PEASE & MAYS.

Woman's Friend Stove Mat.

POSITIVELY INDESTRUCTIBLE.

10c each. Former price, 50c.

DIRECTIONS.

Use, as a general thing, just on top of stove. If great heat is required, use without the stove lid.

No stirring required for oat meal, milk, rice, custards, blanch mange, jellies, butters, catsups, apple sauce, etc., etc. In fact, nothing will burn on it. Coffee will not boil over if the pot is on the mat; bread toasts nicely on it. Try it and be convinced. For the nursery, there is nothing equal to heat the milk and food for the baby. If a grate fire, lay the mat on the open fire. If the mat becomes soiled, do not wash or scrape, but turn the soiled part next to fire, and burn until clean.

Jos. T. Peters & Co., have cord wood, which is desirable in all respects and respectfully solicit your orders.

The only real estate transaction recorded up to noon today, was a deed to a right of way for a ditch, given by the heirs of Wm. O'Dell to William Ehrck, over property in Hood River valley.

There is quite a feeling here that it will be Dolph or it will be nobody. That he is reasonably sure to hold his caucus vote, and that his supporters will stay by him unwaveringly to the end.

A new dark horse has suddenly been sprung in the senatorial fight. Last night some of Col. Sinnott's friends gathered at the Umatilla House, and after going into caucus, pledged him three votes. The Col. took his honors with becoming modesty, while the other fellows took theirs straight.

Sheriff Driver arrived home from Salem last night. He tells us the scene in the state house is wild and hilarious when the ballot for senator is being taken, the lobby being jammed full of excited humanity. He adds that the Dolph supporters seem to take the matter quietly and are all apparently certain of eventually winning.

A letter from Mr. J. E. Snow, postmaster at Dayville, to Capt. John W. Lewis, under date of Jan. 21st, says: "We are having beautiful winter weather. A little snow squall once in a while, but it goes right off. In fact we have had no snow to lay a week, below the timber line, and it is as good a winter as I ever saw here." All of which shows that our stockmen are getting along nicely, and that there will be no loss to amount to anything during the winter.

DOLPH STANDS PAT.

And Holds His 42 Votes, the Balance Go Scattering.

The vote at Salem today showed no change as far as Dolph was concerned, but was otherwise badly scattered. The democrats changed their vote from Bennett, giving ex-Senator Weatherford their full vote. The populists stuck to Hare with 10 votes, Moore fell from 11 yesterday to 5, Hermann lost 2 from yesterday, scoring only 8, ex-Attorney General Williams got 4, Lord 2, Lowell 4, Tongue 1, Barkley 3, Simon 1, absent 2.

The fight will be now transferred to Portland for one day, and if on the convening of the legislature Monday the matter is not definitely settled, the chance for a deadlock will be very good.

Mitchell Notes.

What I shall do this week in the way of news is bothering me somewhat. There has not been a man drunk this week that I know of, and not a fight. Everything is quiet and prosperous. But we always have weather in its various degrees of severity, which we can boast of just a little. We have no snow near us, but seven miles to the east there are about six inches, and the same distance to the south there are three feet. Our nights are cold enough to freeze, but our days are splendid.

Stock on the range is looking very well, and sheep are being fed but little. The hymeneal charmer visited us last week, and N. Magee and Anna Gage cast their lots in the matrimonial lottery of life. Both are well known here. Magee is our city marshal; his wife has grown up with us from a little tot. We wish them well.

The dancing school is making some improvement in the general appearance of the dances, which pleases them, for you know the 14th of next month will soon be here, and every one wants to do their best.

A very pleasant surprise came to us last week in the form of Miss Laura Sasser. She had been gone from us more than a year, and we were glad to have her with us again.

A social dance given by the Progressive club is one of the features of tonight's amusements.

J. J. Cozart came near having serious trouble with his team, which took flight within half a mile of J. E. Keys' place and ran into a barb fence near the house, upsetting the buggy and throwing Cozart to the ground on one shoulder slightly bruising it. The horses being tangled in the fence, the next thing to be done was to get them; but no sooner done than off they go for another race of two miles on their back track. Soon they were overtaken, and but a few scratches and slight bruises were to their disadvantage.

A law suit came up in the justice court of this place one day last week for trespass, Butterfield plaintiff and Shoemaker defendant. The jury was out about twelve to fourteen hours, and yet they did not agree. A new hearing was to be had today, but plaintiff failed to put in an appearance. E. V. E. Mitchell, Jan. 21, 1895.

Almost a Jail Break.

A jail break was frustrated last night through the watchfulness of John Fitzgerald the janitor of the courthouse, night before last he heard some suspicious noises about the jail, and kept a close watch to find out what was going on, but discovered nothing. Last night he was on the look out and his perseverance was rewarded. Hearing a noise in the corridor of the jail, he opened the door and made an examination. He discovered that Tom Moore and Jim Williams, the parties sent up from the Cascade Locks, charged with robbing Cates & Leavens' store, had cut one of the bars of their cell door, and bent it to one side so that they could get into the corridor. When he entered the men had got back into their cell. He only made examination enough to see that they could not get out and then went after Deputy Sheriff Kelley. Getting back in a few moments, they made another examination of the jail, and then proceeded to take care of Williams and Moore, who were brought out, searched and accommodated with some extra irons and another cell. The search brought to light a piece of fine saw blade about six inches long, fastened to a piece of wood for a handle. With this the bar had been cut, and at the back grated door a piece had been cut out large enough to permit a hand to be reached through. They had sawed the link of the padlock off on one side, and if they had been given half an hour more would have severed the other and gained their freedom.

Mr. Fitzgerald has been at the courthouse for a number of years, and has proved to be a careful and competent man. He deserves especial credit for putting a spoke in the burglars' wheel last night. The other prisoners had nothing to do with the attempted break.
