BRIEF MENTION.

Leaves From the Notebook of Chronicle Reporters.

The Golden Giant Monday Evening.

A full orchestra will furnish the music for the "Golden Giant."

The regular Wednesday evening dance given by the Union Dancing club, will not be given this week.

The King's Daughters will meet tomorrow at 2 o'clock at the residence of Mrs. J. French. All members are requested to be present.

Tonight "The Golden Giant," tomorrow night "Davy Crockett," and Wednesday night Phoenix," by the French Co., at the opera house.

Friendship lodge, K. of P., will have work in the third rank tonight and no doubt the hall will be crowded. This lodge is prospering and growing very rapidly. Besides it is in the best condition financially of any lodge in the state.

We are requested to announce that "There will be a dramatic entertainment at Wamic, on the evening of Feb. 2d. The program comprises "The Dutchman's Ghost," author unknown, and "King Richard III," by William Shakespeare." Music for the tragedy will be furnished by the Woodcock orchestra. Admission, free."

Ray McKinsey, a 14-year-old boy working for Mr. John Waters of Mosier, was perhaps fatally gored by a heifer while feeding her in the stable Saturday. She thrust her horn through the boy's neck, near the jugular vein. Dr. Morgan of Hood River happened to be near at hand and took the boy to Hood River, where everything possible was done for him. The wound is a very severe one and may result fatally.

Scouring Mill Matter.

Pursuant to call quite a number of our business men met at the courthouse Saturday evening to hear Mr. Shaw's proposition concerning the location of a scouring mill here. After his proposition had been made, the meeting organized by electing Hon. Robert Mays chairman.

On motion a committee, consisting of Messrs. Nolan, Moody, Brogan, Kelsay and Schanno, were appointed by the chair, after which, on motion, Mr. D. M. French and the chairman were added to the committee.

The meeting then adjourned, subject to the call of the committee, which remained to have a consultation with Mr. Shaw.

Mr. Shaw's proposition is a fair one. He asks as a bonus the mill site and a building, which will not cost over $4,000. He asks additionally the loan of $20,000 for five years at 10 per cent, the loan to be secured by the mill and plant and $17,000 worth of other property. For this he puts in a scouring mill and a two-set woolen mill.

Council Meeting.

The council met Saturday night at 7:30 pursuant to adjournment, Mayor Bolton and the five councilmen being present. The claims laid over from last meeting were all allowed.

On motion of Johns, seconded by Hood, council proceeded to the election of a councilman for the Second ward, to fill the vacancy caused by the death of Thos. N. Joles. Thereupon Councilman Nolan introduced the following resolution:

THE DALLES, OR., Jan. 3, 1895.

"WHEREAS, The death of Thomas N. Joles has caused a vacancy in the office of one councilman for the Second ward of Dalles City; and

"WHEREAS, The financial condition of Dalles City is such as to demand the harmonious and united action of a full council, therefore be it

"Resolved, That in accordance with the precedents established by all councils existing under the present charter, it requires the vote of at least four councilmen to fill the vacancy caused by the death of our esteemed colleague."

Mr. Nolan then moved the adoption of the resolution, which motion was seconded by Councilman Lauer, and a roll-call was demanded. Thereupon the roll being called the result was as follows: Ayes—Nolan, Lauer; noes—Hood, Eshelman and Johns. The vote being announced, Councilmen Nolan and Lauer retired, and the council being without a quorum adjourned.

John Rein Shoots Himself.

About 6 o'clock Saturday evening, John Rein, a farm hand residing in Sherman county, shot himself in the stomach. The act was committed in the street near Skibbe's hotel. When first found he stated that he shot himself intentionally, but after being carried into Skibbe's hotel he stated the shooting was accidental. He was very drunk at the time and had been so nearly all day, and the chances are that he does not know how or why he shot himself, but as he was too drunk to sit on his horse, it is easily seen that he was too full to monkey with a loaded pistol. There is a bare possibility of his recovery, but the chances are decidedly against him.

Installation.

On Saturday evening an open meeting of the G. A. R. and W. R. C. was held in Fraternity hall, for the purpose of installing the newly elected officers of post and corps. The slippery streets, slush and rain combined did not prevent a large number of both organizations from being present to witness the installation. The following officers were installed by P. P. C. W. A. Maddron:

W S Myers, P C; J Lemison, Jr, V C; F Esping, Chap; A G Johnson, Adj; E N Chandler, Q M; L P Nichols, O D; R L Aiken, O G; J M Patterson, S M; Wm McCrum, Q M. After which P. C. installed W. A. Maddron, Sen V C. After a short recess the meeting was called to order by Mrs. B. Jane Russell, Past Dep't Pres. of California, whose work was above criticism. The exercises opened by singing "America," in which all were invited to join. Mrs. Mary S. Myers was announced as installing officer. After being introduced, escorted to the platform and given the salute of the order, she installed the following officers in a very graceful, impressive manner:

Blanche G Patterson, Pres; Belle Burger, S V P; Villa Lewis, J V P; Maggie Herrin, Sec; Lizzie Ulrich, Treas; Sue O Wilson, Chap; Jennie Russell, Con; Eliza Kelsay, G; Sarah E Bunch, Asst Con; Annie Urquhart, asst G.

The newly appointed president tendered the thanks of the corps to the installing officer and made some very pleasant remarks, after which Mrs. Sue Wilson stepped to the front and in a few well chosen words, presented Mrs. Myers, the past president, with a gold recognition pin, with red, white and blue center, bearing the letters F., C. and L., the motto of the order. This little affair was kept a profound secret from Mrs. Myers and was a genuine surprise; but she was equal to the occasion and thanked the corps in a very touching manner for the beautiful little souvenir, paid a high tribute "to the ladies, for their loyal support the past year," and especially to her secretary, Mrs. Nichols, and treasurer, Mrs. Burger, and asked for her successor the same earnest efforts.

After singing several Grand Army songs and partaking of light refreshments, the remainder of the evening was spent in a very social way.

Mr. and Mrs. French at Cordray's.

The reappearance of R. E. French and Eva Earle French at Cordray's theater last evening with their own company in "The Golden Giant" was a signal success, the large audience present giving them a hearty welcome on the several entrances, and generously applauding their efforts throughout the five interesting acts of the drama. Eva Earle French always was a pleasing soubrette, and as Bessie Fairfax last evening she extracted a good deal of fun out of the part. Mr. French made a dashing Jack Mason, the gambler, whose heart was in the right place, and he endowed the part with much of his own personal magnetism, that secured for him hearty recognition during the evening. Mr. French has a good company to support him, and their excellent work last evening, individually and collectively, had much to do with the success of the play.—Oregonian.

How Graziir Died.

In the matter of the inquest upon the body of P. R. Graziir, deceased:

We, the jury empaneled to inquire into the cause of the death of P. R. Graziir, who died Friday morning, Jan. 11, 1895, at the residence of W. L. Hendrix, do find as follows:

That said deceased was about 34 years of age and was unmarried. That the cause of his death, to the best of our judgment, was through an accidental fall from a building on Tuesday, January 8th, which caused a rupture and thereby produced congestion of the lungs.
