DON'T CALL NAMES.

The Moro Observer this week jumped on to Mr. Coon, member of the legislature from this and Sherman county, and called him all sorts of names.

A case of deep interest to all fraternal-beneficial orders has recently been decided in Philadelphia. It appears that Joseph E. Artbars joined the order February 28, 1879, as a charter member of Reliance Lodge, A. O. U. W., and designated his mother, Mary Arthars, as his beneficiary.

There seems but little hope of electing Dolph to succeed himself in the United States senate. Important as it is that he should succeed himself it is yet more important that Oregon have two senators.

Now that it has been demonstrated that Senator Dolph cannot be re-elected, it ought not to be difficult for the republicans to unite upon some man of sound views on finance, some capable man who is not an extremist like Mr. Dolph, nor a man of wild theories like Pennoyer.

President Cleveland has notified congress of the completion of arrangements for another bond issue, amounting to $62,400,000. It is a good many years since Tacitus made the assertion that "A treasury emptied by extravagance could only be refilled by crime."

It was certainly a peculiar combination when X. N. Steeves, who is convicted of manslaughter, appeared in court at Portland one day this week to look after the interests of a client.

Ten days loss of time on account of sickness and a doctor bill to pay, is anything but pleasant for a man of a family to contemplate, whether he is a laborer, mechanic, merchant or publisher.

Mexia, Texas, was sick in bed for ten days with the grip during its prevalence a year or two ago. Later in the season he had a second attack. He says: "in the latter case I used Chamberlain's Cough Remedy with considerable success, I think, only being in bed a little over two days.

The Flouring Mill. W. E. Chamberlain arrived in Hood River during the week. He has not given up the idea of locating his flouring mill here, and has been prospecting for a site on F. H. Button's land on the east side of Hood River.

Four Big Successes. Having the needed merit to more than made good all the advertising claimed for them, the following four remedies have reached a phenomenal sale. Dr. King's New Discovery, for consumption, Coughs and Colds, each bottle guaranteed.

Teachers' Examination. Notice is hereby given that for the purpose of making an examination of all persons who may offer themselves as candidates for teachers of the schools of this county, the county school superintendent there of will hold a public examination, at his office in The Dalles, beginning Wednesday, February 13, 1895, at 1 o'clock p. m.

Members of Mt. Hood Hose Co., No. 4, will please be on hand at 7:30 this evening, it being the time for the election of officers.

Scrofula

Miss Della Stevens, of Boston, Mass., writes: I have always suffered from hereditary Scrofula, for which I tried various remedies, and many reliable physicians, but none relieved me. After taking 6 bottles of S.S.S. I am now well. I am very grateful to you, as I feel that it saved me from a life of untold agony, and shall take pleasure in speaking only words of praise for the wonderful medicine, and in recommending it to all.
