FOR ATUAN REBELS

Arms and Ammunition Imported Into Apia.

AND SOLD IN DEFIANCE OF LAW

Arms Were Imported in Hollowware Casks and Paint Tins, and Repacked in Their Store.

APIA, Samoa, Jan. 30.—(Correspondence of the United Press).—The event of the month has been the importation and sale to rebels at Atua of rifles and ammunition. Although the matter has not as yet been fairly sifted, enough is known to convict a German commercial firm in Apia of importing 113 Snyder rifles and a large quantity of ammunition, contrary to the Berlin treaty and the local arms ordinance.

These guns and ammunition and some cartridges were sold to Atuan rebels. The parcel was imported into Apia in hollowware casks and paint tins, and repacked in the store of the merchants mentioned. A portion was landed in Saraii, and a small quantity delivered at Tagaloa bay in the Atua rebel district. Before the whole parcel had been disposed of the news reached the authorities.

The imperial German consul, Herr Biermann, took immediate steps in regard to members of the firm of Frings & Spatsy and Captain Laflings, who had been employed in the delivery of the arms. Frings, Spatsy and Laflings were fined the maximum penalty of 150 marks, and the partners were compelled to deposit with their consul the amount of cash they had received, about $1,200.

In addition to this, the guns at Saraii were secured, and later on were re-shipped to Sydney, from whence they originally came. The three Samoan chiefs at Saraii, who seized for the government a portion of the guns imported, have been arrested and charged by the German consul with intimidating German residents in Saraii, and compelling them to give up the arms.

United States Consul Mulligan is ill with a fever. The municipal council of Apia has just passed resolutions which have been assented to by the three consuls and chief justice, to enable local police to arrest persons of all nationalities charged with importing arms and ammunition.

Queen Lil's Trial.

SAN FRANCISCO, Feb. 14.—The steamer Mariposa from Honolulu brings advices dated February 8.

Ex-Queen Liliuokalani was arraigned on February 6th on a charge of misprision of treason, the original charge being treason. She refused to plead, and denied the right of the military court to try her, saying it is a violation of the present constitution of the republic. Witnesses testified that Liliuokalani was undoubtedly aware that a rebellion was to be started. She denies this, and says she would have dissuaded the rebels if she had known, but would have kept their secrets. She admits that if she had been restored she would have named a new cabinet, and she claims she had the right to select officers in anticipation of a change of government in accordance with the history of other governments.

Her dairy has this entry: "I. O. Carter called on me and delivered President Cleveland's present to me." This is dated last summer.

Her dairy frequently mentions, Rudolph Spreckels' promises of assistance, telling her she could get plenty of money and arms in San Francisco.

In the concluding of the trial, a paper was read on behalf of the queen, in which she related that she had no knowledge, either directly or indirectly, of the intended revolt; now had she any information concerning arms, where or by whom procured. She says she acted of her own free will, and was actuated by the sole aim of doing good to her country. The queen expressed her regret that danger to women and children at the hands of Hawaiians had been reported, which she said had no foundation whatever. She appeals to the court to remember that the government of Hawaii is on trial before the world, and that it will be judged by the outcome. She concludes by saying that the prosperity and happiness of Hawaii are in their hands, and that as they are commencing a new era in the nation's history she hopes that they will have the wisdom to lead it into paths of forbearance, and to consider the people anxious to advance in the way of civilization outlined by American liberty.

On the 8th inst. the court required that several passages in her statement be stricken out, before it could be admitted to record.

Neuman spoke for an hour, maintaining that evidence entirely failed to prove that the accused had any knowledge what ever of the uprising. Judge Advocate Kinney responded for 45 minutes, treating of the impossibility of her ignorance with Chief Conspirator Nowlein, living under her roof, and official documents passing back and forth between her and Gulick relating to the establishment of a new government, at the very time when preparations were made to land the arms and the insurrection was ripe. The trial closed at 2:30 p. m.

It is believed the military court will find the ex-queen guilty, but will release her on her own recognizance.

The next case will be Jonah Kani-onoali, a prince under the monarchy. It is said the queen intended eventually to abdicate in Jonah's favor to keep Princes Kaulani from the throne.

Michigan Woman's Club Produces Longfellow's "Spanish Student."

OTSEGO, Mich., Feb. 15.—The Women's Literary Club created a great sensation last night by donning tights and performing Longfellow's "Spanish Student." There were three preachers present, who, in spite of pertunctory disapproval, admitted that the play was well put on. A novel feature was the appearance of a score of prominent citizens dressed in broadcloth, wearing bald-headed wigs. They marched in with dignity and quietly seated themselves in the orchestra circle amid loud applause. The women were indignant at the gentlemen who appeared in the front row with bald-headed wigs.

United States Must Have Absolute Control of It.

WASHINGTON, Feb. 15.—In an interview with Representatives Mallory and Storer, members of the house sub-committee which formulated the Nicaragua canal bill, in regard to the remarks of Foreign Secretary Gray in the British house of commons, yesterday, concerning the control of the canal, both gentlemen declared themselves opposed to allowing England to obtain control of the canal. They declared they would favor war with England to prevent it.

Mallory added: "The house bill looks to the ultimate control of the canal by the United States."

Differences Between McBride and Wild Yet Unsettled.

COLUMBUS, O., Feb. 15.—The chief matter of interest in the mipers' convention today was the report of the committee of 15 that it had not found sufficient evidence to justify the allegation that Mark Wild had been given money corruptly by John McBride to pull out as a leader of the Debs men during the Hocking Valley strike. McBride said this was equivalent to a Scotch verdict, and the report was recommitted with instructions to the committee to make an effort to settle the matter definitely one way or the other.

Injunction to Prevent Collection of Income Tax Refused.

restrain Internal Revenue Commissioner Miller from proceeding to collect the income tax from the complainant. Counsel for Moore immediately noted an appeal to the United States supreme court, and the matter will probably be brought to the attention of the court of last resort after it convenes next month.
