BRIEF MENTION.

Leaves From the Notebook of Chronicle Reporters.

The jurors attending court today were excused until tomorrow at 10 o'clock.

The revival meetings at the M. E. church will be continued during the week. All are invited to attend.

The Baptist church has purchased the old electric light building. It will be turned around, remodeled and used for a church building.

Bunco Kelley was up for sentence Saturday before Judge Stephens of Portland, and was sent to the penitentiary for life.

The weather bureau gives the indication for tomorrow as colder and snow. It has been snowing in the extreme eastern part of the state all day and part of yesterday.

The vote at Salem today is as follows: Dolph 36, Hare 10, Williams 9, Weatherford 7, Lowell 10, Lord 6, and twelve members were paired. This leaves Dolph his usual 42.

Circuit court met this morning, and the following gentlemen were selected to serve as a grand jury: John Marden, Chas. Fraley, M. Sellick, E. A. Griffin, W. F. Norval, Amos Root and W. J. Davidson. The court appointed Mr. Marden foreman. After charging the grand jury, the balance of the day was taken up in hearing demurrers, motions, etc. J. Doherty and James Harper were appointed court bailiffs and J. Blakeney, sr., grand jury bailiff.

At the regular annual meeting of Mt. Hood hose company, No. 4, held in this city last Saturday evening, the following officers were unanimously elected for the ensuing year: President, C. L. Phillips (re-elected); foreman, Julius J. Wiley; first asst. foreman, E. F. Sharp; second asst. foreman, W. R. Brown; treasurer, I. J. Norman; secretary, J. W. Lewis. Delegates—C. E. Bayard, H. #### Ben-Hur Illustrated.

The Victoria Colonist, speaking of the illustrated lecture of J. W. Fairbank, says:

"There was not a vacant space in the large schoolroom of the Metropolitan Methodist church last evening, on the occasion of Hon. J. W. Fairbank's lecture on 'Ben-Hur, a tale of Christ.' The discourse was illustrated with seventy or more views; all of them absorbingly interesting and many of them surpassing beauty. The lecturer made a running commentary on this now famous book, outlining with pleasant facility the leading points and most stirring episodes. As each event came on for consideration the faithful lantern showed it to the audience in words much more plainly than the tongue is capable of doing. Principal among the pictures in point of realism were that of the battle at sea, and the Arab horses which Ben-Hur drove to victory."

A liberal share of the proceeds of Mr. Fairbank's lecture, to be delivered Tuesday evening at the Congregational church in this city, will go to the church and every one who attends will not only be sure of a profitable and pleasant evening, but will be lending assistance to the church.

The Curfew Ordinance.

Ordinance No. 275, which passed the common council of Dalles City May 24, 1893, is as follows:

Section 29. That no minor under the age of 16 years shall go abroad upon or wander about the streets of Dalles City after the hour of 9 o'clock at night, unless such minor shall be accompanied by his or her parent or guardian, or unless such minor shall have necessary business upon such street or streets; and any minor who shall violate the provisions of this ordinance shall be deemed guilty of a misdemeanor, and upon conviction before the recorder, shall be fined not less than $5 nor more than $10, or imprisonment in the city jail not less than three days nor more than five.

This ordinance has been somewhat of a dead letter, but the city council has instructed the officers to enforce it strictly.

Public Speaking.

There will be public speaking at the Congregational church, Wednesday evening, Feb. 13th, at 8 o'clock, by Grand Master Workman W. W. Brannin. Come out and learn why you should join the A. O. U. W.

Teachers' Local Institute.

The opening exercises of the institute were held in the M. E. church, which was well filled with the citizens of Dufur and the surrounding country. The Dufur school enlivened this and subsequent sessions with excellent instrumental and vocal music. Prof. A. Frazier welcomed the audience by calling attention to the importance of educational work, and showing the necessity of so educating boys and girls that the next generation will stand on a higher plane, both in intelligence and morals. Superintendent Shelley responded in a short address expressing his pleasure in meeting with such hospitable and appreciative people as the people of Dufur. He heartily endorsed the remarks of Prof. Frazier. The program, as printed, was carried out.

The day sessions were held in the schoolhouse, and were well attended on Friday. The exercises were all good, and under the skillful management of Mr. Shelley, many good points were developed, and much interest aroused.

The discussions of the subject "Some Necessary Requisites to the Growth of Wasco County Schools," brought out the following points: Teachers need to know more of mental development; the best teachers at the beginning; the terms are too short in many districts; there are too many third grade teachers; a greater and better supply of apparatus and furniture; unanimity among the people of the districts; better school government; more interest on the part of directors and parents; better government of the children at home; parents should not speak against the teacher to their children or in their presence; more attention should be given to moral training; there should be some well defined plan of work in which everything tends to a definite end. Many helpful things were said, and taken all in all, the institute was a success.

The discussion of the importance of the public schools to the public showed that the public school is firmly implanted in the esteem and affections of the people.

DIED.

At Antelope, Or., on Tuesday afternoon, Feb. 5, 1895, Miss Gertrude Ransdell, aged 17 years, 1 month and 3 days. Miss Ransdell's old home is near Needy, Clackamas county, and she had been in very delicate health for the past 18 months. Thinking it would be beneficial to her health she came up last March to live with her sister, Mrs. Geo. Patterson, at this place. The change of climate did not have the desired effect, however, and she became gradually weaker and more feeble. Finally consumption set in, and although the best medical aid was procured and the kindest treatment rendered her by her sister, brother and others, it proved of no avail, and death soon claimed her as his own. Mrs. Patterson, Vern Ransdell, S. W. Patterson and Mrs. Irvine left for The Dalles with the remains early Wednesday morning, and expected to arrive at the Rock Creek cemetery, Clackamas county.

about Saturday evening, where the interment will take place. This was her last request—that her body be buried near her old home.—Antelope Herald.

PERSONAL MENTION.

Mr. W. D. Jones of Antelope made us a pleasant call today.

Miss Emma Shepherd of Hood River is the guest of Mrs. C. L. Phillips.

Mr. Fred Wilson, who has been quite sick, has recovered sufficiently to be again visible.

A telegram received from Denver yesterday stated that Rev. Whisler arrived safely, and stood the trip remarkably well.

Mr. H. A. Hogue of Portland is in the city. He is an old-time resident of The Dalles and has a host of friends here, who are pleased indeed to see him.

Teachers' Examination.

Notice is hereby given that for the purpose of making an examination of all persons who may offer themselves as candidates for teachers of the schools of this county, the county school superintendent thereof will hold a public examination, at his office in The Dalles, beginning Wednesday, February 13, 1895, at 1 o'clock p. m.

TROY SHELLEY,
County School Superintendent.
