BRIEF MENTION.

Leaves From the Notebook of Chronicle Reporters.

M. T. Nolan went to Salem Sunday to attend the legislature in the third house.

The Union Dancing club will give a dance tomorrow night, at the opera house.

If the weather should turn around to the south it will probably snow during the night.

Jos. T. Peters & Co., have cord wood, which is desirable in all respects and respectfully solicit your orders.

From the way the feathers came down this afternoon, we fancy that the old lady must have picked her entire flock of geese—goslins, ganders and all.

Sleighting has become monotonous and so has coasting. The touch of the shoe-sole to the dry sidewalk is the kind of amusement most of us long for just now.

Mr. N. Harris has re-arranged his goods in his new room, and is preparing to receive a large spring stock. The result of all this change is that he is giving some bargains that are astonishing.

Two unfortunates were before the city recorder this morning charged with being loaded with double distilled coffin varnish. One was fined $5, the other $10, and neither of them could find the fine.

The sheriff today sold several lots in the Fort Dalles military reservation, to satisfy a judgment in favor of Carl Burchdorf against C. P. Fogh and wife. Mr. Burchdorf bought the lots, paying $175 therefor.

At a special meeting of the city council held Saturday night, Mr. H. L. Kuck was elected councilman in place of Thomas N. Joles, deceased. He took the oath of office yesterday and is therefore one of the city fathers.

Mr. Stadelman is putting up ice for the Portland Ice Co. Some 300 tons were put up yesterday. About 30 men are employed and the ice is going into the ice house at the rate of 50 tons an hour. It is about seven inches thick and is of fair quality. One thousand tons will be stored.

The funeral of Patrick Maloney took place today from the Catholic church. Death came to him very suddenly. He had just finished eating his breakfast, when he complained of feeling badly and went back to bed, and in ten minutes was dead, passing away almost without a struggle. He was 73 years of age.

Charles E. Morgan was arranged before Judge Stevens in Portland yesterday, on a charge of embezzlement of $643 from Boyd and Arnold, and was allowed until Wednesday to plead. Morgan was arrested on Saturday on a bench warrant, and now occupies quarters in the county jail in default of bonds.

There is no apparent reason why we should have more snow, yet the weather clerk sent down several inches of the white nuisance, last night. There was enough before, there is more than enough now, and we hope there will be no more. Rather welcome the warm breath of the mild chinook, that shall again make visible the good old earth.

A 3-year-old child of Frank Hadley, living several miles west of Eugene, narrowly escaped a fearful death Thursday, she was sitting before the fireplace, and her mother was working in the kitchen, when her clothes caught fire. Mrs. Hadley ran to the rescue of the child and succeeded in extinguishing the fire, but burned her hands quite seriously in doing so.

THE VOTE FOR SENATOR.

Dolph Has a Majority on Joint Ballot, but Does Not Carry the House.

The senate met at noon and at once proceeded to ballot for senator. Dolph received 19, Bennett 8, Hare 3.

The house did not ballot until 3 o'clock. The result was Dolph 29, Moores 22, Hare 7, blank 1. Dolph, it will be seen, did not receive a majority in the house.

Real Estate Transaction.

The following deeds were filed for record today:

Sw 1/4 ne 1/4 nw 1/4 ne 1/4 sw 1/4 and nw 1/4 sec. 11, t 2 n r 11 e.

Wm. A Hay to James S. and W. G. Hunter same property as above. $1 and other valuable considerations.

A mass meeting at Albany decided to recommend an amendment to the charter empowering the city to let the work of grading and graveling of the streets to the lowest responsible bidder, the expense to be borne by the abutting property owners, and repairing thereafter to be done by the city.

When Baby was sick, we gave her Castoria.
When she was a Child, she cried for Castoria.
When she became Miss, she clung to Castoria.
When she had Children, she gave them Castoria.

"She seems like a nice girl at the first blush." "You must have met her years ago."

Duke of Argyll's Illness.

LONDON, Jan. 21.—The condition of the Duke of Argyll is unchanged.

Northwest Fruit Growers to Meet.

The Northwest Fruit Growing Association and the Oregon State Horticultural Society will hold their annual meeting at the city of Portland, commencing Wednesday, February 6th, 1895.

The Northern Pacific, the Oregon Railway & Navigation Company and the Great Northern, have agreed for a full fare going and one-fifth fare returning. Tickets must be purchased within three days of the time of holding the convention. To obtain the reduced rate on return the purchaser must obtain from the agent a certificate that he purchased such ticket for the purpose of attending said convention. He must also receive a certificate from secretary of the said convention that he attended the same. On presenting these certificates to the agents of these roads at Portland he will receive his return ticket for one-fifth of the regular fare.

It is hoped that there will be a large attendance from all parts of the Northwest, also that there will be every effort made to secure a good display of the fruits of our region. To this all are asked to contribute.

The intention is to organize and harmonize the fruit-growing interests of the entire Northwest—Idaho, Washington, Oregon and British Columbia—in the best manner and invite full discussion of all questions involved. The meeting will be made valuable and instructive by practical discussion of many topics involved in horticulture, and the advantages of every section of this broad Northwest will be explained by representative men present.

It was hoped to secure the presence of the American Pomological Society in full force, but while disappointed in this, we yet have assurance from Mr. Brackett, the secretary, and other distinguished pomologists from the East, that they will remain on this coast and intend to be present at our convention to read valuable papers and take part in our discussions.

The fruit growers of the Northwest will be here in great numbers and are abundantly able to lend interest to the discussion of all questions that will come before them.

To obtain the reduced return rate it will be necessary to comply strictly with the conditions stated.

Yours truly,
S. A. CLARKE,
Sec. N. W. F. G. Association.

The Tittell Sisters.

The opera house was crowded to its seating capacity last Monday evening to hear the Tittell Sisters in "My Uncle's Will" and "Frou Frou." In the Tittell Sisters, W. S. Lord has secured talent that would do credit to more metropolitan towns than we have in the Willamette valley. For clever acting, and an immediate entrance to the hearts of the theatre-goers, these sisters are certainly in the lead of any who have appeared in this city for years. They have played to the Portland houses for a number of years, and their reputation as ranking high in dramatic life are too well known to need further mention. They are dated to appear before the people of Hillsboro again in about two months and they can come with the assurance of a large audience.—Independence Enterprise, Jan. 17, 1895.

Impaled on a Picket.

The 9-year-old son of Loren Hoyt, who lives on the Milwaukee road, near the Brooklyn schoolhouse, met with a fearful accident Saturday evening, at his home, and narrowly escaped being killed. He was walking on the picket fence near the house when he made a misstep and fell, his throat catching on the pointed end of a picket. The sharp end entered the right side of the throat and cut a fearful gash straight across. It looked as if the cut had been made by a sharp knife. The picket penetrated so deeply through the throat into the mouth that one of the boy's teeth was knocked out. Dr. Dave Raffety was quickly summoned, and he sewed up the rent, a number of stitches being required. The boy had a very close call. Had he fallen directly on the picket, he would probably have been killed.—Oregonian.

BORN.

At Hood River, Jan. 14th, to the wife of Hon. T. R. Coon, a son.

A young man at Monmouth by the name of Poole was accidentally shot in the hand while handling a small pocket pistol. The bullet passed through the palm of the hand, inflicting a painful, but not serious wound.

The high water last week in the Yamhill lacked only six inches of running into the first story of the warehouse at that place. The water was very near to the eaves of the lowest end of the lower Toledo warehouse.

A Yamhill county farmer has killed 30 hogs, averaging 409 pounds. Beside hams, bacon, etc., he secured 3350 pounds of lard. He says the hogs have netted him more than if he had sold them on the hoof.

Mrs. T. S. Hawkins, Chattanooga, Tenn., says, "Shiloh's vitalizer 'saved my life.' I consider it the best remedy for a debilitated system I ever used." For dyspepsia, liver or kidney trouble it excels. Price 75 cts.

Charlie Dunn and Henry Roby were arrested at Athena and placed under $100 bonds each, charged with larceny of a saddle, bridle and blanket from a school house near Athena.

Shiloh's Cure is sold on a guarantee. It cures incipient Consumption. It is the best cough cure. Only one cent a dose 25cts., 50cts., and $1.00.
