ADJOURNED SINE DIE

The Fifty-Third Congress a Thing of the Past.

CLOSING DAY OF THE SESSION

Naval and Deficiency Appropriation Bills Signed and Sent to the President, Who Also Signed Them.

WASHINGTON, March 4.—Noon.—The 53d congress adjourned sine die. The clock was not turned back and both houses came to a close simultaneously.

But Little Business Transacted by Congress This Morning.

WASHINGTON, March 4.—In the senate today Dubois offered a resolution amending the rules so as to provide for the distribution of appropriation bills among several committees of the senate, instead of confining them, as now to the committee on appropriations. He asked its present consideration. Aldrich objected, and Dubois gave notice that he would call up the resolution on the first Monday of the next congress.

The senate at 4:05 a. m. took recess until 9 o'clock, with the understanding that no business should be transacted until 11 o'clock, except in connection with conference reports.

WASHINGTON, March 4.—When the recess ended the doors were opened for business, the chamber presented a forlorn, deserted appearance. The vice-president was in his seat, but there were not more than half a dozen senators present.

At 9:30 the chief clerk of the house appeared and announced that the speaker had signed the naval bill, and he delivered it to the senate for the signature of the vice-president. It was immediately signed and returned to the house, and from there carried to the White House for the signature of the president.

Call tried to get up his Honduras lottery bill, but he was reminded by Harris that under the agreement, no business but the signing of bills and considering of conference reports was in order. An amusing controversy between Call and Harris followed as to what the senate would not do. It was closed by Harris with the remark that he had no hope of the senate ever doing what Call wanted.

The deficiency appropriation bill was then received and signed by the vice-president. This was the last of the appropriation bills and all great measures for carrying on government were either at the executive mansion or on their way there.

At 10:15 Voorhees offered a resolution, which was adopted for the appointment of a joint committee of the two houses to wait upon the president of the United States and inform him that congress was ready to adjourn. The vice president named Voorhees and Sherman as senate members of the committee.

Gray of Delaware, asked unanimous consent to take up the bill already passed by the house concerning the Behring sea regulations, which he said were essential to the preservation of fur seals. Morgan of Alabama, chairman of the committee on foreign relations, objected. This ended the chances of the bill.

Another phrase of the same subject came up when Morgan asked the adoption of the pending agreement directing the foreign relations committee to inquire into the claims of Canadian sealers for the seizure of vessels. This time it was Gray's turn to object.

Morgan made a pointed statement of the injustice and extravagance of the British demands. He said the president and secretary of state had urged the payment of $425,000, although the claim was unjustifiable.

Gray pressed his objection. He said

Morgan evidently feared the pending legislation on the subject was a reflection on the Paris tribunal, of which he was a distinguished member.

Morrill presented a resolution thanking the vice-president for his ability, dignity and impartiality. It was unanimously adopted.

At 11:30 Call was again to the front with his lottery investigation, declaring vehemently that Gorman was seeking to suppress the inquiry desired by the religious element of the community. He demanded a ye and nay vote on taking up the resolution. To the surprise of every one, including Call, the resolution was taken up, 35 to 18. For a moment it was believed the resolution was adopted and the presiding officer so announced. A final vote was interrupted by other pressing business.

At 12 minutes to 12 the last enrolled bill was reported to the senate as signed by the vice-president, but it seemed impossible to get the executive signature on time.

Call vehemently insisted on a final vote on his Florida resolution. Aldrich declared that a special committee, if appointed, would be for political purposes alone. He moved as an amendment that the committee on judiciary make the investigation. Call excitedly denounced the statement of Aldrich concerning the political purposes inquiry.

At this moment Voorhees and Sherman, the senate committee to wait on the president, appeared and announced that the president had no further communication to make.

The vice-president announced Cockrell, Davis, Daniel, Gordon, Quay and Sherman as the senatorial committee to take part in the dedication of the Chickamauga National Park.

The vice-president rose at 11:53 and briefly expressed his thanks to the senate for its courtesy to him, and to the officers of the senate for their fidelity. Then he brought the gavel down sharply and declared the session at an end.

A Foundryman's Invention.

SPRINGFIELD, O., March 5.—The invention by George Harley, a foundryman of a process for making malleable iron of excellent quality direct from moulds, has been proved a success at tests made here. Harley claims that his invention will revolutionize iron-making, and this prediction is borne out by the opinion of experts.

The discovery is said to surpass in importance that made by Bessemer. A company has been incorporated with $100,000,000 capital. By Harley's process, iron is made from an endless furnace with a peculiar method of controlling the admission of air by which a thoroughly molten condition of iron is obtained. It is said that the Bethlehem, Pa., iron men have expressed a willingness to pay $10,000,000 for the invention on proof that it is what it is claimed to be.

Tacoma's "Nob Hill" Is to Experience a Drouth.

TACOMA, Wash., March 4.—The greater portion of the water supply in the fashionable residence part of the city in the north end will be shut off today by an injunction, issued this morning in the superior court, restraining the company from taking water from Clover lake. Although the city has been using water from there for several years, condemnation proceedings were recently begun. Damages were assessed at $14,000 by a jury. Part have been paid and part appealed. The injunction is in effect until all has been paid.

Rebels Still Causing Trouble in Cuba.

NEW YORK, March 4.—The steamer Vigilance, which arrived today from Havana, brings word that much excitement prevails on the south side of Cuba, particularly in the cities of Santiago and Cienfuegos. Particulars were hard to obtain, owing to government censorship. The report of the death of the rebel, Manuel Garcia, was confirmed.

Matters are very quiet at Havana, the city being under martial law. The last Spanish vessel in the harbor sailed for Santiago, February 28.

Noted Gang of Outlaws Reported Surrounded.

FERRY, O. T., March 4.—News has been received here that Deputy Marshal Will Nix, with 15 or 20 deputies, had surrounded the cave in which the Bill Doolan gang was located, and were attempting to blow the gang out with dynamite. A posse went out from here to the marshal's assistance. Rumors are afloat of fights between the outlaws and marshal.

Symptoms of kidney troubles should be promptly attended to; they are nature's warnings that something is wrong. Many persons die victims of kidney diseases who could have been saved had they taken proper precautions. The prompt use of Dr. J. H. McLean's Liver & Kidney Balm has saved thousands of valuable lives. If you have any derangement of the kidneys try it. Price $1.00 per bottle. Sold by Snipes & Kinerly, druggists.

The Altitude Too High.

LEADVILLE, Colo., March 4.—The billiard game scheduled to be played here between Schaefer and Ives had to be canceled, on account of Ives' illness. His nose bled from the time he arrived here in the morning until evening, when he took the train for the West. He was very weak. It is reported that he has lost 24 pounds in four weeks.

Exposure to rough weather, dampness, extreme cold, etc., is apt to bring on an attack of rheumatism or neuralgia; chapped hands and face, cracked lips and violent itching of the skin also owe their origin to cold weather. Dr. McLean's Volcanic Oil Liniment should be kept on hand at all times for immediate application when troubles of this nature appear. It is a sovereign remedy. 25c, 50c and $1.00 per bottle.

Wheat in the Farmers' Hands.

CHICAGO, March 4.—The Prairie Farmer, in its report today, gives the amount of wheat now held in the farmers' hands as 165,000,000 bushels, of which amount nearly 70 per cent is reserved in the winter wheat states. The amount of corn in the producers' hands is placed at 568,000,000 bushels, and of oats 267,000,000 bushels. The condition of the growing winter wheat plant is announced as 88.9 per cent, as against 94.3 per cent January 1.

A severe rheumatic pain in the left shoulder had troubled Mr. J. H. Loper, a well known druggist of Des Moines, Iowa, for six months. At times the pain was so severe that he could not lift anything. With all he could do he could not get rid of it until he applied Chamberlain's Pain Balm. "I only made three applications of it," he says, "and have since been free from all pain." He now recommends it to persons similarly afflicted. It is for sale by Blakely & Houghton Druggists.
