Three Mile Notes.

There is very little news of interest to the general reader, but the abundance of snow and good roads is furnishing unlimited enjoyment to all who like to glide over the snow and to hear the sound of sleigh bells mingle with the happy laughter of those who like themselves are out for a little ride.

Stock of all kinds are looking unusually well for the length of time the snow has been on the ground.

Fraser lodge, I. O. G. T. are going to give another of their justly popular socials Saturday evening, Feb. 2d.

Mr. W. H. Rodenhiser of Hood River, who has been visiting friends in this vicinity, returned home today.

Mr. Thomas Morgan, who has just returned from a business trip near Mt. Hood P. O., informs us that the snow is about four feet in depth in that locality, that there are no roads open and the only means of communication is by trail.

With many wishes for the continued success of THE CHRONICLE the coming year, I am

"No, thank you, I've got some of my own, said little Tommy, politely, as the contribution-box passed in front of him on the occasion of his first visit to church.—Chicago Tribune.

Symptoms of kidney troubles should be promptly attended to; they are nature's warnings that something is wrong. Many persons die victims of kidney diseases who could have been saved had they taken proper precautions.

The prompt use of Dr. J. H. McLean's Liver & Kidney Balm has saved thousands of valuable lives. If you have any derangement of the kidneys try it.

Mrs. Youngport—What a fine delivery the new minister has! Mr. Youngport—Yes, he ought to have. He was crack pitcher at the university ball team for three years.—Truth.

Many stubborn and aggravating cases of rheumatism that were believed to be incurable and accepted as life legacies, have yielded to Chamberlain's Pain Balm, much to the surprise and gratification of the sufferers.

"I want to see the secretary of the navy," said a wild-eyed man who wandered into city hall. Two policemen started toward him. "Oh, I'm no crank," he explained, "I want the man they used to call the street commissioner."—Polis Journal.

Parties wanting fresh milk cows can obtain them by calling on A. Fields at his place near Crate's point.

Mr. William Dunbar's Case.

The United States supreme court this morning rendered a decision affirming the decision of the lower court in the case of the United States against William Dunbar.

Dunbar was convicted in December, 1893. He was the first of the members of the Portland smuggling ring to be tried and the trial was an indictment returned against William Dunbar and Nat Blum.

Several months ago Dunbar, who is under bonds, left this country for China, and it is supposed he is now in that country. Chief deputy United States Marshal Coleman, who is in Washington, this morning telegraphed the substance of the court's decision.
