BRIEF MENTION.

Leaves From the Notebook of Chronicle Reporters.

To Rise From Its ashes Tonight Phoenix.

The state tax this year is only three mills.

The recorder's court was barren of items today.

The county commissioners completed their labors today.

Commissioners court adjourned today until the 31st inst.

Remember Phoenix at the opera house tonight, the last appearance of the French troupe.

Elder J. W. Jenkins will preach at Dufur, Saturday evening and Sunday morning and evening.

The weather prognostications for tomorrow are warmer, snow and possibly stationary temperature.

From 2 to 4 o'clock tomorrow Garretson will have a menagerie in his show window. Watch out for it.

The Third regiment has received 250 new haversacks, 250 canteens, 250 pairs leggings, 250 campaign hats.

Jos. T. Peters & Co., have cord wood, which is desirable in all respects and respectfully solicit your orders.

The Hook and Ladder company will hold its first regular meeting tonight. It is urgently requested that every member attend.

The barometer is down to 29.29 this morning, indicating a heavy storm somewhere in the Northwest, but not necessarily here.

Coasting was never better and the merry voices of the young folks can be heard on Union street every night until a late hour.

There is nothing new developed concerning the senatorial fight, and the matter will probably rest until Saturday and Sunday, when the legislature will adjourn to Portland, and there proceed to elect.

The new telephone line will be put up just as soon as the weather will permit. A carload of 75 poles for the line was shipped from Hood River today, and another carload will be sent up this week.

Mr. J. W. Cox of Kingsley brought a wagon load of dressed hogs in from that place yesterday. There were nine teen of them and as fine a lot of hogs as was ever brought to the city. They were purchased by the Columbia Packing Company.

The ice has become strong enough on the sloughs east of town to make skating possible, but it is so rough that no pleasure can be gotten out of it. The small boy, whom nothing can discourage when it comes to sport, tried it, and even he and "his'n" gave it up as a bad job.

There will be service in the Lutheran chapel every Sunday at 10:30 a. m. Monday, Rev. Horn will begin with the lessons preparing confirmation; also every day except Wednesday and Saturday from 4 to 5 p. m. there will be German school and if several Americans like to take a German course, he is ready to begin. Please make your notification.

It commenced snowing here about noon, and has kept it up steadily all afternoon. At Bridal Veil there is a strong down-stream wind, and if there is much of a snow fall there another blockade may be possible. The Oregonian today says that this storm is general all over the Pacific coast, from Mexico to Alaska.

The Tax Levy.

The county commissioners made the tax levy today as follows: State, 3 mills, state school purposes, 5 mills, county purposes, 12 mills, county road purposes, 1 mill; total state and county, 21 mills. Of the levy for county purposes the one-twentieth of one mill will go to the G. A. R. relief fund. It will be seen that the tax rate is the same as last year, but as the assessments are reduced from fifteen to twenty per cent, the rate as compared to last year, is quite a reduction.

Real Estate Transaction.

The following deeds were filed yesterday and today:

United States to Archibald Wilson, s $\frac{1}{2}$ , n $\frac{1}{2}$  and s $\frac{1}{2}$ , nw $\frac{1}{4}$ , sec. 2, tp 2 n, r 14 e; patent.

Mary Laughlin to G. W. Johnston, lot 3, block 4, Laughlin's bluff addition to Dalles City; $150.

When Baby was sick, we gave her Castoria. When she was a Child, she cried for Castoria. When she became Miss, she clung to Castoria. When she had Children, she gave them Castoria.

The Committees Report.

The committee to whom was referred the proposition of Mr. James Shaw to erect a scouring mill and a woolen mill here, after thoroughly investigating the matter submitted to him the following proposition:

Mr. James Shaw, The Dalles Oregon.

DEAR SIR: In reply to your proposition to build and operate a woolen mill and scouring plant in this city, we the undersigned, a committee appointed to canvass the matter with our citizens will offer you the following:

If you will guarantee to put in and operate the wool scouring and drying plant and a woolen mill of the capacity of not less than two sets of modern machinery, referred to in your proposition, we for our citizens and the wool-growers of this section will undertake to furnish you a desirable site, and suitable building; the same to be donated to you on our being assured of the establishment and operation of the works in good faith. Our citizens do not feel justified in furnishing the funds necessary for purchasing machinery and operating the plant and therefore respectfully decline that portion of your proposition. Very Respectfully,

ROBERT MAYS,
D. M. FRENCH,
EMIL SCHANNO,
M. T. NOLAN,
P. BROGAN, Sr.
A. M. KELSAY,
M. A. MOODY.

Phoenix Tonight.

Davy Crocket last night drew a small house, not half that should have turned out. Mr. French and his troupe are all excellent actors, such as The Dalles seldom sees, but from the attendance it would seem that talent is not appreciated by our people. The play tonight is "Phoenix" and this will be the last opportunity to hear these really talented people. They should be given a rousing good house, if for nothing else, to show that a good troupe can come here and be appreciated. Besides, it will probably be the last opportunity for some time to enjoy a good play, for it may be set down as a certainty that when such actors as these are ignored others like them are going to give us a wide berth. We can safely promise our readers a genuine treat in "Phoenix" and sincerely hope that a good house will see the curtain go up tonight.

Funeral of P. R. Grazir.

From Mr. Wm. H. Staats, who came in from Dufur today, we learn that the funeral of the late P. R. Grazir, who died suddenly at the residence of W. L. Hendrix, Thursday night, last, took place at Dufur, Sunday, the body being buried in the Odd Fellows' cemetery. The procession was met near town by the Dufur brass band, of which the deceased had been a member, and was led by them to the Methodist church, a funeral march being played. At the church the services were conducted by A. J. Brigham. After which, preceded by the band with another solemn march, the long procession wound its way to the cemetery, where after brief services the body was laid at rest. The band played a solemn dirge and all was over.

Will Not Incorporate.

Hood River will not put on city airs for a little while, the county court today making the following order:

"Now at this time came on for final hearing and determination the matter of the incorporation of the town of Hood River, and it appearing to the court that all the proceedings had herein were not strictly in accordance with the law, and that the boundaries of said proposed corporate limits were erroneously defined, embracing therein the property of Frank H. Button, Mrs. L. J. Rand, Ed Rand and Eliza E. Reynolds, whose written remonstrances thereto were duly presented and allowed at the regular November term of this court. Now, therefore, it is ordered and adjudged that the petition for the incorporation of the town of Hood River, Wasco County, Oregon, be, and the same is hereby denied, and all proceedings had hereunder held for naught."

PERSONAL MENTION.

E. S. Olinger of Hood River is in the city.

MARRIED.

At the residence of the bride's parents, this city, January 15, 1895, Mr. Lawrence Ann Miller, of Franklin County, Ohio, and Miss Isabella G. Hood of The Dalles, Oregon, Rev. J. Whisler officiating.
