl at school, in Reading, Ohio, I had a severe attack of brain fever. On my recovery, I found myself perfectly bald, and, for a long time, I feared I should be permanently so.

"After a fit of sickness, my hair came out in combfalls. I used two bottles of Ayer's Hair Vigor and now my hair is over a yard long and very full and heavy. I have recommended this preparation to others with like good effect."

"I have used Ayer's Hair Vigor for several years and always obtained satisfactory results. I know it is the best preparation for the hair that is made."
