Comment of English Editors.

LONDON, Feb. 16.—The Statist, commenting on the new gold loan, says: "Three and one-half per cent bonds are a good investment, and will be eagerly sought, but they will not end the crisis. Gold will go to a premium, but the United States will pay its creditors gold, though its domestic currency is silver, the same as Russia and India pay gold."

The Economist says it is absurd to pretend that the United States is under obligations to pay gold. The case, the paper says, is identical with that of India, which, if it elects a gold loan, can borrow at a less rate than 3 per cent, but has to pay an additional 1 per cent for a rupee loan.

She Removes Her Hat.

EDITOR CHRONICLE—Had not the editor of THE CHRONICLE evidently misunderstood the writer in an article published in the Tribune anent the theater hat, and were not this a subject upon which I have always favored a reform, I would not ask the privilege of correcting the statement through the columns of your paper. Personally I never attend a theater without removing my hat, as I consider this a courtesy due the audience and the management. I wish to quote the words of the article, to which reference has been made, not that its misinterpretation is at all serious, but for the more important reason that I desire to do all in my power to abolish a selfish and vain habit which is characteristic of the thoughtless woman.

The quotation follows: "Resolved, That the wearing of a theater hat is a nuisance, is a subject undebatable. Every one is on the same side of the question, for in truth it has but one side. The big theater hat is a nuisance, and always has been. Theater-goers of Missouri, Illinois, Indiana and New York have introduced bills into their state legislatures making it a misdemeanor for women attending the theater to wear high hats. Although these people have the sympathy of all other theater goers, nevertheless they are working on the wrong track. It is remembered that legislatures have endeavored in the past to enforce laws against the wearing of mother hubbards and the appearance of ballet girls in tights, and all without effect. The only way to fight the big hat nuisance is to enlist the woman in the warfare. Until women are willing to recognize that it is merely an act of selfishness and a disregard for others' comfort, to do that which discommodates people without personal gain, and especially after so many objections have been raised on the subject, until then, theaters will resemble millinery openings and general discomfort will increase. Any unselfish woman of good sense will remove her hat in order to add to the pleasures of others, rather than allow her vanity to interfere with her neighbor's comfort."

Marvelous results. From a letter written by Rev. J. Gunderman, of Dimondale, Mich., we are permitted to make this extract: "I have no hesitation in recommending Dr. King's New Discovery, as the results were almost marvelous in the case of my wife. While I was pastor of the Baptist Church at Rivers junction she was brought down with Pneumonia succeeding La Grippe. Terrible paroxysms of coughing would last hours with little interruption and it seemed as if she could not survive them. A friend recommended Dr. King's New Discovery; it was quick in its work and highly satisfactory in results." Trial bottles free at Snipes-Kinnersly Drug Co's Store. Regular size 50c. and $1.00.

A Racking Cough

Cured by Ayer's Cherry Pectoral. Mrs. P. D. HALL, 217 Genessee St., Lockport, N. Y., says:

"Over thirty years ago, I remember hearing my father describe the wonderful curative effects of Ayer's Cherry Pectoral. During a recent attack of La Grippe, which assumed the form of a catarrh, soreness of the lungs, accompanied by an aggravating cough, I used various remedies and prescriptions. While some of these medicines partially alleviated the coughing during the day, none of them afforded me any relief from that spasmodic action of the lungs which would seize me the moment I attempted to lie down at night. After ten or twelve such nights, I was Nearly in Despair, and had about decided to sit up all night in my easy chair, and procure what sleep I could in that way. It then occurred to me that I had a bottle of Ayer's Cherry Pectoral. I took a spoonful of this preparation in a little water, and was able to lie down without coughing. In a few moments, I fell asleep, and awoke in the morning greatly refreshed and feeling much better. I took a second spoonful of the Pectoral every night for a week, then gradually decreased the dose, and in two weeks my cough was cured."

"Bacteria do not occur in the blood or in the tissues of a healthy living body, either of man or the lower animals." So says the celebrated Dr. Koch. Other doctors say that the best medicine to render the blood perfectly pure and healthy is Ayer's Sarsaparilla.

It is not a miracle. It won't cure everything, but it will cure piles. That's what De Witt's Witch Hazel Salve will do, because it has done it in hundreds of cases. Snipes-Kinnersly Drug Co.
