CROOK COUNTY RAILROADS.

Mr. S. J. Newsome, in an article contributed by him to the Prineville News in advocating a railroad in Crook county, comments on an editorial on that subject that appeared in this paper some time ago.

Men generally see all the good or harm that is in a thing according to the way it strikes the interests of themselves or the town in which they live, and I am not surprised that our friend, the editor of The Dalles Chronicle, would oppose the idea of Crook county having a railroad.

We would call the gentleman's attention to the fact that we are not opposing the idea of Crook county having a railroad. Crook county can have just as many railroads as she wants or can get, without any opposition either upon the part of Wasco county, The Dalles, or the newspapers of this city.

We have never been in Crook county, consequently knew nothing of its products, its soil, or its needs. We based our opinion upon the statements in the News, from which we judged the county was principally given to stock-raising.

In conclusion we will say that we do not own the toll roads alluded to and are not interested in the profits thereof, and that Wasco county's treasury is not filled by overflowing from the proceeds of those roads either.

The doctors who took charge of the Italian who shot a fellow countryman at Portland last week, and then fired two shots into his own stomach, have done some very neat work on him. An examination disclosed that the intestines were perforated in several places, and that heroic measures would have to be adopted if the man was to be given a chance for his life.

In Illinois the legislature is wrestling with a bill to prevent the ladies of the audience wearing high hats, and the ladies of the stage wearing tights. One law is the corollary of the other, for of what use could the latter law be without the former.

SUMMONS.

In the Circuit Court of the State of Oregon for Wasco County: Caleb Brooks, Plaintiff, vs. Georgiana A. Brooks, Defendant.

To Georgiana A. Brooks, the above-named defendant: You are hereby required to appear and answer the complaint filed against you in the above-entitled suit, and now pending in the above-entitled Court, on or before Monday, the 11th day of Feb., 1895, that being the first day of the next regular term of said Court; and if you fail so to answer, for want thereof the plaintiff will apply to the said above-named Court for the relief demanded in his complaint, for a decree of divorce forever dissolving and annulling the marriage relations now existing between you and plaintiff, and for such other and further relief as to the Court may seem equitable and just.

This Summons is served upon you by publication thereof in The Dalles Chronicle, a newspaper of general circulation published weekly at Dalles City, Wasco County, Oregon, by order of the Honorable W. L. Bradshaw, Judge of said Court, which order was duly made at chambers Dalles City, Wasco County, Oregon, on the 27th day of December, 1894. DUFUR & MENEFFEE, Attorneys for Plaintiff.
