BRIEF MENTION.

Leaves From the Notebook of Chronicle Reporters.

The Western Union is having new poles put up through the city, and they are fine ones too.

The special meetings, which have been carried on for the past month in the M. E. church, closed last night.

This has been a perfect spring day, one that would make good old father George glad he was alive, if he was alive, to celebrate his birthday.

The literary society will meet this evening at 7:30 o'clock in the Congregational church. Members will please notice the hour of meeting, and endeavor to be present promptly at 7:30.

The Knights of Pythias masquerade at Arlington, the night of the 19th, was largely attended and was a decided success. Quite a number went up from this city to attend it.

The Daughters of the Revolution are holding a continental congress in Washington. These ladies must be getting quite antiquated and yet we did not see Susan B. Anthony's name in the list.

This being a legal holiday, although not a non-judicial day, but little if any business is being transacted in or about the courthouse. The great American flag was on top there today, a thing of beauty and a joy forever.

Postmaster Crossen stood manfully at his post until after 1 o'clock today, oblivious of the fact that it was a legal holiday. Strange how long it does take a democrat to catch on to any knowledge that has to be gained by reading. Isn't it?

Owing to it being a holiday the telegraph office was not open this afternoon, so that the only news came by telephone. We did not get the full vote in detail, but Dolph lost two more votes and Williams did not gain any. Patterson of Marion left Dolph and voted for Lord, and Mintie of Clackamas left Dolph and voted for Fulton.

The masquerade tonight is going to attract the largest crowd ever gathered on a like occasion in this city, for those who do not go in character will attend for the purpose of watching those who do. There will be some very handsome costumes, and there will be lots of them.

Don't forget that the grand march commences at 8:30 o'clock and not a moment later.

The Astoria delegation have made a hard fight to pass a law prohibiting the catching of salmon by wheels. Wednesday the whole collection of fish bills were indefinitely postponed, but yesterday by some means Curtis got one of these anti-fish-wheel bills up and had it passed through the house. It is not probable it will get through the senate, but if it should the governor, if he is at all just, would not sign it.

The Salem Statesman today comes out strongly for Lord for senator, but says while it is for Lord first, it is for any good republican rather than that no election should take place. This is the view of every sensible republican in the state. It is certain that Dolph cannot be elected unless he is elected by democratic or populist votes, and there is not much danger of that, as he is a red rag for the wild members of both those parties.

Mr. Parrot is over from Goldendale. He is trying to be a father to a flying machine, and we hope that like the great state of Oregon it will volat alis propriis. Mr. Parrot is confident that his machine will fly and has promised us a cabin passage to Goldendale and return as soon as he gets his machine perfected. Someone has said that the great trouble with flying machines is that they all have a defective flew, and that seems to be the size of it.

They Get Off.

Governor Lord made the following appointments yesterday:

Regents of the state agricultural college—W E Yates of Corvallis, H B Miller of Grant Pass, Benton Killin of Portland. Regents of the state university—A Bush of Salem, S P Sturgies of Pendleton, S H Friendly of Eugene. Regents of Menmouth normal school—Benjamin Schofield, A Noltner and O F Paxton of Portland. Regent Weston state normal school—W G Lyon of Helix. Brigadier-general Oregon National Guard—Charles F. Beebe of Portland. Trustees Oregon Soldiers' Home—S B Ormsby of Argenti, B F Alley of Florence, William Galloway of McMinnville, John P Robertson of Salem, Henry Rust of Baker City.

When Baby was sick, we gave her Castoria. When she was a Child, she cried for Castoria. When she became Miss, she clung to Castoria. When she had Children, she gave them Castoria.

Mr. Fred G. Wonder will arrive from Portland Wednesday and will have a fine selection of masquerade costumes, which may be seen at Prinz & Nitschke's Thursday and Friday. Call early and take your choice.

Karl's Clover Root will purify your Blood, clear your Complexion, regulate your Bowels and make your head clear as a bell. 25c., 50c., and $1.00.

PERSONAL MENTION.

Mrs. J. H. Mosier is in the city.

T. L. Masters was over from Goldendale yesterday.

Mr. L. E. Morse, Hood River's postmaster is in the city.

Mr. John Lewis, after a few days' visit here, returned to Portland this afternoon.

Mr. David Newman arrived today from Southern California, coming on account of the death of his father.

Mr. Jos. Freiman, formerly of this city, came up from Portland yesterday to attend the funeral of Mr. Newman.

Miss Maie Williams returned to Portland on the afternoon train, accompanied by Miss Marden, who will spend a week or two with her.

Mr. Andrew Dufur, mayor of the city of that name, was in The Dalles today, he tells us the roads are in very bad condition, he being four hours in coming in yesterday; but that a weeks good weather will make them all right.

MARRIED.

In Chicago, Saturday, February 16, 1895, Mr. C. J. Pease of Chicago, and Miss E. Maud French of this city.

The bride was one of The Dalles sweetest and most charming young ladies, and the young gentleman who won her heart is indeed fortunate. The poet Hood in the poem "Fair Inez" expressed the sentiment that all who knew the bride will feel, on learning of her marriage to the "stranger from the East," and did it so gracefully and so fully that it seems but plagiarism to say anything at all. Just read that little poem and see if we are not right.

Temple Entertainment.

Harmon Temple, No. 4, will give its annual entertainment on Tuesday evening, the 26th. Among the many interesting features of the program will be a military drill by a class of young ladies, under the management of Mr. J. M. Patterson, and last, but not least, will be the good night drill by an infant class, under the management of Miss Louise Rach. Admission—All over 12 years, 15 cents; under 12, 10 cents. A cordial invitation to everybody.

Mrs. J. E. BARNETT, S. J. T. EDITH RANDALL, Asst. S. J. T.
