BRIEF MENTION.

Leaves From the Notebook of Chronicle Reporters.

The commission of Alfred C. Sanford as notary public was filed for record today.

The case of T. G. Mitchell against O. D. Taylor is on trial before a jury in the circuit court this afternoon.

W. W. Branner, grand master of the A. O. U. W., arrived from Pendleton this morning, and will deliver an address at the Congregational church, concerning that order, this evening.

Everybody is getting ready to attend the grand masquerade, given by the Workmen and Woodmen the night of the 22d. It will be the greatest affair of the kind ever given in this city.

Arrangements have been made whereby Rev. J. H. Wood, who is now conducting revival services in the M. E. church, will occupy the pulpit of that church during the remainder of the conference year.

The lecture at the Congregational church last night drew a large crowd filling the spacious church. The views were very fine, and the large audience went home thoroughly pleased with their evening's entertainment.

At the meeting of the fire board held last evening in the council room, H. J. Maier was elected president and W. H. Lochhead, secretary. The same were duly sworn into their respective offices by Recorder Dufur this morning.

The vote at Salem today, in spite of the many head shakes by those who are supposed to be running the machine in Portland, did not show any material change. It was as follows: Dolph 39, Hare 10, Weatherford 7, Williams 11, Lowell 12, Lord 5. Six members were paired.

Elder J. W. Jenkins left for Dufur this morning, and will preach there each evening this week and twice on Sunday. Subjects: "The Love of God," "The Authority of Christ," "Lessons from the Holy Mount," "A New Testament Example of Conversion," "Sin and Its Remedy."

The case of the State against Guy Southwell came to a sudden termination on account of the prosecuting witness, an Indian, swearing that the horse shot, instead of belonging to him, belonged to his wife, and as he was indicted for shooting a horse belonging to the prosecuting witness, the testimony made a fatal variance.

The grand jury today returned not a true bill in the case of the State against Broadbent: The charge against him was adultery, and as his wife refused to appear against him, under the peculiar laws of the state, the prosecution had to be dropped. Before discharging the prisoner Judge Bradshaw gave him quite a lecture which, if heeded, will be of lasting benefit to the defendant. Among other things he called his attention to the fact that wifely forbearance under certain conditions ceased to be a virtue, and warned him against again being forced to rely on it for his liberty.

Teachers' Examination.

The examination of applicants for certificates to teach began today, with the following in attendance:

Lizzie Bowie, Lindsey B. Thomas, E. F. Surface, H. C. Davis, G. L. Carroll, Hollis R. Blue, M. F. Ward, H. M. Pitman, Mrs. K. Roche, Margaret Shelley, Katie Davenport, Daisy E. Alloway, Hannah Robbins, Ethel Chaney, Mary A. Northrup, Ben Wilson, A. V. Underwood, Florence J. Davis, Cassie M. Cheese.

To Survey Roads.

County Surveyor Sharp has arranged to survey proposed new roads as follows: Road petitioned for by X M Morgan and others, Feb 21st.

Roads of public easement petitioned for by Timothy Evans, Feb. 22d.

Road petitioned for by W. M. Davy and others, Feb. 25th.

Road petitioned for by Herbert C. Rooper and others, 26th.

DIED.

At Wamic, Monday, Feb. 11th, P. M. Kistner, aged about 65 years. Mr. Kistner was an old resident of Wasco county and was esteemed by all who knew him. He had been sick for seven or eight months, and his death was not unexpected.

Public Speaking.

There will be public speaking at the Congregational church, Wednesday evening, Feb. 13th, at 8 o'clock, by Grand Master Workman W. W. Brannin. Come out and learn why you should join the A. O. U. W. m-t-w.

When Baby was sick, we gave her Castoria. When she was a Child, she cried for Castoria. When she became Miss, she clung to Castoria. When she had Children, she gave them Castoria.

The Fruit Men.

Mr. Emil Schanno has just returned from Portland where he has been attending the meeting of the State Board of Horticulture. He was highly pleased with his visit, and says that the only counties that had any fruit exhibit worth mentioning were Wasco and Union, and that the former, owing largely to the interest that Hood River took in the matter and her contributions, was the better. Mr. Schanno is an active member of the board, and insists that the money now appropriated for the use of the board is sufficient. He says with considerable foresight, that if the money set apart for the horticultural board is increased in amount, the office will become a political one for the reward of political workers, and will be filled by persons who know no more about fruit than the railroad commissioners do about railroads, and who will be after the place simply for the money in it. As it is the money would tempt no one, and consequently only some person interested in the business would accept the place.
