CONGRESS ADJOURNED.

The fifty-third congress came to an end at noon today, and it came to the end the people have been waiting for too. At the same time the second and final presidential term of Grover Cleveland reaches its halfway post. These are two events long hoped for, and noted with proper thankfulness. The congress was elected for the purpose of rebuking the billion dollar republican body that it succeeded, yet notwithstanding its economic ideas and pretensions, it is the most expensive congress that ever met. One billion dollars will not meet the bills made, or to be made, and this too in spite of over one hundred million dollars in gold borrowed to keep up the reserve.

However, the fifty-third congress is a thing of the past, and history will do it ample justice. It found the country prosperous and contented, and it left it distressed and dissatisfied. It will be a number of years before the democracy gets in power again, and it will not be until in the fulness of prosperity the days of our adversity and the lessons taught by them are forgotten.

It is a close race latterly between the renaissance of Napoleon and the resurrection of Tom Paine for first place in the magazines and newspapers. Time is wearing away the rough edges of the character of both, and Napoleon is now held up before the public gaze as a much maligned man, a mild-mannered Christian gentleman, with a heart as tender as a girl's; while Paine is changed from the acute black he has heretofore been painted to a very light drab. A little more Napoleon and a little more Paine will show on the subscription lists of those papers that are devoting so much space to those superlatively dead people. The reading public has to draw the line somewhere, and when the magazines go to showing photographs of two skulls of Napoleon, one after his remains were brought back from St. Helena, and the other when he was a little boy it is time to draw it.

There are rumors of war in Portland, the fight being between the Simon faction and Mayor. The latter got angry at the former for fancied slights, for unwarranted dictation, and inexcusable treachery. It is said that every officer who is friendly to Simon will be chopped off at the pockets, and that this chopping process will extend even to the chief of police. There is, no doubt, some foundation for these rumors, and the Simon men are decidedly uneasy. This has been an off year for "Little Joe," but then that picture of his printed in the Portland Sun and afterwards used by Palmer & Rey, in all their patent "outsides" of the state, would hoodoo a bigger man than Joe.

As the warm sunshine pours down today, and one sees in all the yards the green grass and budding plants, while violets and daisies uplift their pretty little faces, it does not seem possible that only a week or two ago the orange trees of Florida were killed by the cold, or that people were frozen to death in Louisiana. Indeed the spring is further advanced now in Oregon than it is in the Southern states, and the winter has not been more severe. When it comes to climate the year through, we will back Oregon against any country in the world, not even excepting the much-lauded skies and balmy breezes of Italy or Cathay.

The Oregonian quotes a Salem politician as saying that Governor Lord will soon appoint Andrew Gilbert, ex-postmaster at Salem, to the office of superintendent of the penitentiary, and that either Captain B. B. Tuttle or Captain Harry Wells will be appointed adjutant general. As Marion county already has the governor, the selection of Mr. Gilbert does not seem a good one, and with Multnomah represented by the brigadier-general, it would only be proper that the adjutant general should be chosen from some other locality. Besides, Multnomah county has Sheriff Sears and Henry McGinn, and should not demand the earth.

The latest news from Hawaii is to the effect that President Dole has commuted the sentences of the rebels who were tried recently and condemned to death. The sentences of the leaders as reduced are thirty-five and thirty years imprisonment, and $10,000 fine; and those of the others range from five years to thirty. It is stated that the ex-queen will be sent to jail for five years, but it is thought she will be pardoned.

Miss Anna Gould was married today to the Count de Castellane. Thus did the daughter of our most noble "robber baron" purchase a title and proud position for herself, as the countess of a no account count. Miss Gould was the chromo and in order to get the gilt frame, the picture had to be purchased also.

An Observation Car.

Commencing April 1st the O. R. & N. will run an "observation" car between this place and Portland on the local trains. The car will be open on all sides, affording an uninterrupted view of the incomparable scenery of the river and the mountains. If this is properly advertised it should cause all tourists to stop off here from the morning train and take advantage of the opportunity. The scenery of the Columbia gorge has never been appreciated by the tourists because, passing it in the night, few if any, are aware of its beauties. When once its grandeur is appreciated by the travelling public, it will prove quite a drawing card for this route. We have always wondered why the Union Pacific neglected to properly advertise the scenic beauties of this route, and are gratified to know that Mr. McNeill intends to make its attractions known.

Great Oaks

From little acorns grow, so also do fatal diseases spring from small beginnings. Never neglect symptoms of kidney troubles; if allowed to develop they cause much suffering and sorrow. Dr. S. H. McLean's Liver and Kidney Balm is a certain cure for any disease or weakness of the kidneys. A trial will convince you of its great potency. Price $1.00 per bottle. Sold by Snipes-Kinersly Drug Co.

Headache is the direct result of indigestion and stomach disorders. Remedy these by using De Witt's Little Early Risers, and your headache disappears. The favorite little pills everywhere. Snipes-Kinersly Drug Co.

"Bacteria do not occur in the blood or in the tissues of a healthy living body, either of man or the lower animals." So says the celebrated Dr. Koch. Other doctors say that the best medicine to render the blood perfectly pure and healthy is Ayer's Sarsaparilla.

Lost—A small gold chain of three strands, the center one very small. Think it was lost on Washington street, near the Methodist church. Finder will confer a favor by leaving it at this office.

Mamma—I hope you behaved like a little lady while Mrs. Hightone was trying to entertain you? Small daughter—Yes'm. I put my hands over my mouth every time I yawned.—Street Smith's Good News.

Sugar Cured Hams, 11 cents per lb.; Boneless Hams, 9 cents per lb.; 5lb Pail Lard, 50 cents; 10lb Pail Lard, 95 cents, at Columbia Packing Co.'s.

Papa—Never play a trump when you can follow suit, Susie. Susie—The idea! How unkind of you papa! I rather think I've played cards long enough to know that. What is the old tramp, anyway?—Truth.

J. M. Huntington & Co. have moved their abstract and insurance office into the rooms formerly occupied by Huntington & Wilson, next to Dr. Logan's office.

Wood! Wood!

We have yet on hand a complete stock of Dry Fir, Oak and Maple Cordwood, which will be sold at minimum prices. feb27.

O. W. O. Hardman, Sheriff of Tyler Co., W. Va., appreciates a good thing and does not hesitate to say so. He was almost prostrated with a cold when he procured a bottle of Chamberlain's Cough Remedy. He says: "It gave me prompt relief. I find it to be an invaluable remedy for coughs and colds." For sale by Blakeley & Houghton, Druggists.

Don't neglect that cough, it leads to consumption. One Minute Cough Cure possesses a double virtue. It cures and cures quickly. Snipes-Kinersly Drug Co.

"There's one good thing to be said about Tomkins. He is perfectly truthful." "Of course he is. He is too stingy to make an extravagant statement."—Iowa Fall's Citizen.

"Only the Scars Remain,"

Says HENRY HUDSON, of the James Smith Woolen Machinery Co., Philadelphia, Pa., who certifies as follows:

"Among the many testimonials which I see in regard to certain medicines performing cures, cleansing the blood, etc., none impress me more than my own case. Twenty years ago, at the age of 18 years, I had swellings come on my legs, which broke and became running sores. Our family physician could do me no good, and it was feared that the bones would be affected. At last, my good old to try Ayer's Sarsaparilla. I took three bottles, the sores healed, and I have not been troubled since. Only the scars remain, and the memory of the past, to remind me of the good Ayer's Sarsaparilla has done me. I now weigh two hundred and twenty pounds, and am in the best of health. I have been on the road for the past twelve years, have noticed Ayer's Sarsaparilla advertised in all parts of the United States, and always take pleasure in telling what good it did for me."

Mother Urged Me
