BRIEF MENTION.

Leaves From the Notebook of Chronicle Reporters.Probate court in session today and tomorrow.License to wed was issued today to Chas. S. McGee and Ella B. Nolin.The sleighing is pretty good below the bluff, and many took advantage of it yesterday.Mr. French will show here next week, his agent coming up tomorrow to complete arrangements.The local passenger arrived through from Portland on time today, the first time since the storm began a week ago.If the fellows who ride behind the jingling sleigh-bells would kindly avoid our corner they would add much to our piece and peace of mind.Members of the literary society please take notice that tonight's meeting will be postponed, on account of the hall being used for church purposes.County commissioners' court meets Wednesday and all bills to be acted upon at this term, must be filed with the county clerk by tomorrow night.As we go to press, Mr. Birgfeld tells us all arrangements for the McKee Rankin theatrical troupe are declared off, and they will not show here at all.The telephone line, which has been down near Portland since Thursday, is again in working order, connections being made at 10 o'clock this morning.The ordinance about clearing sidewalks is much better obeyed by our citizens than by the city itself. The street crossings are in anything but good shape.The roads through the country are not very well broken yet. Yesterday Hops, M. A. Moody and Senator Hilton went out to Boyd, and it took them five hours to get there.Owing to the cold snap and the rapidly-increasing ice in the river, the Regulator will tie up tonight until further notice. The trips yesterday and today allowed her to clean up all odds and ends of freight in good shape.

Just listen to those sleigh-bells, and then realize how hard it is to make a newspaper with the merry jingling, jangling, merrily things making a fellow's fingers beat a tattoo on his copy every time they pass, and that is twice a minute.

In mentioning the Odd Fellows installation program the other day, we inadvertently failed to make mention of Miss Russell's recitation, which was pronounced exceptionally good, as all those who have had the pleasure of hearing the talented young lady, will readily believe.

It is really astonishing how people will prevaricate. It has been telegraphed, telephoned, written, expressed and freighted up here that there were seven feet of snow at the Cascades, but parties who made the trip on the Regulator yesterday say that there was at no time over two feet of the fleecy at that point, the other five existed only in someone's imagination, and didn't cool its fervor either.

A fine Chinook prevailed all afternoon yesterday, and the result is that we have only two feet of snow where we had three before. A cold wave swept down from the east during the night, and the gentle Chinook hied itself away. In consequence of this, the thermometer registered 18 above zero this morning, and more than one average good citizen profaned a few times when the faucet refused to turn or the water to flow.

The big red flouring mill near Union burned to the ground at 11 o'clock Saturday morning. The fire department responded quickly and by vigorous work was enabled to save the warehouse situated 70 feet distant from the mill. The mill was a five story structure and equipped with the very best modern machinery. The property belonged to Hutchison Bros. and was leased to Mr.
Ed. Kiddle. The cause of the fire is unknown; loss $25,000.

A Wallace, Idaho, dispatch of Jan 1st, says that the firemen's ball last night was broken up about 11 p. m. by a sad fatality. Mrs. John Breenan had left her little girl asleep in the carriage in the dressing room. During her absence some lady, whose name is not given, sat on the child and killed it.
The little girl was 11 months old and large for her age. The remains will be interred at Mission tomorrow. Mrs.
Breenan is a sister of Mrs. Patrick Clark, of Spokane.

Real Estate Transaction.

A deed was filed today as follows: Oak Grove cemetery association to Waucoma lodge, No. 30, K. of P., cemetery ground near Hood River.

When Baby was sick, we gave her Castoria.
When she was a Child, she cried for Castoria.
When she became a Girl, she clung to Castoria.
When she had Children, she gave them Castoria.

Want a New County.

Mr. A. R. Lyle, a prominent resident and stockraiser of Crook county, was in the city yesterday, and will not return home until after the close of the legislative session, he representing his country in that body. Mr. Lyle is one of the leading republicans of Southeastern Oregon, and his election as member of the legislature in a county strongly democratic, attests his popularity. He states that stock in Crook county are in good condition, and taking the winter well. One week ago there were twenty inches of snow on the range, but now it is rapidly disappearing.

Mr. Lyle says that the people in his vicinity are anxious to have a new county formed out of the eastern part of Crook, the northwest portion of Grant, and a slice from the southeast part of Grant, and a bill is prepared for such purpose. Mr. Lyle has agreed, if the majority of the taxpayers living within the lines of the proposed new county will join in asking for the same, he will introduce the bill, and do what is in his power to secure its passage. The sheepmen of Crook county are hoping for better times, and better prices for wool, when the present democratic administration goes out of power, and the republicans again assume control of the government. Until then they are content to live as best they may. Mr. Lyle left for Southern Oregon last evening and will return to Portland during the week.

Degree of Honor.

Wednesday evening there was a goodly number of members of Fern lodge out to witness the installation of officers, notwithstanding the snow was falling fast and the streets were well nigh impassable. The installation service was performed in a very pleasing manner by Mrs. Mary S. Myers, past chief of honor.
The following officers were duly installed for the ensuing term:

Mrs. B. J. Russell, chief of honor; Mrs. Maggie Herrin, lady of honor; Mrs.
Alice Runyon, chief of ceremonies; Mrs.
Evelyn Eshelman, recorder; Miss Cora Joles, financier; Mrs. Ollie Stephens, receiver; Mrs. Annie Urquhart, usher; Miss Mabel Sterling, inside watchman; Miss Emma Jacobson, outside watchman.

The Degree of Honor is a social organization for the wives, daughters, mothers and sisters of member of the A. O.
U. W.

Disguised as a Calf.

A miner operating on Sabe creek, Idaho, for some time past has missed a great deal of amalgam from his sluice boxes. He determined to keep watch for the thief and several nights ago he saw a calf nibbling grass near the boxes, often reaching over the rim and drinking the water that flowed over the rifles.
He, however, paid no attention to the animal. The theft of amalgam still continued, and a few nights ago when the calf appeared he shot it. He ran to where the calf was lying and saw a human leg with the foot wrapped in sacks protruding from the animal's stomach. It took him but a second to realize that he had shot the thief, who had been cleverly disguised as a calf.

The miner took the culprit to camp, and much to his surprise he discovered the thief was a young woman.

PERSONAL MENTION.

Mr. Joseph Soesbe of Hood River is in the city.

Miss Matilda Hollister returned last night from a visit in Portland.

Mr. C. H. Cummins of Enderby made this office a pleasant call today.

Messrs. Ed M. Williams and John Weigle returned on the Regulator last night from a few days' visit in Portland.

Hon. T. R. Coon, one of our legislators, is up from Hood River today and will remain a day or so before leaving for Salem.

Mrs. Ford, accompanied by her daughters, Misses Elsie and Alice Ball, and son, Jimmie, returned from Portland yesterday morning.

In Pendleton are several gentlemen who have neglected for all the years past to learn to dance, says the East Oregonian. They have been compelled to set in helpless misery and see others move through the mazes of the waltz and had to content themselves with a few quadrilles or simple schottishes. It was therefore decided by several ladies to teach the unfortunate gentlemen the art of waltzing, and on Tuesday evening they were invited to the home of Mr. and Mrs. Jackson and the first lesson given. The approaching charity ball made the learners desperate in their attempts to "catch the step," and it is said that all will be able to participate on that occasion.

There is good reason for the popularity of Chamberlain's Cough Remedy.
Davis & Buzard, of west monterey, Clarion Co., Pa., say: "It has cured people that our physicians could do nothing for. We persuaded them to try a bottle of Chamberlain's Cough Remedy and they now recommend it with the rest of us." 25 and 50 cent bottles for sale by Blakeley & Houghton Druggists.

Many stubborn and aggravating cases of rheumatism that were believed to be incurable and accepted as life legacies, have yielded to Chamberlain's Pain-Balm, much to the surprise and gratification of the sufferers. One application will relieve the pain and suffering and its continued use insures an effectual cure. For sale by Blakeley & Houghton Druggists.
