The curfew bell did not ring last night.

C. E. Bayard announces himself as a candidate for the office of school clerk.

By request I desire to state that I will be a candidate for school clerk again.
E. JACOBSON.

Fourteen horses were shipped on the Regulator this morning, eight of which will be sent to Sitka, Alaska.

Mrs. Phil Metchan, wife of the state treasurer, died at Salem yesterday, after an illness of eighteen months.

Elder J. W. Jenkins will preach at Dufur Saturday evening of this week and Sunday at the usual hours.

The county court this afternoon changed the name of William Traylor of Hood River to William Haynes.

The last term of the circuit court was the least expensive of any held here for years. The bills from that source are conspicuous by failing to be on hand.

Major Morgan and the Irish Nightingale of the Salvation Army, will be here on March 12th and 13th. On the 12th there will be a coffee supper, on the 13th the major will speak on the "Secret of the Salvation Army."

Two Slaps, an Indian of the Umatilla tribe, got drunk at Pendleton Monday, and on his way home his pony bucked him off. In the fall a flask containing a small amount of whisky was broken and a piece of the glass penetrated his femoral artery. The result was a dead Indian in about two minutes, but "he died happy."

John M. Fridley, an O. R. & N. bridge foreman, died in the hospital in Portland last Thursday. His funeral services were conducted in Pendleton Sunday.
Deceased had no family. He came originally from Virginia where all his relatives now reside. Although word had been sent to them, no answer was received prior to the funeral. But his fellow workmen gladly performed this last service for one with whom for many they had labored for a common interest.

Last year Clerk Jacobsen collected $553 tuition from non-resident pupils, as against $258 in 1893, and only $102.50 in 1892. It can be seen at a glance that our schools have obtained a high standing elsewhere: that outsiders indorse our course of studies, and are satisfied with the results obtained from patronizing our public schools. No doubt the number of non-resident pupils will keep on increasing in the future.

Alley's bill fixing the age of consent passed by the legislature takes effect May 24th. It is as follows: If any person shall carnally know any female child under the age of 18 years, or shall forcibly ravish any woman of the age of 16 years or upwards, such person shall be deemed guilty of rape, and upon conviction thereof shall be punished by imprisonment in the penitentiary for not less than three nor more than twenty years.

Mr. Lochhead, one of the board of fire delegates, called the attention of the engineer to the fact that the board had refused to allow the firebell to be rung for any purpose except fires or fire meetings, and so curfew did not ring last night.
Since the immortal but misguided "Bessie" used herself as a clapper and swung her sandaled feet out the belfry window and twinkled her shinbones before the blushing face of the man in the moon, curfew has curfewed whenever it wanted to. But last night curfew did not ring, the boys were not executed and Cromwell did not show up.
