THEY SHOULD SIGN.

Up in Umatilla county the home of the leading member of the railroad commission, the people, his townsmen and neighbors are circulating a petition to the legislature for a reduction in freight rates on grain from Eastern Oregon points.

A BAD BILL.

Senator McGinn of Multnomah has introduced a bill to create an official county newspaper in each county. The newspapers of the state are now in sharp competition with each other, and there is but few of the country papers that are more than paying expenses.

If this bill is to pass, it would be better to have the county establish, own and print its own paper. In the struggle for the field one newspaper should not be assisted by the county as against another.

The editor of the Echo Leader eases his mind by the following bit of flowing and sinuous prose. Whether considered in the light of a many-hued nosegay, plucked from the language garden of renaissance, or looked upon simply as the soulful outpourings of a bruised and lacerated heart, the touching words and tender sentiments are worthy of remembrance. He says:

"A few white-livered scabs and lousy scabs may imagine it is smart to let their tongues wag too much about the private and personal affairs of the editor of the Echo Leader. We advise such to go slow and learn to peddle, if they prefer not to see some things in cold type which are, and have been done, right here, that would indicate to the public that some people are not just the pinks they would like folks to imagine. Shoes that fit, should be worn. The editor of the Echo Leader is doing wonderful work for this grand country. He is attending to his own affairs and quite able to do so without the necessity of white-livered foppies trying to get into his soup dish. Their home affairs require their undivided attention. We may be quietly slumbering, but don't put on gloves to go for skunks. When we want it we will seek satisfaction in a manner that may jostle the livers of some wretches."

This is the age of "receivers." The big corporations of all kinds are running their various businesses under the wing of the government. Ostensibly the United States courts are directing the business, but as a matter of fact, the same old gang of officials run the business and the courts know nothing about it, only when some one makes a kick at the management or some laborers, ground to the death, undertake to strike—then the road is in charge of the United States. It is on the principle that the boy owned the colt on the farm—"Johnny's colt, but Daddy's horse."

If it costs only 13 1/2 cents a bushel to ship wheat from Pendleton, which the Tribune says is the charge, why should the rate from Biggs, which is less than half the distance, be one cent and a half more? The railroad commissioners may possibly be able to explain this.

Mrs. Dekum's Allowance.

In department No. 1 of the circuit court of Multnomah county, Judge Shattuck yesterday handed down a decision affirming the action of the county court in the appeal of Adolph and Edward Dekum, executors of the estate of Frank Dekum, deceased, from the decision of the probate court, ordering that Mrs. Dekum be paid a monthly allowance of $300, as specified in the will of Mr. Dekum, and at the same time retain her dower.

The allowance was paid for one month, but on Mrs. Dekum making application the next month, payment was refused by the executors and the matter taken into the county court. The decision was against the executors and the case was carried to the state circuit court, where yesterday's decision was rendered. The executors are willing to pay the $300 allowance, providing the mother surrenders her dowry, they claiming that in reality no dowry exists, the real property having been deeded to the heirs and also is heavily mortgaged. Mrs. Dekum's attorneys, on the contrary, claim the dowry to be valuable and capable of producing an income of $5000 a year.

ASSIST NATURE a little now and then in removing offending matter from the stomach and bowels and you thereby avoid a multitude of distressing derangements and diseases, and will have less frequent need of your doctor's service.

Of all known agents for this purpose, Dr. Pierce's Pleasant Pellets are the best. Once used, they are always in favor. Their secondary effect is to keep the bowels open and regular, not to further constipate, as is the case with other pills. Hence, their great popularity with sufferers from habitual constipation, piles and their attendant discomfort and manifold derangements. The "Pellets" are purely vegetable and perfectly harmless in any condition of the system. No care is required while using them; they do not interfere with the diet, habits or occupation, and produce no pain, griping or shock to the system. They act in a mild, easy and natural way and there is no reaction afterward. Their help lasts.

The Pellets cure biliousness, sick and bilious headache, dizziness, costiveness, or constipation, sour stomach, loss of appetite, coated tongue, indigestion, or dyspepsia, windy belchings, "heartburn," pain and distress after eating, and kindred derangements of the liver, stomach and bowels. In proof of their superior excellence, it can be truthfully said, that they are always adopted as a household remedy after the first trial. Put up in sealed, glass vials, therefore always fresh and reliable. One little "Pellet" is a laxative, two are mildly cathartic. As a "dinner pill," to promote digestion, or to relieve distress from over-eating, take one after dinner. They are tiny, sugar-coated granules; any child will readily take them.

Accept no substitute that may be recommended to be "just as good." It may be better for the dealer, because of paying him a better profit, but he is not the one who needs help.

Politician—We've got to gain the vote of that old maids' club or all hope is lost. Candidate—That's all right. We'll just address a private circular to the different members, asking if they are old enough to vote, and stating if they will be able to cast a vote this election that we'd like to have it count for us—Pittsburg Dispatch.

Summons.

In the Circuit Court of the State of Oregon, for Wasco County: David D. Garrison, Plaintiff, vs. Elizabeth W. Garrison, Defendant. To the said defendant, Elizabeth W. Garrison: In the name of the State of Oregon: You are hereby summoned and required to appear and answer plaintiff's complaint now on file against you in the above-entitled court and cause on or before the first day of the next regular term of said Court, which term of said Court is to begin and be holden on Monday, the 11th day of February, 1895, in the courthouse in Dalles City, Wasco County, State of Oregon, and if you fail to appear and answer said complaint as herein required the plaintiff will apply to said Court for the relief prayed for in said complaint, to-wit, for a dissolution of the marriage contract now existing between plaintiff and defendant, and for such other and further relief as may be just and equitable. You are hereby further notified that this summons is served upon you by publication by order of the Honorable W. L. Bradshaw, Judge of the above-entitled court, made at the regular November term of said Court for the year 1894. CONDON & CONDON, Attorneys for Plaintiff. Jan 5-1895

SUMMONS.

In the Circuit Court of the State of Oregon for Wasco County: Caleb Brooks, Plaintiff, vs. Georgiana A. Brooks, Defendant. To Georgiana A. Brooks, the above-named defendant: In the name of the State of Oregon: You are hereby required to appear and answer the complaint in the above-entitled case, and now pending in the above-entitled Court, on or before Monday, the 11th day of Feb., 1895, that being the first day of the next regular term of said Court; and if you fail to answer, for want thereof the plaintiff will apply to the said above-named Court for the relief demanded in his complaint, for a decree of divorce forever dissolving and annulling the marriage relations now existing between you and plaintiff, and for such other and further relief as to the Court may seem equitable and just. This Summons is served upon you by publication thereof in The Dalles Chronicle, a newspaper of general circulation published weekly at Dalles City, Wasco County, Oregon, by order of the Honorable W. L. Bradshaw, Judge of said Court, which order was duly made at chambers, Dalles City, Wasco County, Oregon, on the 27th day of December, 1894. DUFUR & MENEFEE, Attorneys for Plaintiff. dec20-95

SHERIFF'S SALE.

Notice is hereby given, that under and by virtue of an execution issued out of the Circuit Court of the State of Oregon for Wasco County, on the 18th day of Dec., 1894, on a decree made, entered and recorded in said Court on the 15th day of Nov., 1894, in a suit wherein Carl Burchert was plaintiff and C. F. Fogh and Marie Fogh were defendants, in favor of said plaintiff and against said defendants, for the sum of $271.20, with interest thereon at the rate of 10 per cent per annum, from the 19th day of November, 1894, and the first issue of $50 attorney's fees, and $25 costs and disbursements, said execution being so directed and commanding me to sell the hereinafter described real property to satisfy said above-named sum, I will on Monday, the 21st day of January, 1895, at the hour of 2 o'clock of said day, sell at public auction to the highest bidder, for cash in hand, at the front door of the county courthouse, in Dalles City, Wasco County, Oregon, all of the right, title and interest of said defendants, and each of them, in and to the following described real property, to-wit: Lots C, D, E, F, G, H, I and J, in block 75 in Port Dalles Military Reservation addition to Dalles City, Wasco County, Oregon, together with the tenements, hereditaments and appurtenances thereunto belonging, or in anywise appertaining, or so much thereof as will satisfy said above-named sum, together with the accruing costs of this sale. Dated at Dalles City, Wasco County, Oregon, on the 19th day of Dec., 1894. T. J. DRIVER, Sheriff of Wasco County, Oregon. dec22-95

MALARIAL POISON

Results from atmospheric conditions, unclean premises, imperfect ventilation and more frequently from the deadly SEWER GAS. A general rundown and impoverished condition of the blood ensues, and if not corrected, Catarrh, Bronchitis, and even Consumption may be the result. S. S. S. promptly corrects all these evils.

Mr. J. A. Rice, Ottawa, Kan., writes: For three years I was troubled with Malaria, which caused my appetite to fail, and I was so reduced in flesh, that I lost all my strength. I tried mercury and potash remedies, but could get no relief. I then decided to try S. S. S. A few bottles of this wonderful medicine made a complete and permanent cure, and I now enjoy better health than ever.
