BRIEF MENTION.

Leaves From the Notebook of Chronicle Reporters.

The Washington legislature adjourned last night.

St. Patrick's day this year falls on Sunday, day after tomorrow being the date.

Fairfield Lodge, I. O. G. T., will give an entertainment tomorrow night at 8 p. m.

The Smith Bros. will give their regular dance at the opera house tomorrow night.

Dr. Dietrich of Dufur has been appointed hospital steward of the Third regiment.

Mr. T. H. Walsh, of Portland, for many years superintendent of bridges and buildings for the O. R. & N., is in the city.

Captain John Waud, the well known steamboat man of earlier days, capitalist and pioneer of Portland dropped dead yesterday morning at the residence of his daughter in that city.

All the cases of the Eastern Oregon Land Co., against settlers on their lands in Sherman county, and which were up for trial at the term of court just completed in that county were settled to the satisfaction of all parties.

The building built as a storehouse by Pease & Mays during the high water last year, is on its way from its original location on the McFarland lot on Fourth street, to a position by the railroad, where it will be used as a warehouse.

Lieut.-Col. Patterson has been busy most of the day forwarding material to the companies of the Third regiment. There are six companies and each received forty haversacks, forty campaign hats, forty pairs leggins and forty canteens.

Reports from California show that the recent cold snap has done much damage. Nearly the entire apricot crop in the Vacaville section has been killed and the early cherries, which would have been ready for market in two weeks, were also destroyed.

Mr. C. J. Crandall, who has the supervision of the building of the Hood River schoolhouse, was at that little city yesterday. He reports the building as going up rapidly, and says Hood River will have one of the handsomest and best arranged school buildings in the state. It contains six large rooms.

We desire to call attention to Mrs. H. H. Smith dressmaking add in another column.

Mrs. Phillips is pleased to announce to her friends and patrons that she now has her new stock of millinery, purchased in San Francisco, and will have it displayed for inspection at her new store on Washington street, Friday and Saturday, 15th and 16th.

An exchange suggests that as France is going to shut off on our dried apples that we retaliate by shutting out her champagne. The fact seems to be overlooked that if France does not take our dried apples, she will have nothing to make champagne of.

Dullness still prevails, and until the farmers get done seeding, the city will continue to present a quiet appearance. From the way plows are reported running from all parts of the county, the low price of wheat last year did not scare our farmers out. In a month or two the wool will begin to come in, and then things will boom again. From present indication there will be 7,000,000 pounds of wool handled here this year.

Hon. F. P. Mays went up to Sherman county last week to try a damage suit in which W. H. Wilson was attorney, the latter gentleman being engaged in the superior court at Goldendale. When Mr. Mays arrived at Moro the most diligent inquiry failed to disclose the whereabouts of his client, but did demonstrate that said client, presumably for a consideration, had settled his case outside of court, and skipped. When the case was called Mr. Mays stated that he had come to Moro with instructions to try a case with a client attached, and that he therefore could not try a case with the client decamped instead, and he asked that he be non-suited.

All the Rooneys.

The famous Pat Rooney Comedy Company is announced to appear at Baldwin Opera House, Tuesday the 19th, in their humorous and mirth-provoking farce comedy, "Lord Rooney." It is tolerably well understood by the average playgoer that all previous achievements in the field of farce comedy have been eclipsed by the originality, brightness and unrestrained humor of "Lord Rooney." No play of a similar nature seen in recent years has furnished so much palatable food for comment by the press and general public as this new dramatic departure, and its praises have been sung far and wide. Nor is this to be wondered at by anyone who has seen the piece. Its unflinching mirthfulness, brightness of dialogue, side-splitting situations, catchy, tuneful music, all interpreted by a most singularly well equipped cohort of eminent comedians, pretty soubrettes, graceful dancers and tuneful singers, combine to render "Lord Rooney" a paragon of farce comedy excellence. Reserved seats on sale at Blakeley & Houghton's.

At the Locks.

Mr. S. L. Brooks visited the Locks yesterday, and from him we learn something of the progress of the work. The lower gate is about completed, some 11,000 rivets having been put in it, and as these have to be red hot when put in place, the job was a large one. The sections of the guard gate, just above the gate now finishing, are being swung into place, and the work of riveting these will be finished in about three weeks. The other gates will be put in one after the other as rapidly as possible. The walls outside of the bulkheads at each end of the canal are well along, and there will be no difficulty in keeping them out of the reach of high water. The Days have leased the big scow belonging to Mr. Clarke, put derricks on it, and will use it in transporting rock from Monahan's and another quarry on this side of the river near Wyeth.

Mr. J. G. Day left for California yesterday.

Serious Accident.

Floyd Gibson met with a serious accident on the road this side of Olex Wednesday morning. He was coming to Arlington with a load of wheat, and it being a little cold he tied up his lines and was walking alongside the wagon. The dirt gave way under his feet and he fell under the wagon, the wheels passing over and breaking his hand, arm and leg. The team went on unconscious of the accident to their driver. Thomas Malanaphy was working in a field near and heard Mr. Gibson's cries for help. The team was overhauled and taken care of, and Tom got a conveyance and brought Mr. Gibson to Arlington, where Dr. Geisendorfer attended to his wants. At this writing he is as comfortable as could be under the circumstances.—Arlington Record.

All druggists sell Dr. Miles' Pain Pills.

PERSONAL MENTION.

Mr. Charles Koehler of Boyd made us a pleasant call this afternoon.

Captain S. V. Short, at one time captain of the steamer Dalles City, came up on a business trip yesterday.

Mr. Geo. A. Young arrived from Bake Oven at noon. He reports the grass good and the weather cold in that neighborhood.

T. A. Hudson, who has been looking after the interest of the Eastern Oregon Land Co., in Sherman county, arrived home last night and left this afternoon for Astoria, to adjust a fire loss there.

Died.
