

How He Shocked Many of His Readers.

CHICAGO, March 15.—The Interior, the organ of the Presbyterian church in the West, appeared this week with the pertly nude picture of a prominent burlesque actress covering almost the entire first page. The clergy and elders rose up in their wrath and have been chasing the editor, Dr. W. C. Gray, ever since. The editor, who took to the woods, explains that a man came along and told him that the figure was from a collection called "Saron's Living Pictures," and represented the Biblical personification of "Hope." He thought "Hope" was very beautiful, but did not know that she was going to play at one of the theaters next week. He liked her so well that he put her on the first page in all her undraped perfection.

The readers of this paper will be pleased to learn that there is at least one dreaded disease that science has been able to cure in all its stages, and that is Catarrh. Hall's Cure is the only positive cure known to the medical fraternity. Catarrh being a constitutional disease, requires a constitutional treatment. Hall's Catarrh Cure is taken internally, acting directly upon the blood and mucous surfaces of the system, thereby destroying the foundation of the disease, and giving the patient strength by building up the constitution and assisting nature in doing its work. The proprietors have so much faith in its curative powers, that they offer One Hundred Dollars for any case that it fails to cure. Send for list of testimonials. Address,

MANAGERS FIGHT.

Not Content to Let Corbett and Griffo Do It.

NEW YORK, March 15.—The facts of a lively bare-knuckle fight that occurred Wednesday morning in the reading-room of the Coleman house, between Corbett's manager, W. A. Brady, and Charles Behan, the manager of Young Griffo, leaked out last night. According to the story the fight was short and sharp and had not the contestants been separated by friends, according to eyewitnesses, either would have been a subject for a surgeon's care. Brady, Behan and several friends were in the reading-room talking of the merits of their respective charges, and Behan was bragging of the prowess of Griffo, when Brady announced that he would match "Young Corbett," the fighter, against Griffo for $2,000, and declared that he would put up the money then and there. He drew a check from his pocket to emphasize his remark and Behan eagerly replied that when Fitzsimmons got through with Corbett neither the latter nor Brady would have a cent to put up. At this Brady waxed warm, and retorted that his check was good for $10,000 cash in the hotel, and that Behan's was not worth 10 cents. At this Behan grew very angry and the lie was passed. Before the friends of the managers could interfere, Behan struck out with his right and landed on Brady's face. Corbett's manager was stunned by the blow, but quickly recovered and let fly, striking Behan on the neck, flooring him. By this time the onlookers had recovered themselves, and several seized Behan and hurried him into the street and others persuaded Brady to go to his room in the hotel.

Of the latest farce comedy, "Lord Rooney," a well-known critic says: "It is a sparkling, fizzing triumph from end to end. The arrangement is daring, noisy, slap-dash and trivial, but it is fashioned with delicacy of artistry that you must not allow to escape you when you go to see it. It not only makes you roar with laughter, but in spite of its apparent fluffiness it is lighted by the real sunshine of nature. It is fierce, broad, rattling and reckless, but not 'or an instant is it theatrical and profless. It contains not only a literary value, but it comes close to a sentiment that appeals to the heart.' At the opera house Tuesday, 19th.

A severe rheumatic pain in the left shoulder had troubled Mr. J. H. Loper, a well known druggist of Des Moines, Iowa, for six months. At times the pain was so severe that he could not lift anything. With all he could do he could not get rid of it until he applied Chamberlain's Pain Balm. "I only made three applications of it," he says, and have since been free from all pain." He now recommends it to persons similarly afflicted. It is for sale by Blakely & Houghton Druggists.

Distinguished Art Critic—I beg pardon, but what is that? Proprietor—That? That is a painting of a mud house in a fog. Distinguished Art Critic—Thank you. I thought it was a picture of Aubrey Beardsley.—The Dauber.

The Discovery Saved His Life.

Mr. G. Caillouette, druggist, Beaverville, Ill., says: "To Dr. King's New Discovery I owe my life. Was taken with La Grippe and tried all the physicians for miles about, but of no avail, and was given up and told I could not live. Having Dr. King's New Discovery in my store, I sent for a bottle and began its use, and from the first dose began to get better, and after using three bottles was up and about again. It is worth its weight in gold. We won't keep store or house without it." Get a free trial at Snipes & Kinnersly's.
