THE BAGGING WATERS.

The Entire Lower Portion of Homestead Submerged.

HOMESTEAD, Pa., Jan. 8.—The entire lower part of Homestead is under water. Driftwood and ice last night knocked the falsework from under the new Brown bridge across the Monongahela. The Carnegie works were compelled to shut down this morning on account of the flood, which disabled their pumps. The plant will probably be able to resume on Friday.

PITTSBURG, Jan. 8.—The floods in the Allegheny and Monongahela rivers have reached their limit, and the worst is over. The highest marks were recorded about 10 o'clock this morning, and soon after the water began slowly to recede. The great mass of ice which filled both rivers during the past 24 hours is slowly disappearing. Locally the loss will be comparatively light. The general loss on both rivers is estimated at about $150,000. This includes wrecked coal-barges, flooded mills and mines, and the damage to exposed river properties.

BELLAIRE, O., Jan. 8.—The river at this point is 31 feet and rising rapidly. It is believed the river will leave its banks tonight. All the lowlands are flooded. The river is full of ice. The steamer Phillips and a large whariboat have been crushed by the ice. Great fears of loss of property are entertained here.

POMEROY, O., Jan. 8.—The government mark at 8 o'clock this morning shows 29 feet of water, and the river is rising six inches an hour. Business men are moving their stores out of the cellars. Since 1884 there has not been so much alarm as now.

STREUBENVILLE, O., Jan. 8.—The river marks show 32 feet and rising. Thirty-five feet are expected. Six bents of the Wheeling & Lake Erie railroad trestle, between here and Mingo, have been swept away, and all traffic is stopped. South of the city the tracks are two feet under water.

PARKERSBURG, W. Va., Jan. 8.—The Palestine boom, up the Kanawha river, has let go, and thousands of feet of ties, logs and lumber are at the mercy of the wind and water. Loss $150,000. River men look for 36 to 40 feet of water here.

WASHINGTON, Jan. 8.—The Ohio at Pittsburg is 25.7 feet, 3.7 feet above the danger line. There has been a rise of 1.3 feet the past 24 hours. At Parkersburg the river is 25.3 feet, 12.7 below the danger line.

Exposure to rough weather, dampness, extreme cold, etc., is apt to bring on an attack of rheumatism or neuralgia; chapped hands and face, cracked lips and violent itching of the skin also owe their origin to cold weather. Dr. McLean's Volcanic Oil Liniment should be kept on hand at all times for immediate application when troubles of this nature appear. It is a sovereign remedy. 25c, 50c and $1.00 per bottle.

A political orator, evidently better acquainted with Western geography than with the language of the Greeks, recently exclaimed with fervor that his principles should prevail "from Alpha to Omega."

Carlton Cornwell, foreman of the Gazette, Middleton, N. J., believes that Chamberlain's Cough Remedy should be in every home. He used it for a cold and it effected a speedy cure. He says: "It is indeed a grand remedy, I can recommend to all. I have also seen it used for whooping cough, with the best results." 50 cent bottles for sale by Blakeley & Houghton Druggists.

A minister who was preaching from the text, "The Lord God is a sun and shield," began with this sublime strain: "My beloved brethren, have you ever considered how much we owe to the king of day, that mighty orb whose rays bring all things into visibility? Were it not for the splendid beams of the sun, we should have to be content with the pale and insufficient light of the moon."—Christian Advocate.

A Secret.

If all the ladies knew the simple secret that a bad complexion is due to a disordered liver, there would be fewer sallow faces and blotchy skins. This important organ must be kept active and healthy to insure a clear and rosy color. Dr. J. A. McLean's Liver & Kidney Balm as a purifier, beats all the creams and lotions in existence and will produce a more permanent effect. Removes bad taste in the mouth, offensive breath, yellow tinge in the skin, wind on the stomach and that dull, bilious feeling which so surely indicates the torpid liver. Price $1.00 per bottle. Snipes & Kinnersly, Drug Co.

A minister in Florida had been laboring hard to raise money for a church. Finally, a friend from the North sent him the last hundred dollars needed; and the day he received it he was presented with a son and heir. The Sunday following the congregation shook with suppressed laughter, when the poor man, thinking only of the donations, thanked God for the small son that had just arrived!—W. H. McElroy.

There is good reason for the popularity of Chamberlain's Cough Remedy. Davis & Buzard, of west Monterey, Clarion Co., Pa., say: "It has cured people that our physicians could do nothing for. We persuaded them to try a bottle of Chamberlain's Cough Remedy and they now recommend it with the rest of us." 25 and 50 cent bottles for sale by Blakeley & Houghton Druggists.

"Only the Scars Remain,"

Says HENRY HUDSON, of the James Smith Woolen Machinery Co., Philadelphia, Pa., who certifies as follows:

"Among the many testimonials which I see in regard to certain medicines performing cures, cleansing the blood, etc., none impress me more than my own case. Twenty years ago, at the age of 18 years, I had swellings come on my legs, which broke and became running sores. Our family physician could do me no good, and it was feared that the bones would be affected. At last, my good old Mother Urged Me to try Ayer's Sarsaparilla. I took three bottles, the sores healed, and I have not been troubled since. Only the scars remain, and the memory of the past, to remind me of the good Ayer's Sarsaparilla has done me. I now weigh two hundred and twenty pounds, and am in the best of health. I have been on the road for the past twelve years, have noticed Ayer's Sarsaparilla advertised in all parts of the United States, and always take pleasure in telling what good it did for me."
