POSITIVELY INDESTRUCTIBLE.

10c each. Former price, 50c.

DIRECTIONS.

Use, as a general thing, just on top of stove. If great heat is required, use without the stove lid. No stirring required for oat meal, milk, rice, custards, blanch mange, jellies, butters, catsups, apple sauce, etc., etc. In fact, nothing will burn on it. Coffee will not boil over if the pot is on the mat; bread toasts nicely on it. Try it and be convinced. For the nursery, there is nothing equal to heat the milk and food for the baby. If a grate fire, lay the mat on the open fire. If the mat becomes soiled, do not wash or scrape, but turn the soiled part next to fire, and burn until clean.

BRIEF MENTION.

Leaves From the Notebook of Chronicle Reporters.

Justice Davis' court has been trying a small civil case today.

School Superintendent Shelley will hold a special teachers' examination Wednesday, Feb. 13th.

Just watch our advertising columns tomorrow and see what Mr. F. Fortin has to say in a business way.

This session of the legislature can last but 14 days more, unless the members desire to serve awhile without pay.

The literary society will hold their meeting in the audience room of the Congregational church this evening at 8 o'clock.

The following deed was filed for record today: J. D. Lee and wife to D. M. and J. W. French, 65 acres adjoining the John A. Simms donation land claim in tp 1 n, r 13 e; consideration, $2,000.

It is estimated that about 1,000,000 pounds of hogs have been shipped from the Elgin yards this season. As these were all 4-cent hogs, it would bring in $40,000. It is figured that not one-half of Wallowa county hogs have been marketed.

Congressman Champ Clark says he is never going to send his boy to school until he has taught him all he himself knows. The boy is now 8 years old and will probably start to school next year. That is, of course, if Mr. Clark may be considered up to the congressional average.

The new telephone company is pushing its line along very fast. Some very large poles have been received and are being placed in position in the business portion of the city. About 75 miles of wire for the line has also been received, and it will be put in place just as quickly as possible.

The putting up of the new telephone line is giving employment to a large number of people. There is quite a number employed in dressing the big poles down to a proper smoothness, and another large number are engaged in mortising holes in the earth in which the poles will be placed.

S. A. Clarke had quite a spat with some of his fellow members of the horticultural society at Portland yesterday. The chief feature of the occasion was Mr. Clarke's rivalry of the great George Washington. He said "he was 68 years old, and never told a lie," and then he read an original poem written in the key of G.

The situation at Salem is the same as yesterday, Dolph holds his 42, but Hermann is now out of the fight to stay. The larger portion of the vote made free by Hermann's withdrawal went to Lowell. The vote in detail was as follows: Dolph 41, Williams 11, Hare 10, Lord 8, Weatherford 8, Lowell 10. Paired Thompson and Scott.

At the regular annual meeting of Columbia Hose Company, No. 2, the following officers were elected: Foreman, F. W. Bayley; 1st assistant foreman, Geo. Gibbons; 2d assistant foreman, Hugh Chrisman; president, H. J. Maier; secretary, C. C. Cooper; treasurer, E. C. Pease. Member of the board of delegates, J. S. Fish, Joe Worsley, H. J. Maier.

The horticulturists, railroad men and commission merchants of the East are having a love feast in Portland. We note the name of S. A. Clarke as one of the leading fruit pests of the assembly and that he tells what he knows about prunes in 1894, which should not have taken him long. The apple exhibit is said to be very good.

A movement is on foot to build a bicycle road from Oregon City to Eugene, plank six feet wide, it right of way can be secured. The object is to build it along the side of county roads by most direct route. Road to be tolled for bicyclists, but free to school children and pedestrians. All crossings to be kept in repair at the expense of the company.

Gus Schroder was down from Silver Lake last week. He reports that everybody is getting along as well as possible, but some are in a horrible condition. George Payne, the man who upset the death-laden lamp, was so badly burned that the flesh has fallen off his back, leaving part of his backbone and three ribs exposed. Several others are in pretty bad shape.—Lakeview Examiner.

It is time to quit kicking one another about our legislators violating their pledges. The platform of each political party demanded the abolishing of the railroad commission, yet most of the legislators are candidates for the place, or have some friend whom they desire to give it to. Just mark our words that there are a whole lot of pledges, democratic and populist as well as republican, that will be lost sight of the next two weeks by the representatives of all of those parties at Salem.

When Baby was sick, we gave her Castoria. When she was a Child, she cried for Castoria. When she became Miss, she clung to Castoria. When she had Children, she gave them Castoria.

Mr. T. H. Johnston of Dufur is in town today.

Mr. George Strong, of the Mitchell Monitor, returned from Salem yesterday. He has been looking after the Sutton county bill, and seems hopeful of it becoming a law, and is confident that it will pass the house. He will remain in the city until Tuesday.
