LEFT THEIR TRACES

Stormy Scenes in the Senate Last Night.

THE PRINCIPALS EARLY ON HAND

Immediate Consideration Objected to—Amendments to Sundry Civil Bill Disagreed to by the House.

WASHINGTON, March 1.—The demonstrations in the senate chamber last night left their traces on the proceedings today. Senators in groups discussed the dramatic scenes of the night. The three chief figures in last night's conflict—Chandler, Hill and Martin—were early in their seats. Several of the veteran democratic leaders, Harris, Gorman and others, conferred as to what could be done without jeopardizing the passage of the appropriation bills.

On the surface, the senate business was proceeded with the usual serenity. The land bill, providing for the extension until January 18, 1897, of the time within which entries might be made on certain lands, was discussed at length and passed.

Morgan, chairman of the committee on foreign relations, and one of the United States members of the Behring sea commission, offered a resolution concerning payments for the Behring sea seizures, which directed reference to our foreign relations. Morgan said an inquiry was most desirable for the vindication of the United States. Turpie objected to the immediate consideration of the resolution, and it went over.

Amendments to Sundry Civil Bill Disagreed to.

WASHINGTON, March 1.—When the house met today 50 members with uplifted arms were clamoring for recognition, but all requests for unanimous consent were cut off by the presentation of the conference report on fortifications appropriation bill, which was agreed to. The senate amendments to the sundry civil bill were disagreed to and it was sent to conference under a suspension of the rules. The legislative, executive and judicial bills were also sent to conference.

Storr's bill amending the interstate commerce act, and which the opponents of the pooling bill claimed was a scheme of the senate to tack on the pooling bill in conference, was voted on in the house, the vote standing 127 for to 80 against. This indicates the failure of the bill, as 33 less than the necessary two-thirds voted for.

Meeting of Bimetallists May Result in Its Formation.

WASHINGTON, March 1.—The secret meeting of the executive committee of the bimetallic league, which has been in progress for nearly two weeks, may be continued until after the adjournment of congress. During this week the conference has been swelled by the presence of members of both houses. Few republicans have taken part in the discussion and the representation has been confined mostly to democrats and populists. Prominent democrats say the probable result of the meeting will be a declaration looking to a new party. Plans have not been fully settled upon, but that seems to be the desire of most of the old war horses. They advocate independent action on the silver question and will compel no man to put aside his convictions upon any other issue.

An Indian Goes Half a Year Without Sleep.

ELWOOD, Ind., March 1.—David Jones, a wealthy farmer residing near here, failed on the night of September 23d last, and from that time on could not get any rest. He lost a few pounds of flesh, but was able to continue work. Noted medical men vainly tried to afford him relief. Last Friday he began to feel drowsy, and that night slept half an hour. He has since been sleeping a little each night, and it is thought that he will soon be all right again. He went 152 days and nights without sleep. Three years ago he went ninety days and nights. He has lost only ten pounds during the long sleepless period now apparently at an end.

With Intent to Defraud.

St. Louis, Mo., March 1.—Kirby L. May, a shabby looking fellow, has been arrested by Postoffice Inspector Paul R. Williams, on a charge of using the mails to defraud. When arraigned before United States Commissioner Gray, he was bound over to the federal grand jury.

Out of work and money in St. Louis, he conceived the idea of representing himself as a young girl anxious to marry, and by answering a dozen or more advertisements, inserted in a local publication, he agreed to come to each of the correspondents and wed him if he would only send about $15 to pay his transportation. Many were caught. May started out by signing himself Miss Olive May; then he switched off to Miss Cora May, and finally dropped into Cora K. Hammer.

Inspector Williams investigated May's pranks thoroughly and has found that the following men have victimized by the bogus 18-years-old girl: J. F. Lee, of Santa Clara, Cal.; Harry Schreg, of Whitney, Ind.; C. T. Peterson, of Wilsonville, Or.; T. E. Lutbery, of Townsend, Mont.; W. G. Edwards, of Griswold, Conn.; A. E. Allen, of Convent, La.; Dexter Elkins, of Sherman, Kan.; Stephen Armbruster, of Berry, Wash.; Thomas Burns, of Pasadena, Cal.; H. O. Struce, of Antioch, and Henry Rupp, of Uriah, Cumberland county, Pa. Rupp was so taken with the loving letters that he sent his picture.

To Engage in Coast Trade.

SAN FRANCISCO, March 1.—The steamer Willamette is preparing to join the Portland in the coast trade along the Pacific side of the Central American republics. She has been chartered by the Pacific Mail Steamship Company. She will call at many of the small ports, picking up little consignments of produce and carrying them to larger ports, where regular coast steamers plying between Panama and San Francisco call.

The Pacific Mail steamship people have heretofore neglected small ports south of Mazatlán, with the result that an opposition line of steamers, backed by promises of support from planters of Central America, was being organized to run from Puget sound south ports to Panama, with the purpose of paying particular attention to business of small ports. It is thought that it was the danger of this opposition that forced the Pacific Mail Company to improve its local service between the small ports of the Southern republics.

Force of 2000 Spanish Troops Reported Defeated.

ST. LOUIS, March 1.—A special telegram from Havana says the insurgents have defeated a force of 2000 Spanish troops, but no details are given.

It is reported that Vicente Garcia, a brother of Manuel Garcia, was also killed in the engagement near Agua Calil. Another battalion of government troops has left Havana for the East, and many encounters are reported in Matanzas. One thousand trained men have left Havana in the last 90 days, a few at a time, so as to disarm suspicion.

Several former Cuban chieftains, among them the insurgent band led by Marrero near Jague y Granda, in the province of Matanzas, have been dispersed by the regular troops.

New Cruisers Necessary.

BERLIN, March 1.—In the debate on the naval budget in the reichstag today, Chancellor von Hohenlohe declared that the proposed increase of the number of cruisers was necessary for the protection of German commerce. "We will not create a great navy," he continued, "but will merely preserve what we have. My dreams have been aimed at a great

Symptoms of kidney troubles should be promptly attended to; they are nature's warnings that something is wrong. Many persons die victims of kidney diseases who could have been saved had they taken proper precautions. The prompt use of Dr. J. H. McLean's Liver & Kidney Balm has saved thousands of valuable lives. If you have any derangement of the kidneys try it. Price $1.00 per bottle. Sold by Snipes & Kineraly, druggists.

Fatal French Duel.

PARIS, March 1.—M. Percher, one of the editors of the Journal Des Debats, was killed in a duel with swords this morning by M. le Chevaliere, an officer of marines. The duel was the result of personal difficulty. At the first of the encounter Le Chevaliere's sword broke through Percher's guard and pierced his right lung.

Exposure to rough weather, dampness, extreme cold, etc., is apt to bring on an attack of rheumatism or neuralgia; chapped hands and face, cracked lips and violent itching of the skin also owe their origin to cold weather. Dr. McLean's Volcanic Oil Liniment should be kept on hand at all times for immediate application when troubles of this nature appear. It is a sovereign remedy. 25c, 50c and $1.00 per bottle.

Decrease in the Surplus.

HALIFAX, N. S., March 1.—The finances of the colony show an estimated surplus for the year of £38,000, a decrease of £21,820 as compared with the previous year. The difference is charged to the condition created by the abolishing of the reciprocity clause in the United States tariff law.

Many stubborn and aggravating cases of rheumatism that were believed to be incurable and accepted as life legacies, have yielded to Chamberlain's Pain Balm, much to the surprise and gratification of the sufferers. One application will relieve the pain and suffering and its continued use insures an effectual cure. For sale by Blakeley & Houghton Druggists.

Killed in a Duel.

PARIS, March 1.—M. Percher, a war correspondent known as Harry Alis, was killed in a duel today by Commandant Lechatellier, of the marine barracks. The men fought with swords.

Mrs. Emily Thorne, who resides at Toledo, Washington, says she has never been able to procure any medicine for rheumatism that relieves the pain so quickly and effectually as Chamberlain's Pain Balm and that she has also used it for a lame back with great success. For sale by Blakeley & Houghton Druggists.
