

Woman's Friend Stove Mat.

POSITIVELY INDESTRUCTIBLE.

10c each. Former price, 50c.

DIRECTIONS.

Use, as a general thing, just on top of stove. If great heat is required, use without the stove lid. No stirring required for oat meal, milk, rice, custards, blanch mange, jellies, butters, catsups, apple sauce, etc., etc. In fact, nothing will burn on it. Coffee will not boil over if the pot is on the mat; bread toasts nicely on it. Try it and be convinced. For the nursery, there is nothing equal to heat the milk and food for the baby. If a grate fire, lay the mat on the open fire. If the mat becomes soiled, do not wash or scrape, but turn the soiled part next to fire, and burn until clean.

BRIEF MENTION.

Leaves From the Notebook of Chronicle Reporters.

And still another case of insanity is reported from Hood River. It looks like it had blossomed into an epidemic down that way.

Mrs. Hopkins was examined Wednesday by Dr. Brosius and Justice Soesbe of Hood River, as to her sanity and was sent to the insane asylum.

The alarm of fire at 1 o'clock this afternoon was caused by a small blaze on the roof of F. Lemke's saloon. The fire was under control in a moment and before any damage was done.

We suggest that the Oregonian change slightly its phraseology, and that instead of offending the eyes with that word "stinkard" that it adopt the milder mannered word "stenchard."

The county court has been in session for several days two of which were devoted principally to the matter of the incorporation of the town of Hood River. The trouble arose over the boundaries, but a decision was reached this morning and the town was declared duly incorporated.

Hood River is going to have a plant for the manufacturing of tomato catchup. They raise a fine quality of tomatoes at that place and White Salmon, and now that Hood River is incorporated and has this plant, it will, no doubt, soon catch-up with its neighboring towns, both in wealth and population.

A prisoner was brought in from Antelope, arriving here yesterday morning, bound over by the justice court there to appear before the grand jury on the charge of stealing a watch. The young gentlemen who brought him in, came down through Sherman county to Biggs and from that point here on the morning passenger. While waiting for the opening of the sheriff's office, they forgot to keep a close watch on their prisoner, and he took a walk and as far as heard from is yet walking.

The meeting of the Oregon State Horticultural Society, which was to have taken place a few days ago, was postponed until Wednesday next. As notices were not sent out in time many fruitgrowers visited Portland and were of course sadly disappointed. The postponement was caused by the desire of the society to have a lot of Eastern fruit dealers who are visiting in California attend the meeting. As the commission sharps will not come, and many of those who have already visited Portland will not attend, the postponement will work injury to the association.

Many stubborn and aggravating cases of rheumatism that were believed to be incurable and accepted as life legacies, have yielded to Chamberlain's Pain Balm, much to the surprise and gratification of the sufferers. One application will relieve the pain and suffering and its continued use insures an effectual cure. For sale by Blakeley & Houghton Druggists.

Mr. James W. Armsworthy, editor of the Wasco News, passed through the city on his way home from Salem, this afternoon. #### A Chinese Wedding.

At 2:30 this afternoon Justice Davis united in the holy bonds of the white man's matrimony, Gung Song and Leong Tui, both, as their names suggest, natives of the flowery kingdom. The groom is a bright, intelligent young fellow and the bride is a pretty little damsel of about 19 years. The course of true love has not run smooth for them, as the highbinders of Portland, where they live, have been trying to kidnap the lady. Gung Song was happy when the ceremony was over, for he knew that the persecutions of the highbinders would cease, as they are afraid to interfere as between a Chinaman and his wife, made so by our laws.

Quite a number witnessed the ceremony, and Judge Blakeley left the light of his countenance as general superintendent of the proceedings.
