BRIEF MENTION.

Leaves From the Notebook of Chronicle Reporters.

Jos. T. Peters & Co., have cord wood, which is desirable in all respects and respectfully solicit your orders.

The weather bureau, this morning, prognosticated for today occasional snow, and for tomorrow fair and colder weather.

It is reported that the king of Greece, this morning, abdicated. This "local" came a long way, but is good local these times, just the same.

There was quite a riot in Brooklyn this afternoon. The strikers captured several cars and beat a passenger who expressed sympathy for the corporation, severely.

Miss Stevenson, daughter of the vice-president, died at Asheville, North Carolina, this afternoon. She had been very low for the past three weeks, and her death was expected at any moment during that time.

The sleighing is the very best, and so is the coasting. The jingle of bells can be heard far into the night, but the bobsleds seem to draw the larger crowd. For one reason, it is cheaper and for another—well, there is more fun in it.

There is a severe snow storm prevailing along the western slopes of the Rockies today, and trains are blocked everywhere. In Nevada the storm is very severe. The snow last night at Truckee was 18 feet; it is today 13 and on the summit at Cisco 26 feet.

The Congregational Y. P. S. C. E. will give a sleighing party to the Irvine place, below town, this (Friday) evening. Teams will take passengers from the Congregational church there and back for the sum of 50 cents, including supper. Parties wishing to furnish their own teams will be served supper for 25 cents each.

Patrick King, who had imbibed somewhat freely and had on this account induced someone to strike him in the face with a beer mug, probably just to see how the two mugs would compare, was before the city recorder this morning, and on top of the other ramifications, which the luxuries of his inebriety accomplished, he received a present of a $5 fine from the recorder, which he is now boarding out.

Our three feet of snow, which came a couple of weeks ago, but which has most of it vanished, is hardly worth mentioning alongside of the snowfall that is still falling down on the line of the Central Pacific. At Reno there was snow to the depth of a foot yesterday, at Truckee, twenty-four miles west of Reno, it was eight feet and at Cisco, where the road crosses the summit of the Sierra Nevadas, eighteen feet and still snowing.

Dufur Doings.

Everybody and his neighbor is busy just now talking politics and general news. While it's fun for the small boy, who knows just how to go to the "dickens" with his last pair of shoes.

People around town have been busy putting up ice, but on account of the recent thaw have suspended the ice business for the present. It continued to thaw and all the hills have yielded to the influence of the gentle chinook and are quite bare, while the ice came down the creek at a fearful rate, blocking up in huge piles thus causing an overflow at such a rate as to almost flood out some who are so unfortunate as to live on the creek bottoms. There is still a great plenty of snow left, however, although the roads on account of their cut up condition, are bad for either sleigh or wagon.

Dr. Kane's cheery face is once more seen on our streets, and we extend to him a hearty welcome.

Mr. William Helsler and Rev. Merrill are both absent at Wapinitia, holding a series of protracted meetings.

The usual Saturday night dances will be held Friday instead of Saturday, as formerly.

Mr. Dennis McCoy has been quite sick with pneumonia, but at last account was some better.

Mr. C. S. Magee and Miss Ella Nolin were married at the home of the bride, Wednesday, Jan. 9th, Rev. Barnhart officiating. The bride and groom are both well known, having lived here for a great number of years and have a large circle of friends, who extend their best wishes for a happy, prosperous journey, side by side through the life they have just entered. May their path be strewn with thornless roses, and brightened by the effulgence of that divine sunshine of perfect love. Some few clouds will darken their sun, but may they be lined with the silver of patience, hope and cheerfulness. About 40 young people, including the Dufur brass band, serenaded the young couple, after which they tendered their congratulations. A very pleasant evening was spent.

There is nothing more in the shape of news here except the death of Mr. Grazir, the full account of which I see you have already published.
