BRIEF MENTION.

Leaves From the Notebook of Chronicle Reporters.

The Knight's of Pythias of Arlington will give a grand masquerade ball to-night.

Mrs. Smith, the present missionary, will speak in the Salvation Army hall tonight.

There will be no dance given by the Union Club this week. This notice is published by order of the committee.

Mr. Eugene Gordon wishes to sell his household furniture, carpets, cooking utensils, etc. This is a rare opportunity to secure a bargain. Inquire at Pease & Mays.

The masquerade ball to be given on February 22nd will be under the auspices of the Woodmen, the Workmen withdrawing on account of the death of L. Newman.

The ladies of the M. E. church, assisted by their musical friends, have in preparation a concert, to be given the first week in March. The best talent in the city will take part.

The Jacobsen Book & Music Company filed articles of incorporation yesterday. The amount of the capital stock is $5000, principal place of business The Dalles and duration unlimited.

Don't forget that the Regulator pulls out in the morning at 7 o'clock to begin her regular season's run. Connection will be made with the Dalles City and the run to Portland will be made in quick time.

The regular quarterly examination in the public schools of this district will be held Thursday in all except the Court street school, in which the examination will be held Friday. This is caused by the accident to the heater which compelled the closing of the Court street school Monday.

Mr. W. C. Alloway arrived home from Portland last night. He tells us the Dalles City was successfully launched yesterday and is in fine trim for the season's run. Both steamers have been thoroughly overhauled, repainted, refurnished, provided with new carpets, etc., and are in better condition than ever.

Deputy Collector of Internal Revenue Mims came down from Pendleton yesterday to distribute blanks and take the preliminary steps towards collecting the income tax that may be found due in this neighborhood. We do not anticipate that it will take him long to discover all those whose incomes are $3500 per annum, or over, and that the list can be carried very easily in his watch.

The Salvation Army invaded the jail this morning and conducted services therein. As Otis Savage was the only person in the jail, he received enough for a whole hall full of sinners. We have the utmost respect for religion, but must confess that the spectacular variety of it does not increase our veneration. If that was part of Savage's sentence, it is all right, but if not he ought to be allowed a rebate.

From parties who visited the locks yesterday we learn that the work there is being pushed very fast, and any one who has kept any watch of the progress of the work is convinced that if the contractors are not hampered in any way, that boats will pass through the canal before Christmas, and if the high water is not of long duration, probably in November. The gates are being put in place, and a large force of men are employed at that work.

Down near Irving in the Willamette valley a day or so ago, three men were plowing, and one of them turned up a nest with a squirrel in it. He stopped his team and gave chase to the squirrel. His companions stopped their teams and joined in the chase over the plowed ground. Then one of the teams got frightened and ran away, and that scared the other teams and soon all three of them were flying over the field. After considerable damage was done the teams were caught and the plowing was proceeded with. The squirrel was killed.

Real Estate Transactions.

The following deeds were filed for record yesterday and today:

Thomas W. Nooney and James M. Nooney and Katie Nooney to Anna C. Stubling, lots K and L, in block 46, Fort Dalles military addition to Dalles City; $150.

Leslie Butler and J. F. Armour, administrators of the estate of Henry A. Pratt, deceased, to Mary J. Wingate, lot 5, in block 2, Trevitt's addition to Dalles City; $1000.

United States to Elizabeth Nooney, lots K and L, block 46, Fort Dalles military reservation; patent.

The Circuit Court.

The following business was transacted in the circuit court today:

Peter Omeg vs Emma Omeg, referee filed report and decrees granted.

Chas. E. Gill vs. T. J. Watson et al, default and decree.

Eugene D. White vs. C. P. Heald et al, receiver ordered to make report by Saturday.

Wanted.

Three girls as apprentices at dress making. Apply to Mrs. Forwood, on Court between Second and Third upstairs. The Kellogg system of cutting used and taught.

Death of L. Newman.

This morning Mr. L. Newman, who usually goes down to his store at quite an early hour, on account of having a bakery connected therewith, failed to make his appearance as usual, and a messenger was sent to the house for him. The door of the bedroom was locked, and getting no response to their repeated calls, his family became alarmed and City Marshal Blakeney was sent for, who procured a ladder and gained entrance to the room through the window. Mr. Newman was found in bed in an unconscious condition. Dr. Logan was called in, and did everything possible for the stricken man, but without avail, and at 11 o'clock, without having regained consciousness, his spirit passed away.

Mr. Newman was an old resident of The Dalles, having come here in 1859 or 1860, and has been in business almost continuously since that time. Mr. Newman was a remarkably well-informed man, and the writer calls to mind many a pleasant and instructive conversation had with him, especially concerning his experience as a merchant in Russia and Siberia. He was known by nearly every resident of Wasco county, and he commanded the respect and earned the esteem of all who knew him. He was a member of Temple lodge, A. O. U. W., of this city, and one of the oldest members of the lodge.

Mr. Newman was about 65 years of age, and the cause of his death was apoplexy. Besides his bereaved wife, he leaves two sons and two daughters to mourn his loss.

The funeral will take place Sunday.

Temple Entertainment.

Harmon Temple, No. 4, will give its annual entertainment on Tuesday evening, the 26th. Among the many interesting features of the program will be a military drill by a class of young ladies, under the management of Mr. J. M. Patterson, and last, but not least, will be the good night drill by an infant class, under the management of Miss Louise Ruch. Admission—All over 12 years, 15 cents; under 12, 10 cents. A cordial invitation to everybody.

Mrs. J. E. Barnett, S. J. T. EDITH RANDALL, Asst. S. J. T.

Certificates Granted.
