WASHINGTON LETTER.

From our regular correspondent.

WASHINGTON, March 22, 1895. Mr. Cleveland and Secretary Gresham ought to blush for shame every time they think about demanding the recall of Mr. Thurston, the Hawaiian minister. It is but another added to the long list of unmanly acts with which Hawaii has been dealt by this administration. It is simply childish for Secretary Gresham to pretend that the recall was asked for because Minister Thurston gave information to the newspapers about Hawalian matters before he gave it to the department of state. That is merely an excuse. Thurston's real offence has prevent any misrepresentation of Hawaiian affairs being accepted by the American people, and was consequently constantly opposed to the administration and its policy. Secretary Gresham does not consider giving diplomatic advance information to the newspapers any crime when it can be made to serve his own purpose. It has been scarcely a week since he gave the newspapers his dispatch to Minister Taylor, demanding from a Spanish gunboat at a U. S. mail steamer, before it had been cabled to Spain. He not only gave out the disas to leave the impression that it was given out in Madrid and not in Washington-a senseless bit of deception, which was at once discovered and ex-Cleveland promised congress, in a special concerning our relations with Hawaii. dollars' worth of stolen property in it. Although the senate rejected the nomination of Alfred D. Tinsley to be postmaster at Sioux Falls, South Dakota, the home of Senator Pettigrew, by more than a three-quarter vote-42 to 13-Mr. Cleveland this week signed Tinsley's commission as postmaster. Evidently Mr. Cleveland liked to be jumped on by the senate, and he will certainly again get jumped on about this appointment, when congress meets again.
