MOST JUST JUDGE.

Judge Gaynor's decision concerning the Brooklyn street car lines is a just one, and at the same time a remarkable one.

Judge Gaynor, in a few brief sentences, lays down more law and common sense at the same time than is often yoked together.

The city of Brooklyn gave these companies franchises of immense value, in consideration of their performing certain services.

Judge Gaynor has caught a little inspiration from Oregon's recent governor, who under nearly similar circumstances made his famous epigram, "Pay your men, and you won't need any troops."

The question of annexing the Hawaiian islands is open to debate. It is true they are valuable in many ways, being somewhat like silver coin, for part of the value is intrinsic and part fiat.

Mr. Coon is reported as saying that the petition sent him asking for the election of Dolph was signed by democrats and populists principally.

Mr. P. F. Morey wastes some of his time, and also that of some compositor, to announce to the public that he is not a candidate for the United States senate.

The free-silver craze, for it is little less than that, is but the old greenback theories hung at half mast.

TAKE STEPS in time, if you are a sufferer from that scourge of humanity known as consumption, and you can be cured.

Do you doubt that hundreds of such cases reported to us as cured by "Golden Medical Discovery" were genuine cases of that dread and fatal disease?

Mr. Coon is reported as saying that the petition sent him asking for the election of Dolph was signed by democrats and populists principally.

The photographs of a large number of those cured of consumption, bronchitis, lingering coughs, asthma, chronic nasal catarrh and kindred maladies, have been skillfully reproduced in a book of 160 pages which will be mailed to you, on receipt of address and six cents in stamps.

BEFORE I could get relief from a most horrid, bleeding hemorrhoid, I had spent hundreds of dollars TRYING various remedies and physicians, none of which did me any good. My finger nails came off, and my hair came out, leaving me perfectly bald. I then went to HOT SPRINGS. Hoping to be cured by this celebrated treatment, but very soon became disgusted, and decided to TRY S.S.S. The effect was truly wonderful. I commenced to recover after taking the first bottle, and on the time I had taken twelve bottles I was entirely cured by S. S. S. when the world-renowned Hot Springs had failed.
