TIRED OF EXPERIMENTS.

If the people who are demanding free-silver so loudly would suggest something to benefit silver and force it into larger use, they might with more consistency pose as it friends.

Silver is good money now, and while the coining of silver, as proposed, in unlimited quantities, might temporarily benefit the mine owner, it could not be but a short time until the American silver dollar would be on a par, not with our gold, but with Mexico's silver.

We are like every other citizen of the United States, in that we want a sound financial system, under which every dollar of every kind will be as good as every other dollar of whatever kind.

We have had one object lesson in the tariff, which we were told, would be changed by our democratic brethren, and that as soon as they got hold of the government machine the country was going to blossom like a Green Bay locust tree.

As for the scarcity of money, we feel quite certain that there is enough of it if we could get it.

THE GOLD RAID.

The old saying that "Whatever is, is right" does not apply to the present financial system of this country. In time of profound peace, owing to the fact that the government is in the banking business, and is trying honestly to maintain the parity of its money, a debt the proportions of which no man can foretell, is being forced upon it.

Unless the government goes out of the banking business altogether, there seems to be no limit to this plan to create an interest-bearing debt, the principal and interest of which is to be paid in gold.

therefore different from the state bank idea, or that of our populist friends, based upon agricultural products.

President Cleveland rushed his message on the financial condition of the country, and it was presented to congress yesterday. He suggests the making of all import duties payable in gold, the cancelling of all national bank notes of less denomination than $10, and the cancelling of all silver certificates larger than $10.

The ladies issued the Salem Statesman today. It is safe to say they made a good paper of it, though we have not had time to read it. We noticed one thing, and that is that they went back on the senatorial preferences of that paper, and gave the Oregonian and Dolph a slap.

Kingsley Items.

KINGSLEY, Jan. 27, '95.

Thinking an item or two from Kingsley would be of interest to some of your readers, so here goes.

We have fine winter weather and good sleighing, the best for years.

The health of the neighborhood is good.

The voters of school district No. 38 held a meeting at the schoolhouse on the 26th to vote a tax for school purposes. After the ballots were counted it was found that the majority was opposed to a tax.

Mr. and Mrs. James Thrall of The Dalles are visiting their many friends at Kingsley.

The young folks of the neighborhood gave a grand ball at Kelly's hall on the evening of the 25th, which was a grand success financially and otherwise. There were over forty numbers sold.

The farmers are getting tired of the snow and wishing for plowing weather. As there has not been much plowed here last fall they will have to rush things in the spring.

Knights of the Maccabees.

The State Commander writes us from Lincoln, Neb., as follows: "After trying other medicines for what seemed to be a very obstinate cough in our two children we tried Dr. King's New Discovery and at the end of two days the cough entirely left them. We will not be without it hereafter, as our experience proves that it cures where all other remedies fail."

BUDS, Society buds, young women just entering the doors of society or womanhood, require the wisest care. To be beautiful and charming they must have perfect health, with all it implies—a clear skin, rosy cheeks, bright eyes and good spirits.

pain, headache, backache, and nervous disturbances, or the general health not good, the judicious use of medicine should be employed. Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription is the best restorative tonic and nerve in at this time.

"WOMAN'S ILLS." Mrs. W. R. BATES, of Ditworth, Trumbull Co., Ohio, writes: "A few years ago I took Doctor Pierce's Favorite Prescription, which has been a great benefit to me. I am in excellent health now."

You Don't Have to Swear Off. says the St. Louis Journal of Agriculture in an editorial about No-To-Bac the famous tobacco habit cure. We know of many cases cured by No-To-Bac, one, a prominent St. Louis architect, smoked and chewed for twenty years; two boxes cured him so that even the smell of tobacco makes him sick.
