PEASE & MAYS.

Woman's Friend Stove Mat.

POSITIVELY INDESTRUCTIBLE.

10c each. Former price, 50c.

DIRECTIONS.

Use, as a general thing, just on top of stove. If great heat is required, use without the stove lid.

No stirring required for oat meal, milk, rice, custards, blanch mange, jellies, butters, catsups, apple sauce, etc., etc. In fact, nothing will burn on it. Coffee will not boil over if the pot is on the mat; bread toasts nicely on it. Try it and be convinced. For the nursery, there is nothing equal to heat the milk and food for the baby. If a grate fire, lay the mat on the open fire. If the mat becomes soiled, do not wash or scrape, but turn the soiled part next to fire, and burn until clean.

BRIEF MENTION.

Leaves From the Notebook of Chronicle Reporters.

Mrs. M. E. Briggs has purchased the millinery store of Anna Peter & Co.

There was quite a heavy frost last night, but the lilac buds seem to be swelling regardless of cold or anything else.

Circuit court meets Monday. The docket is not a very large one, and the term will not last long, most of the cases being such as to permit speedy settlement.

County Judge Mariner and Sheriff Wilson, both of Gilliam county, have been in the city during the week. Judge Mariner is still here and is running through the list of property situated in his county for which receiver's receipts have been issued.

At the annual meeting of the East End Hose Co, held last night, the following officers were elected for the ensuing year: H. L. Kuck, president; L. L. Davis, secretary; F. Kramer, treasurer; J. H. St. Arnold, foreman; J. S. Schooling, 1st assistant foreman; R. E. Saltmarsh, 2d assistant foreman; H. L. Kuck, L. S. Davis and W. H. Loehhead delegates to the fire board. This company appears to be in a flourishing condition.

The Jury List.

The following citizens have been summoned to act as jurors in the circuit court for the February term, which begins Monday: W D Jones, Antelope; Chas Fraley, Ezra Henson, Kingsley; G W Marquam, Wm Taylor, Jacob Roberts, Dufur; J W Wallace, Peter Hinrich, Simpson Copple, Hood River; James Darneille, E W Trout, M C Sellick, A Canfield, E A Griffin, Boyd; W H Williams, W J Davidson, Endersby; M Randall, Henry Klindt, H A Dietzel, Jacob Obrist, J S Taylor, J M Marden, The Dalles; G W Alexander, J P Abbott, J A Noble, L B Kelley, Wapinitia; F S Gordon, Wamic; Amos Root, Mosier; Wm Kelsay, Antelope; H E Moore, Nansene; W F Norval, Tygh.

Preacher Turns Bank Robber.

Rev. J. C. Reed, the Baptist minister who a few years ago went in bathing at Portland and was supposed to have been drowned until some time after when he was found in the East, has again brought himself into notoriety. Yesterday a few minutes after noon Reed entered the First National bank of East Portland and covering the cashier with a pistol, bound and gagged him and was gathering up what money there was in sight when D. C. Southworth, cashier of the Citizens' bank, across the street, happened to see what was going on and went to the rescue with a double-barreled shotgun. Reed surrendered without resistance.

The Senatorial Vote.

The situation at Salem is unchanged. The vote today was Dolph 41, Herrmann 13, Williams 9, Hare 10, Weatherford 8, Lowell 3, Lord 4. Paired Carter and Scott.

There was a rumor in circulation here this morning that some arrangement had been made that would show a decided change in the vote, and probably result in the settling of the matter. Not much credence was given the report especially by those who know anything of the grounds upon which the opposition to Dolph is based, and of the men who are opposing him. We believe that the situation will not be changed until Dolph's name is withdrawn and as this is not likely to happen, it is probable that Oregon will be represented by but one senator for the next two years.

Headache and Neuralgia cured by Dr. Miles' Pain Pills. "One cent a dose."

A Barberous Story.

Hoot Soot, a Umatilla Indian, has sued the court of Indian offenses, a duly organized court under the United States laws, and Ed Brisbow, an Indian policeman, in the justice court at Pendleton, and recovered judgment against them for $200. It seems that Hoot Soot filled up on tangleleg, and in trying to hoot to soot himself managed to let his hooter, which is from Hootersville, annoy the public to such an extent that he was arrested, his hlr-soot (the gender is slightly mixed) covering being curtailed on his head, so that his Indian friends dropped the latter portion of his name and simply Hooted him. In other words, the court had his hair cut, and his friends gave him what is called in the aboriginal American tongue, the "horse laugh."

Hoot Soot, having, by being allotted lands in severalty, and also by having been solemnly treated with the same as a foreign potentate, became by the peculiar action of law a citizen of the republic, with all the rights and privileges of a corporation—that is, to have his affairs looked after and protected by the government, as well as the rights of a citizen; that is to take in a jag and get chucked in the cooler, yanked before the base minions of the white man's law next morning, and hear the sapient remark, "$10 or five days"—felt that his person was sacred, and that the hairs of his head could no more be cut off by a primitive and savage court than the heirs of his body could from their rights in the reversion, remainder, rents, issues and profits of his segregated land by a deed in fee simple, under his sign manual—the sign of the cross—duly attested, sealed and acknowledged. So feeling, he probably for the first time in his life, sought the law instead of defying it, and was no doubt as much astonished as gratified to find that it was more profitable to raise a crop of hair on his own head than from that of his enemy.

The court of Indian offenses will probably cease to court, for at $200 a hair cut, the execution of the courts favorite sentence is too much like shaving a pig for wool—shear nonsense. The case will be appealed, and Hoot Soot will have a yet more profound veneration for his white brothers' laws, and also another fine crop of hair, before the case is finally decided—and the costs paid. It will take another crop of hair, at least, to pay up the expenses for harvesting the last one.
