Woman's Friend Stove Mat.

POSITIVELY INDESTRUCTIBLE.

10c each. Former price, 50c.

DIRECTIONS.

Use, as a general thing, just on top of stove. If great heat is required, use without the stove lid.

No stirring required for oat meal, milk, rice, custards, blanch mange, jellies, butters, catsups, apple sauce, etc., etc. In fact, nothing will burn on it. Coffee will not boil over if the pot is on the mat; bread toasts nicely on it. Try it and be convinced. For the nursery, there is nothing equal to heat the milk and food for the baby. If a grate fire, lay the mat on the open fire. If the mat becomes soiled, do not wash or scrape, but turn the soiled part next to fire, and burn until clean.

BRIEF MENTION.

Leaves From the Notebook of Chronicle Reporters.

No show tonight. Jos. T. Peters & Co., have cord wood, which is desirable in all respects and respectfully solicit your orders.

Charley Fowler, aged about 8 years, met with an accident while coasting this afternoon, resulting in a broken leg.

At a special meeting of the taxpayers of the school district held Saturday afternoon, a special tax of 6 mills was voted. This will raise about $7,700.

The thermometers registered 4 above zero at some points in town this morning, though the old reliable government instrument at Mr. Brooks' recorded only 8 above. The latter is probably correct.

Mr. Birgfeld has received a telegram from W. S. Ford, manager of the Tittle theatrical troupe, saying that owing to the sickness of Miss Tittle, the dates of the company's showing here would have to be changed. It is believed that Miss Tittle's sickness is not serious, and that the postponement will not be for long.

Revival meetings will be conducted at the M. E. church during the week, to which all are invited. Quite an interest is already manifested. Mr. Wood uses his own song books, and the singing is good, twenty minutes being devoted to song service every evening. The young people are especially invited to attend.

Mr. H. C. Paige is writing the story of the stage robbery on the Canyon City road in 1872, and the arrest, trial, conviction, and final release of Tompkins and three other innocent men, and the tale is being published in the Grant County News. It is very interesting matter.

The young people of the Congregational society will entertain their friends at the home of Mr. B. S. Huntington tomorrow (Tuesday) evening. The evening will no doubt be a pleasant one as something novel will be introduced. No friends of the society should miss the pleasure in store for them.

Preparations were made Saturday and yesterday at Hood River by the Lombard Ice Co. for filling their big ice houses. And Winans went down from here this morning to take charge of the work. Mr. W. R. Winans tells us the ice is about a foot thick and of fairly good quality. If the weather permits, within the next ten days 15,000 tons will be stored at that point.

The sleighing and coasting were never better, and although we have been indulging in these sports for nearly a month, they seem to lose none of their attraction. The coasting on Union street is exceptionally fine, the track being like glass and the speed made is astonishing. It is to be hoped that no serious accident will occur to mar the pleasure, yet even with the greatest of care such is likely to happen.

The Gesang Verein.

Saturday evening the members of the Gesang Verein, to the number of about sixty, took advantage of the splendid sleighing to make a visit to Mr. Frank Seufert's. There was an abundance of music, of course, which slopped over on the way out and woke the echoes from the bluffs across the river. Arriving at their destination, Mr. and Mrs. Seufert proceeded to make the evening interesting for their visitors. A large hall near the house had been cleared out for the occasion and dancing was the first thing in order, followed by a feast and more dancing. About 2 o'clock a portion of the merry makers came home, the balance staying until nearly 4 o'clock. Everybody enjoyed themselves of course, for they couldn't do otherwise while Mr. and Mrs. Frank Seufert had them in charge.

The farmers in that section of Marion county just north of Sublimity have been experiencing a considerable amount of trouble and loss during the past two weeks by the visitation of sheep-killing dogs. A woolgrower of that vicinity says 99 sheep have been killed by canines quite recently.

John Flynn killed a deer with a stick near Glen, Lincoln county, last week. His attention was attracted by the barking of dogs, and upon investigation he found the animal was "treed" in a stream. Having no weapon he attacked the deer with a stick.

When she became Miss, she clung to Castoria.

DOLPH HAS 42.

But is Unable to Get Enough to Make a Majority.

It was generally expected that the senatorial fight would be settled in Portland yesterday; that all the influence possible, would be brought to bear on the bolters to bring them back to a recognition of the caucus nominee. The vote today shows that if any influence was brought to bear, that influence was powerless to add to Dolph's strength. The vote was practically unchanged from that of Saturday and as far as Dolph was concerned remained exactly the same. It was as follows: Dolph 42, Hermann 9, Moore 3, Hare 10, Lord 4, Weatherford 8, Williams 8, Lowell 2, Barkeley 2. Mr. Templeton, who would have voted for Dolph, was paired with Mr. Scott, who was sick, and who would have voted against him. The situation now seems to be that no argument can be reached as far as Mr. Dolph is concerned.

The Pinnacle of Woo.

Receiver Biggs, of the land office, being a good democrat, is rather enjoying the republican fight in the legislature and never misses an opportunity to give some of his republican friends a dig. A few days ago when a petition was being circulated here urging Representative Coon to vote for Dolph, Mr. Biggs told the following story as being appropriate to the occasion and peculiarly fitting to those who were circulating the petition: "When I used to live down on the banks of the Missouri," said he, "there was a family living near that were typical Missourians. One winter a sudden cold snap caused the river to freeze over, and at the same time the head of this family to discover that there was no fire wood around the house. So, accompanied by his two boys, he went across a channel of the river to an island, as being the most accessible place from which the woodpile could be replenished. Arriving there they cut down a tree, which proved to be hollow, and which a coon had located as a hibernating place. The boys captured the coon, and tied him securely, intending of course to take him home. In chopping another tree, a limb struck one of the boys, breaking one of his legs. The old man leaving the boys, started back across the river to get a neighbor to help get the boy home, but getting too near an air hole the ice broke and the old man was drowned, before the sons' eyes. The unhurt boy, fixing his brother as comfortable as possible, started for home to get help, but put a rope around the coon's neck and took him along. The coon not being broke to lead, of course pulled back. When near the shore a neighbor came down seeing the boy was in trouble of some kind, and inquired concerning it. The boy blurted out: 'You see while we was chopping wood, a tree fell on Bill and broke his leg. Dad, he started to your house to git help and fell through the ice and got drowned, and (giving the rope a yank) this hyar derned coon won't come along neither.'"
