

Consumption.

The incessant wasting of a consumptive can only be overcome by a powerful concentrated nourishment like Scott's Emulsion. If this wasting is checked and the system is supplied with strength to combat the disease there is hope of recovery.

Scott's Emulsion of Cod-liver Oil, with Hypophosphites, does more to cure Consumption than any other known remedy. It is for all Affections of Throat and Lungs, Coughs, Colds, Bronchitis and Wasting. Pamphlet free. Scott & Bowne, N. Y. All Druggists. 50c. and $1.

Mrs. Biles Stricken With Paralysis.
SEATTLE, Feb. 3.—Mrs. James Biles, who crossed the plains from Kentucky to Puget sound in 1853 and who has well known relatives in Portland, was stricken with paralysis today. Her recovery is despaired of. January 18th she celebrated her 84th birthday.

Four Big Successes.
Having the needed merit to more than made good all the advertising claimed for them, the following four remedies have reached a phenomenal sale. Dr. King's New Discovery, for consumption, Coughs and Colds, each bottle guaranteed—Electric Bitters, the great remedy for Liver, Stomach and Kidneys. Bucklen's Arnica Salve, the best in the world, and Dr. King's New Life Pills, which are a perfect pill. All these remedies are guaranteed to do just what is claimed for them and the dealer whose name is attached herewith will be glad to tell you more of them. Sold at Snipes & Kinersly's Drug Store.

We have made arrangements with the San Francisco Examiner to furnish it in connection with THE CHRONICLE. Having a clubbing rate with the Oregonian and N. Y. Tribune for our republican patrons, we have made this arrangement for the accommodation of the democratic members of THE CHRONICLE family. Both papers, the Weekly Examiner and SEMI-WEEKLY CHRONICLE will be furnished for one year for $2.25, cash in advance.

You Don't Have to Swear Off.
says the St. Louis Journal of Agriculture in an editorial about No-To-Bac the famous tobacco habit cure. We know of many cases cured by No-To-Bac, one, a prominent St. Louis architect, smoked and chewed for twenty years; two boxes cured him so that even the smell of tobacco makes him sick." No-To-Bac sold and guaranteed by Snipes & Kinersly, No cure no pay. Book free. Sterling Remedy Co., New York or Chicago.

A Splendid Offer.
Our clubbing arrangements with the San Francisco Examiner entitles those subscribing for that paper in connection with THE CHRONICLE to all the benefits of their premium offer, that is a numbered receipt and choice of premium pictures. The price of the Examiner is $1.75, the price of THE CHRONICLE $1.50, and we send you both with all privileges as above stated for one year for $2.25.

ALEX ANDERSON,

TIPS FOR THE QUEEN.

They Are Called Perquisites, But She Gets Them Just the Same.

Queen Victoria gets more tips than any other functionary in Great Britain, and, what is more, she insists on getting them. Of course they are not called tips. They are called perquisites, but it is all the same. An ex-at-tache, writing in the New York Tribune, says that among the most curious of them is her right to every whale or sturgeon captured on the coast of the united kingdom and brought to land. Both of these perquisites date back to the days of the Norman kings and it appears that in the case of the whale the monsters were divided between the sovereign and his consort, the queen taking the head in order that her wardrobe might be replenished with the whalebone needed for the stiffening of her royal garments.

Another of the queen's backsheesh is a certain number of magnificent Cashmere shawls, which are dispatched to her every year from the kingdom of Cashmere. They vary in value, as a rule, from three hundred to twelve hundred dollars apiece and the queen is accustomed to present one of them as a wedding present to every young girl of the aristocracy or in whose future she is in any way interested. Every tailor holding a patent of "Purveyor to her Majesty," if he conforms to ancient tradition and usage, should present her with a silver needle each year.

Another class of royal purveyors is called upon to present annually to her a table cloth, while from other sources she is entitled to an annual contribution of such varied tips as white doves, white hares, curryscombs, fire tongs, scarlet hosiery, nightcaps, knives, lances and crossbows. Moreover, at the coronation the lord of the manor of Addition must present to the sovereign a "dish of pottage" composed of "almond milk, brawn of capons, sugar, spices, chickens parpoiled and chopped." At the same ceremony the lord of the manor of Haydon is obliged by virtue of his tenure from the crown to present the monarch with a towel, the lord of the manor of Workshop giving the sovereign a "right-handed glove." These are only a few of the various backsheesh to which Queen Victoria is entitled by tradition and usage.

The Women to Blame.
Prof. Peal, the ethnologist, recently described to the Asiatic society the condition of the head-hunting Nagas on the borders of Assam. The women are to blame for the continuance of the practice; they taunt the young men who are not tattooed, and the latter go out and cut off heads to exhibit to them, fully half of which are those of women and children. The area occupied by the tribe is not more than twenty miles square, but in it during the past forty years more than twelve thousand murders have been committed for the sake of these ghastly trophies.

She Wanted the Real Thing.
Several years ago a celebrated tragedian was announced to play "Hamlet" at Windsor. When he came to the soliloquy he made an unusual pause after "To be—" The queen, believing that he had forgotten his lines, instantly prompted—"or not to be. That is the question." "By your leave, your majesty," said the tragedian, put out of courtly humor by the interruption, "that is not the question. The question is my method of interpretation." "Never mind your method," returned the queen, smilingly; "what we want is Shakespeare."

Irresistible.
Book-cannassers should take courage from a story told by an English lecturer on "The Art of Bookbinding." A man of their profession had called at a house whose occupant met him with a growl.

"It's no use to me. I never read."
"But there's your family," said the canvasser.
"Haven't any family—nothing but a cat."
"Well, you may want something to throw at the cat."
The book was purchased.

Must Wait Two Years.
VIENNA, Feb. 3.—King Alexander, of Servia, has proposed marriage to Princess Sybille, of Hesse. The princess' parents promised to consider the proposition two years hence, provided Alexander is then willing.
