BRIEF MENTION.

Leaves From the Notebook of Chronicle Reporters.

The Golden Giant Monday Evening.

A full orchestra will furnish the music for the "Golden Giant."

The weather bureau reports for tomorrow rain and stationary temperature.

The air this morning was as balmy as spring, in spite of the foot-and-a-half of snow.

Don't forget that Harris is making a clearance sale and goods are down to cost, or below it.

"The Golden Giant" at the opera house, Monday night. Reserved seats at Blakeley & Houghton's.

The ice gorge that has blocked the river here for the past week, moved out this morning. The warm weather, aided perhaps by a slight rise in the river, gave it a start in the right direction.

Last night in spite of the rain several parties were out sleighing. It looked odd to see the fiery steeds dash by to the music of the bells, while the gay riders sported umbrellas and a do-you-catch-on-to-the-style-of-us smile.

The driver of the Prineville and Mitchell stage reports the snow as all gone the other side of the Deschutes. The ground though is frozen, and the melting snow instead of going into it, is carried away and every little stream is bank full.

The Rev. J. Whisler will be able to fill his pulpit at the Methodist Episcopal church Sunday, Jan. 13th. Morning theme, "Phases of the Life of Faith in Christ;" evening "Sowing and Reaping in the Kingdoms of Nature and Grace." A cordial welcome to all.

C. J. Crandall is superintending the work of changing the partitions in the Schanno building, and has the work nearly completed. It will be some time before Mr. Harris gets his goods moved into the new addition, but when he does he will have one of the handsomest stores in the city.

The Umzooes Whist Club was entertained Thursday evening at the home of Mrs. Wilson. After the young people had decided who had the most points at whist, the chairs were pushed back and an impromptu dance was held. The next meeting will be held Friday evening.

The young people's literary society will resume their regular meeting next Monday evening. The regular program will be gone through with. Quotations from Hamlet. It is hoped there will be a large attendance and many new members enrolled. The meeting will be held in the Methodist church basement.

Commencing Monday night Mr. and Mrs. R. E. French will play a three night's engagement at the opera house, the play for Monday night being that popular production of the clever Clay M. Greene, "The Golden Giant." Our citizens had the pleasure of seeing this troupe a short time ago, in "Dr. Jekyll and Mr. Hyde," and will remember Mr. French as an actor of wonderful power. Reserved seats at Blakeley & Houghton's.

A Scouring Mill.

There will be a public meeting at the court house this evening at 7:30 for the purpose of discussing the proposition of Mr. Shaw to erect a scouring mill here. It is of the utmost importance that manufacturing industries be inaugurated here, and every citizen should attend the meeting. Mr. Shaw will make his proposition, and that there may be no misunderstanding concerning it, every man should hear it for himself. As we understand Mr. Shaw's proposition, it is an unusually fair one. Besides, it is not only the scouring mill, but as one industry naturally leads to another, in encouraging it we are paving the way for others equally as important. The past few months has witnessed the building of a cannery and a cold storage plant is being perfected. The assurance of a scouring mill would round out the winter's improvements in good shape, and if we will develop a little energy and public spirit we can see this accomplished.

Mr. Mays Not a Candidate.

Ex-United States District Attorney Mays yesterday stated that he is not and has not been a candidate for United States senator. Those who have been using his name in that connection, he says, have no authority, and he is surprised to learn that he has been mentioned in that connection. He has had no notion of entering the lists. The first he knew of it was when he saw it in the Oregonian. Mr. Mays is not a resident of The Dalles, but of Portland, and he is devoting himself to his profession—not politics.—Oregonian.

No one in ordinary health need become bald or gray, it he will follow sensible treatment. We advise cleanliness of the scalp and the use of Hall's Hair Renewer.

Mitchell Notes.

A happy New Year to you, and a continuation of all the good things of last year and as many more as can come.

Already we have received blessings in the way of excellent weather. Some snow has fallen, but is gone almost as soon as here. We have had a few nights that have been a little pinching, sufficient to freeze over the still waters of the creek and to entirely freeze the John Day in some places to such a strength as to bear sheep in crossing them. But at present a Chinook has been lending us its good cheer, and now the ground is almost bare as far as can be seen from here. New Year's day was especially splendid, but the 2d was one of the worst days of my experience. Snow and wind seemed to be in a rage and intent on covering up or blowing away anything in their way. The next morning there was something near six inches of snow; but it soon melted away by the soft breath from the west.

New Year's could not be passed over unless someone must suffer some affliction. Mr. George Collins fell down and broke his ankle as he was taking his weary, and I expect uncertain, way home from the saloon in the wee sma' hours. Mr. Collins is one of our best carpenters, and his misfortune is a little drawback, but if he must tip the cups of satan's draught he must expect broken legs, and mayhap a neck.

The New Year's ball was a success, although the attendance was small. Everyone enjoyed themselves, especially at supper, which was—well I heard someone say it was splendid, and I think it must have been, for I was there and I ate—well I think I ate too much of everything on the table, for the next morning I was down on my back part of the time, and part of the time on my stomach groaning from a bilious attack. It was not the supper, oh no! You know I could not be such a pig as that; but I was really sick, sick enough to require a powder from the doctor, and that is sick enough. Yes, the supper was very good.

One of our New Year's blessings is in the fact of Mrs. Dr. Houck convalescing from a series of complaints that kept her confined to her room for about two weeks. And another, which I hope will prove advantageous to the goers, is Dr. Hemlock and wife are preparing to leave us. They mean to make Lone Rock their future home. Also the school meeting call, for the purpose of levying a tax. The object to be accomplished is to have a new schoolhouse. The purpose was accomplished by two to one.

A dispute came up between two minds, names I do not know, concerning a horse trade, which was emphasized by a blow, tried by Justice Jesse Allen, and settled by a fine.

The death of Mrs. O. S. Boardman at 6 o'clock New Year's morning caused a great sensation, as well as heartfelt sorrow. She had been sick but a few days, and the general opinion was that she was much better. No woman near here had a wider range of friends than she, and none we could miss more. She leaves a husband, one son and one daughter, Vincent and Stella, to mourn the loss of a dear true friend, wife and mother. E. V. E.

All persons not worshipping elsewhere are cordially invited.

PERSONAL MENTION.

Hon. W. H. Biggs will leave for Portland tomorrow and will visit Salem to see the inaugural ceremonies, before returning.

Mr. Leslie Butler expects to leave tonight, accompanied by his mother, for Rogers, Arkansas, to visit his sister. He will remain away probably a month.

Mr. Hugh Glenn, who has been in Portland and Salem for several days, arrived home last night, his daughter, Edna, who had been visiting friends in Portland, accompanying him.
