AN AVAILABLE MAN.

THE CHRONICLE believes that Dolph should be re-elected to the United States senate. It believes that the state will suffer greatly by his defeat. It believes that the opening of the Columbia within the near future will be accomplished or defeated, according as Dolph is elected or beaten. That is our firm belief; yet there are others, and those whose yet there are others, and those whose opinions are backed by their votes, who think otherwise, and who seem determined to beat Dolph at no matter what cost. There are hundreds of reasons why Dolph should be re-elected; none that we have ever heard why he should be kept at home. Yet if the opposition cannot be brought to Dolph it will be the duty of the legislators to find some man on whom they can compromise.

With the senate almost a tie, Oregon cannot afford, nor can the party nationally, to have this state represented by only one senator. There are plenty of men who can represent this state ably, though they can never hope to be placed in so commanding a position for Oregon's good as Senator Dolph, who is chairman of the river and harbor committee. Among these is one whom no one has yet named; a citizen of Wasco commits.
