Woman's Friend Stove Mat.

POSITIVELY INDESTRUCTIBLE.

10c each. Former price, 50c.

DIRECTIONS.

Use, as a general thing, just on top of stove. If great heat is required, use without the stove lid.

No stirring required for oat meal, milk, rice, custards, blanch mange, jellies, butters, catsups, apple sauce, etc., etc. In fact, nothing will burn on it. Coffee will not boil over if the pot is on the mat; bread toasts nicely on it. Try it and be convinced. For the nursery, there is nothing equal to heat the milk and food for the baby. If a grate fire, lay the mat on the open fire. If the mat becomes soiled, do not wash or scrape, but turn the soiled part next to fire, and burn until clean.

BRIEF MENTION.

Leaves From the Notebook of Chronicle Reporters.

Mr. W. Heisler of Dufur called on us today.

Mr. F. C. Sherrieb of Hood River made THE CHRONICLE a pleasant call today.

The literary society will meet in the vestry of the Congregational church this evening instead of the Methodist. Visitors are cordially invited. Quotations from Shakespeare's "Julius Caesar."

The Hood River incorporation business has been occupying the attention of the commissioners court all morning, and in consequence of it being up for a rehearing, several Hood Riverites are up from that pleasant little town. Among them we noticed C. P. Heald, Dr. Brosius, F. H. Button and F. C. Sherrieb.

The republican caucus at Olympia last night finally reached a decision settling the deadlock, and selecting Wilson. That selection was ratified in the legislature at home today, Mr. Wilson being elected. The Allen men forced the fight and as a result got whipped. The state can congratulate itself on having elected the poorest man of the whole number suggested.

A Small Blaze.

The alarm of fire last night about 9 o'clock was caused by the burning of a small house belonging to Mr. Prinz, and occupied by an aged Swedish couple named Wieberg. The building was situated on the hill near the head of Liberty street, and was burning freely before the alarm was turned in. Mr. and Mrs.

Wieberg were attending the services at the Salvation Army barracks at the time, and in consequence of their being away that contents of the building, being everything they owned, were destroyed. The loss as far as the building was concerned is not to exceed $100, but for the Wiebergs the loss is serious because all their clothing and everything else went. They lost all any one can lose—all they had. Columbia Hose and Jackson Engine Co., united their hose and got a stream of water on the burning building but as the building was small, and in an out of the way place, it was about done for when the boys reached it.

A Good Measure.

Senator Dawson's bill to fix the time when taxes become delinquent provides that: "The sheriff shall make returns of collections to the county court on or before the first Monday of October next ensuing the date of the warrant issued by that court, and that if at least one-half of the respective sum of taxes so charged on said roll is not paid prior to the first Monday in April next succeeding the date of his warrant, said one-half shall be deemed delinquent, and if the remaining half is not paid prior to the first Monday in October following, it shall then also be deemed delinquent, and there shall be charged, collected and turned over by the sheriff a forfeiture of 1 per cent per month on all portions of said taxes that have been allowed to become delinquent, from the date of such delinquency until the same are paid; and, provided further, that the sheriff, before entering on the duties of collection of taxes, shall execute an additional bond in such sum as the county court of the county may direct. That is taxes may be paid in two half yearly installments.

The Vote at Salem.

The situation remains unchanged at Salem. Dolph holds the solid vote of those who stuck to the caucus, while the bolters are still scattering their votes but steadily drifting towards George H. Williams, who gains strength every day, and who may eventually get there if old age does not carry him off before the deadlock is broken. The bolters are not showing good judgment in the selection of so old a man. The vote today was Dolph, 42; Hare, 10; Hermann, 9; Weatherford 8; Williams 13; Lord, 3; Lowell 3. Convention adjourned.

Social of Fern Lodge, Degree of Honor.

"Social by name, but not by nature" certainly could not be applied to the social given by the gentlemen members of D. of H. lodge at Fraternity hall, last Wednesday night. After the transaction of the usual order of business, the doors of the hall were thrown open to about one hundred guests. The committee had announced their arrangements for the evening something like this: Singing and literary exercises, with refreshments; whist and whirling. The first number on the program was an instrumental solo by Mrs. Eshelman. Then the audience were very pleasantly told by Mr. D. C. Herrin, in an original essay, the various meanings of the word "charity." A solo by Dr. O. D. Doane was listened to in the silence that denotes appreciation. Mrs. Herrin next recited a poem by Sam Simpson, and the beauties of our state acquired additional interest by her happy manner of relating them. The quartet composed of Messrs. Crandall, Johnson, Doane and Magee responded to an enthusiastic encore, one of that kind that would not be silenced, until the opening notes of the second number were heard. Miss Jennie Russell closed the program by reciting in a most excellent manner "The Green Mountain Justice." The young lady's representation was so realistic that the listeners could see as well as hear the sorry plight in which the justice and his wife were placed. The committee had gotten along finely until this moment, now they step aside, and to the ladies belongs the credit of the delicious luncheon next served the guests. The spirit of fun seemed to prevail, and when the tables were cleared, a merry crowd were clamoring for the "whirling" to commence. Whist tables were prepared for those who did not dance, and surely everybody had a good time. It was unanimously voted "the social of the season," and the gentlemen may expect to arrange all such affairs in the future.

Will Appear Monday Night.

The Tittell Sisters appeared at the Reed last night in "Drifted Apart." The house was fairly well filled by an enthusiastic and appreciative audience who were completely captivated and carried away by the splendid acting of every member of the company. From the most fastidious and critical of Salem's theater goers to the small boy up in the gallery could be heard nothing but words of commendation and praise for the excellent performance. Miss Charlotte Tittell in her role of the much-married society woman cannot be excelled, while her sister, Miss Essie, in her role of Mrs. Helen Van Buren, is second to no actress that has ever appeared in the city. Should the Tittell Sisters put "Drifted Apart" on the boards of the Reed again the spacious hall would not hold one-half of the applicants for admission.

The company will produce "Drifted Apart" Monday evening and "Frou Frou" Tuesday. Reserved seats at Blakeley & Houghtons'.
