BRIEF MENTION.

Leaves From the Notebook of Chronicle Reporters.

The Redmen are gathering in lots of new members, and the local lodge is getting too large for its hall.

Mr. Radicka is having a building put up next to Phelps' implement store. It will be used as a barbershop and real estate office.

Mrs. Covington is having her lots on Third street graded and put in condition for a handsome residence, work on which will be begun in a short time.

Walter O'Dell, a sheepman, fell off the sidewalk yesterday evening, near the East End restaurant and broke his right leg near the ankle. Dr. Hollister reduced the fracture.

The Dalles city charter as amended and sent to the legislature passed both houses and received the signature of the governor, Thursday. May it prove an acceptable valentine.

The rain early this morning was as warm and abundant as though it belonged to spring. It was not a modest, backward drizzle such as winter furnishes, but an impulsive downpour.

Elder J. H. Miller, the pastor of Calvary Church, and editor of the Baptist Sentinel, arrived here yesterday. He will preach at their meeting house (the old electric light house) tomorrow morning and evening.

The steamer Regulator will make the first trip of the year to the Cascade Locks and return Monday, leaving her wharf at 8 o'clock. The first regular trip in connection with the Dalles City will be made Wednesday.

Sheriff Driver will take the prisoners, Moore and Williams, convicted of burglarizing Leavens & Cates' store at the Locks, to Salem Monday. This sentence will just let them out in time to demand a clerkship in the next session of the legislature.

The situation at Salem today is unchanged as far as Dolph is concerned, he holding his 42. The anti-Dolphites, however, served notice by their votes that they were ready at any time to unite on almost any good republican except Dolph. Lowell was also given to understand that he was not in it, which of course everybody but he knew all the time. The vote was as follows: Dolph 35, Hare 10, Williams 24, Raley 6, Weatherford 1, absent 14.

A dispatch from Scranton, Penn., yesterday announces the death of Judge Handley of that city. He was the brother of Major Handley, late of this city, and was very wealthy. Several years ago he made a will, leaving all his property to Eddie Handley, his nephew, but the latter dying soon afterwards, the will was, of course, of no effect. He leaves no relatives, unless in the sixth or seventh degree, and it is quite probable that the dividing of his estate, valued at $8,000,000, will cause considerable litigation.

Real Estate Transactions.

The following deeds were filed for record yesterday afternoon and today: T. C. Dallas to Robt Mays and L. E. Crowe, lot 5, block C, first addition west to town of Hood River; $350.

Peter Omeg to Emma Omeg, sw 1/4, ne 1/4 and se 1/4, nw 1/4, sec 14, tp 1 s, r 12 e; $1.

United States to Jason M. Wakefield, sw 1/4 and se 1/4, sec 23, tp 1 s, r 15 e; patent.

United States to Wm Buskirk, s 1/2, ne 1/4 and w 1/2, se 1/4, sec 24, tp 1 n, r 8 e; patent.

Notice.

The steamer Regulator will make a trip to Cascades on Monday, the 18th inst., and will carry freight and passengers. On Wednesday, the 20th inst., the Dalles City will leave Portland and the Regulator will leave The Dalles, making through connection on usual time. Freight will be received at the wharf on the 19th inst.

A Dangerous Grade.

The accident to Abe Foley's team on the Haynes hill last week, ought to show our authorities the necessity of placing a strong railing along the dangerous points on the grade, the same as has been done on the grade on the east side of the Hood river bridge. The accident that happened to E. D. Calkins about three years ago, when his horse and wagon went over the bluff on the head of the grade, caused a railing to be put up at the point; but other dangerous points remain unprotected. By the way, Mr. Calkins never received a cent from the county for the loss of the wagon and the crippling of his horse.—Glacier.

The accident mentioned as happening to Calkins was a peculiar one in its results. Mr. Calkins, who is a cripple, having left one of his legs on a southern battlefield, was coming up the grade in a one-horse hack, his wife being with him. Just at the head of the grade the horse became frightened and commenced to back. Mrs. Calkins jumped out, and catching Mr. Calkins as he was attempting to get out, pulled him over the wheel just as the hind wheels of the wagon went over the bluff. The horse made a surge backwards, and over the whole outfit went, wagon first, falling a distance of forty feet. The wagon was wrecked and the horse rolled on down the hill, getting clear of the wreck, for a distance of 150 feet further, and only stopped from coming in contact with a fir tree. With the assistance of some of the people living at the planer, the horse was got down to the bottom of the bluff, and although badly bruised, was soon in condition to be used. The grade at that point was fired afterwards by having a heavy railing built; but, as the Glacier says, Calkins lost his wagon and had a mighty close call for his life.
