THE SALMON QUESTION.

The fishermen of the lower river are very much opposed to any plan for catching salmon except that used by them. They want a law passed making manner except by gill nets. The claim fish to go past it.

by which the salmon may be caught, stands navigation thoroughly. and it enables people living along the Columbia to get a small portion of the fish that run the gauntlet of the thousand miles of net near the mouth of the river. There is another phase to the matter, and that is, that it is better that the salmon be exterminated than to concede the proposition that those living near the mouth of the river have the sole right to all the fish in the river. If the fishermen at the mouth of the river had the situation reversed, if there the swift water occurred, and there the fish wheels could be operated, and nets could -Yes, I do; they're all dead .- Harlem not be, then they would soon discover Life. that fish wheels were the proper machines for capturing salmon. The fact is that the interests of the gill-net fishermen instead of the fish is the power behind this movement. We do not blame humanity; but we have the same complaint, and of course object to them being allowed privileges that we are not.

Mr. Barkley of Marion county has one that if perfected into law will be a for precinct organization after the manner of town and township organization in eastern states. It makes precincts gives them an authority of their own with officers as follows: Three supervisors, clerk, treasurer, assessor, two justices, two constables and one road supervisor for each road district in the creek, a white mulley cow, branded precinct, each to be elected annually on I W on left hip; crop off one ear, slit in the second Tuesday in March, except the other; young calf with her. justices and constables, who shall hold two years. It is a lengthy, complicated bill, very carefully prepared, and is designed to bring the responsibility in the matter of taxation and public business as close as possible to the source of authority-the people.

ing teachers in the state, in the person of Professor McGreagor of Sherman county. It is seldom you hear of two classes being organized in the same house, engaging the same teachers, but such is the case. At the 8-Mile schoolhouse one class has been organized six weeks, singing two nights in the week, while the other has been organized two weeks ago, singing two nights in each week. So you see there are four nights in the week devoted to singing school, also two hours on Sundays practicing

Mr. Stephens writes again under date of March 14, 1894.

After my great recovery, as I wrote you before, scores of people stopped me on the streets, came to see me at my store and wrote me from different parts of this and adjoining States, to all of whom I told the story of the wife of a professor in one of our colleges called to thank me for telling her about your Nervine. She had been a sufferer from insomnia, weaknesses, etc., for years; she said she had felt the benefits at once. The President of the same college, also thanked me for the benefit he had received from using your Nervine at my suggestion. I tell you It's a pleasure to recommend your remedies

Being a constant reader of your paper for some time past, and knowing the scarcity of news at this time of year, when everything in nature is locked up in the embrace of hoary winter, a few lines from this favored spot might be of interest to some of your many readers.

We are having a fine winter, plenty of snow for good sleighing, and plenty of feed for stock for a long winter. So we care not how long it lasts.

We were fortunate in securing at the beginning of winter one of the most promisent firms in the Cumberland Valley, wrote on Oct. 3, 1892:

"I was taken sick on the 24th of last April with nervous prostration, and had the daily attendance of three of our best physicians, one of them visiting me twice each day. The result was that at the end of four months I was that at the end of four months I was that at the end of four months I was that at the end of four months in was simply terrible! About four weeks ago, I bean taking Dr. Miles' Restorative Norvine, Tonic and Pills. I have gained 35 pounds in weight, can eat and sleep, and in fact, feel as well as I ever did. I felt the good effects of your remedies inside of 48 hours."
