Since the first of the present month ten states previously under democratic or populist control have passed into the hands of the republicans. This shows at a glance the wide-sweeping nature of the beam of patriotism that decided the November election.

The English investment in American breweries is placed at $91,000,000, on which dividends of 9 per cent were paid last year. The proposed increase in the tax on beer would be a large item to the government and of slight consequence to any one else.

STORM KING'S PATH

Devastating Floods in Sonoma County, Cal.

AN ALMOST MIRACULOUS ESCAPE

Losses Reach Into the Thousands, but it is Impossible to Yet Tell the Full Damage Done.

SANTA ROSA, Jan 24.—Reports of the damage done by the recent floods continue to come in. It is believed that the last storm is the most damaging of any had in Sonoma county for 30 years. Mark West creek overflowed its banks, nearly destroying two large wagon bridges and cutting up the roads so that they are impassible for miles.

Communication with the unfortunate town of Guerneville, has been re-established by telephone, it will be at least 10 days before train service can be resumed in that part of the county, as miles of track are gone.

The water in Guerneville, which is higher than it had been in 35 years, has not yet receded, and people are traveling about the place in boats. The Grand Central hotel is the highest building in town, and the water is within eight inches of the floor.

It is impossible to tell the extent of damage done. The loss of household goods and provisions alone is very large. The Sonoma Lumber Company is damaged by the loss of lumber fully $5,000. A number of houses turned over by landslides and the flood the first day of the storm have been swept away.

Three-quarters of a mile from Guerneville Tom Varner's family had an almost miraculous escape from death. They saw a landslide coming and rushed out to the barn for protection. They had barely left the house when it was struck by the slide and crushed into a hundred pieces. The next moment the entire structure slid into Russian river and floated away.

At Riley's mill, five miles away, a large hotel was demolished by a landslide. The water is 10 feet deep on the railroad bridge and a report has just been received that it has broken away from the bank and is going to pieces. The wagon bridge is still intact, but may go at any time.

Fulton is Coming Back.

SALEM, Jan. 24.—It is stated here today that Charlie Fulton will arrive tonight. He is now in Portland, and, it is understood, is awaiting the result of today's balloting before coming to the capital city. Whether Mr. Fulton will re-enter the senatorial contest is unknown, but it is asserted by his friends that he will become an important factor, either in his own behalf or in the interest of his friends. Fulton's supporters generally have bolted the caucus nominee, and they are loud now in their claims that after the first ballot, Dolph failing to secure re-election the caucus members are not bound by the caucus result. It is known Mr. Fulton is being groomed for the leadership of the free-silver faction of his party in the state, should he fail of election to the senate, and it is believed his action in the contest at present at least will be with this end in view, rather than in furtherance of his individual candidacy. At the same time he is not expected to take his eye off the main chance and should matters so shape themselves that he has a fair show of election he will doubtless become an active candidate for the senatorship.

His desertion of the silver forces after the caucus might injure his chances as a candidate at this time, but should the contest be prolonged it would be likely to react in his favor, as in it he has showed his disposition to abide by the caucus decision of his party, and this fact might win him votes from members who are now supporting Dolph, in the event of a breach in his forces. The friends of Senator Dolph claim, however, there will be no breach of consequence in the ranks of his supporters and that his ultimate re-election is assured.

It is Thought the Great Strike is Almost Over.

BROOKLYN, Jan. 24.—The beginning of the end of the great trolley strike was reached today. The strikers played their last card yesterday in ordering out the electrical workmen on all lines effected. They announced that the roads would be paralyzed today by the lack of men competent to repair trolley wires. Wholesale wirecutting took place during the night, and many linemen obeyed the order to quit work. This gave the companies more trouble, and several lines which have been operated for several days, were tied up for a time in the early morning. They were started after repairs had been made by new men and by those who refused to go out. The company started new lines today and while normal traffic is not yet restored, cars are operated on all the main arteries of travel, but smaller branches to outlying districts and across town are still idle.

Greenpoint today saw its first car for 10 days, and its protesting citizens who yesterday demanded a forfeiture of charters are somewhat mollified. Law and order is not yet established, though cars are able to run with some degree of safety to their occupants. It is definitely decided that no more troops are needed however, and the troops now here are expected to restore order.

Fifty non-union men left Flushing avenue stables this morning to open the cross-town line. The cars were guarded by four policemen and the Eighth battalion. The first car which left the stables was held up at Franklin street and Greenpoint avenue by strikers. All the windows were broken, but the police used their clubs freely and the car was taken through the mob. The motorman was hit by a brick and flying glass, but no one else was injured. At 9 o'clock the Court-street car was stoned at Hamilton and Court streets. The crowd was dispersed by the police.

A Supposed Corpse Badly Frightens Relatives and Friends.

CONNELLSVILLE, Pa., Jan. 24.—Mrs. Josephine Holiday, wife of a coalminer at Broadford, was found on the road two miles west of here Sunday morning, apparently dead. She was taken to her home and a physician summoned. The doctor told the relatives he could do nothing, as it was then too late for his services. The coroner was summoned yesterday to hold an inquest. As the coroner was about to proceed in the case, the supposed corpse raised up. The jury and relatives left the room in a stampede, the coroner alone remaining with the resurrected woman. He explained to her his presence there, and related how she had been found the previous day. By this time the people on the outside had gotten over their fright and were fighting to get a look at Mrs. Holiday. She appeased their curiosity by walking out into the front room and ordering them away. Mrs. Holiday has been addicted to the opium habit for several years, and it is supposed she took an overdose Sunday and fell in a stupor in which she was found.

Mexican Forces Constantly Arriving on the Guatemalan Frontier.

COMITAN, State of Chiapas, Mex., Jan. 24.—The government has pushed fresh forces to the Guatemalan frontier almost daily, and camp quarters for a large body of men has been arranged for near this place. Some Guatemalans living in this vicinity have fled to Mexico, rather than be pressed into unwilling service.

Guatemala is using every effort to work up a feeling of patriotism among the people. Nearly every horse for 100 miles from the border has been secured by one means or another. The uncommunicative policy of the Guatemalan government is having a disastrous effect

Wants Mineral Lands of Northern Pacific Grant Classified.

WASHINGTON, Jan. 24.—Senator Power has returned to the senate and resumed his efforts to pass a bill for the classification of the mineral lands of the Northern Pacific grant. He is hopeful of securing the passage of the house bill before adjournment, and was today assured that no more patents would be issued to these lands while the present congress is in session.

Carlton Cornwell, foreman of the Gazette, Middleton, N. J., believes that Chamberlain's Cough Remedy should be in every home. He used it for a cold and it effected a speedy cure. He says: "It is indeed a grand remedy, I can recommend to all. I have also seen it used for whooping cough, with the best results." 50 cent bottles for sale by Blakeley & Houghton Druggists.

A Terrible Affliction.

GREENSBURG, Pa., Jan. 24.—A strange affliction fell upon Anna Crafton, at Crabtree, Tuesday night. She was about to light a lamp in obedience to her mother's directions, and when she struck a match her sight left her, and she is now stone blind. Physicians who have been called in cannot account for the cause.

There is good reason for the popularity of Chamberlain's Cough Remedy. Davis & Buzard, of west montery, Clarion Co., Pa., say: "It has cured people that our physicians could do nothing for. We persuaded them to try a bottle of Chamberlain's Cough Remedy and they now recommend it with the rest of us." 25 and 50 cent bottles for sale by Blakeley & Houghton Druggists.
