WEDNESDAY - MARCH 6, 1895

THE HOUSE THAT VANDER-BILT

Mrs. Vanderbilt has secured a divorce from her husband W. K. Vanderbilt. She has property settled upon her that yields an income of $300,000 per year, or $1,000 a day for every day in the year except Sundays, and so she had ought to skimp along without becoming a county charge. Besides this she has the privilege of marrying again if she so desires, but he, under the New York laws, cannot marry during her lifetime. Money can accomplish wonders, but it cannot make one man and one woman who are only fastened together by it, happy. Love laughs at locksmiths, but he gives goldsmiths the horse laugh.

Hon. John M. Thurston, United States senator for Nebraska, and general solicitor for the Union Pacific railroads, is the title of the gentleman whom the legislature of Nebraska selected to make laws for the whole people of the United States. Mr. Thurston cannot serve two masters, and it is perfectly natural that he should serve the one that pays him most. Nebraska, calling on the balance of the people for help, and at the same time sending a corporation attorney to the United States senate, presents the spectacle of a mendicant stabbing his benefactor.

Politics are being made very rapidly these days, and from the way the silver question is being forced to the front, it is bound to be the leading issue in the next presidential campaign. As both old parties are divided on the subject, it is highly probable there will be a rearranging of party lines, and politicians who have heretofore been mortal enemies will be found fighting under the same banner. Politics truly makes strange bedfellows, and when democratic and republican shins get under the same blanket, the resultant kicking will be immense.

In selecting the state board of medical examiners, Governor Lord forgot there was such a place as Eastern Oregon. Salem got one member. As Marion county now has the governor and the superintendent of the penitentiary, besides several smaller appointments, it is to be hoped that the governor will cast his eyes on Eastern Oregon in selecting the adjutant-general. Geography is a very important study in political matters.

We notice that the Heppner Gazette has gotten into its teens. It is a lusty youngster, growing up with the country, or a little ahead of it, and is doing good work for Morrow county. May it live to a ripe old age, and may its genial editor remain on earth to re-print the comment we shall make when it reaches its one hundredth year.

It is said that Mr. J. V. L. Prayn of New York City and Albany is to succeed Ward MacAllister as the boss dictator of the 400. The name is appropriate, as MacAllister was full of prunes, and this one (although he pronounces his name Prine) seems fitted to be his successor.

The president has gone duck-shooting on the inland waters of North Carolina, and most of the congressmen have gone home. The country can take a long breath and feel that her finances are safe, at least, until the president returns.

The expression "The Almighty Dollar" has been, is now being, credited to several persons, and none of them correctly. It was first used by Washington Irving in a sketch entitled "A Creole Village," which was written in 1837.

What Would I Do With the Tariff if I Were Czar?

Andrew Carnegie, in the March Forum.

A page could be filled with a list of the luxuries of the rich upon which the taxes have been reduced by the new tariff. Here are a few reductions: china reduced 50 per cent, glass-plate and stained glass 40, gold pens 16, clocks 28, hats 72, knit fabrics 72, flannel 68, silk umbrellas 18, brandy and cordials 28, silk 40, gloves 30, combs jellies, etc., lace, embroideries, etc., 16, woollens and silks 10 to 20, owing to ad valorem instead of specific duties. Under the present tariff the rich man of fashion wears his superfine foreign broadcloth, superfine linen, silk hat, kid gloves, fine silk umbrella, sips his costly glass of rare old wine, at from 20 to no less than 70 per cent less than the former duty upon these superfluous luxuries. His grand dame plays her fan, flourishes her embroidered handkerchief, displays her exquisite laces, and arrays herself in superb silks at equal reductions, with many smiles and thanks to the newly arisen friend of the people, the charming and brilliant young West Virginian, who apologizes for his failure to reduce the duties upon the champagne she offers him, explaining that this was not his fault as his bill originally provided for its reduction also. Hundreds of fancy articles made of wool, silk, and linen are now under reduced duties. These reductions, as we shall see later, embrace articles de luxe which furnish two-thirds of the entire revenue from the tariff. Not one workingman in the whole land uses these luxuries. Such is "tariff reform" up to date, and thus is the "burden of taxation removed from the masses of the people." Strange delusion! The taxes are removed only from the rich.

A Gentle Corrective is what you need when your liver becomes inactive. It's what you get when you take Dr. Pierce's Pleasant Pellets; they're free from the violence and the griping that come with the ordinary pill. The best medical authorities agree that in regulating the bowels mild methods are preferable. For every derangement of the liver, stomach and bowels, these tiny, sugar coated pills are most effective. They go about their work in an easy and natural way, and their action is so gentle that they are always in favor. Being composed of the choicest, concentrated vegetable extracts, they cost much more than other pills found in the market, yet from forty to forty-four are put up in each sealed glass vial, as sold through druggists, at the price of the cheaper made pills.

"Pleasant Pellets" cure biliousness, sick and bilious headache, dizziness, costiveness, or constipation, sour stomach, loss of appetite, coated tongue, indigestion, or dyspepsia, windy belchings, "heartburn," pain and distress after eating, and kindred derangements of the liver, stomach and bowels. Put up in sealed glass vials, therefore always fresh and reliable. Whether as a laxative, or in larger doses, as a gently acting but searching cathartic, these little "Pellets" are unequalled.

As a "dinner pill," to promote digestion, take one each day after dinner. To relieve the distress arising from over-eating, nothing equals one of these little "Pellets." They are tiny, sugar-coated, anti-bilious granules. Any child readily takes them.

Accept no substitute that may be recommended to be "just as good." It may be better for the dealer, because of paying him a better profit, but he is not the one who needs help.

A free sample (4 to 7 doses) on trial, is mailed to any address, post-paid, on receipt of name and address on postal card.
