

Settlers Are in Trouble. SACRAMENTO, March 26.—Governor Budd has received the following telegram from Bakerfield: "To Governor Budd, Sacramento: We, the settlers of Kern lake bed, ask you to protect us against an armed force of hirelings of the Kern County Land Company, that are forcibly dispossessing us from our land now in litigation. They are destroying our property and threatening our lives. (Signed) J. W. Briggs, secretary of the meeting."

The governor at once sent for Deputy Attorney-General Post and directed him to telegraph to District Attorney Alvin Fay, of Kern county, for full statement by wire as soon as possible of the trouble there. The deputy attorney-general soon received this telegram from Fay.

"The company has a patent for land. The settlers have occupied a portion of the land for several years. They have had several suits, but none were properly brought to determine title. Several ejectments suits are now pending. The company has armed men on the ground and has forcibly ejected four or five people. Am expecting to hear of trouble at any time."

After the governor read this telegram he directed the attorney-general's office to immediately instruct District Attorney Fay to arrest and prosecute all parties on either side found violating the law.

$100 Reward $100 The readers of this paper will be pleased to learn that there is at least one dreaded disease that science has been able to cure in all its stages, and that is Catarrh. Hall's Cure is the only positive cure known to the medical fraternity. Catarrh being a constitutional disease, requires a constitutional treatment. Hall's Catarrh Cure is taken internally, acting directly upon the blood and mucous surfaces of the system, thereby destroying the foundation of the disease, and giving the patient strength by building up the constitution and assisting nature in doing its work. The proprietors have so much faith in its curative powers, that they offer One Hundred Dollars for any case that it fails to cure. Send for list of testimonials. Address, F. J. Egan's Life Insurance. OMAHA, Neb., March 25.—James Casey, one of the charter members of the American Railway Union, said today concerning John M. Egan, the applicant for the receivership of the Oregon Short Line: "I do not speak from the inside, but only as an observer, I know as does every other Western railroad man of experience, that Egan's life would be insecure if he stopped in Oregon. I predict that if he stays there as receiver, he will be killed within a few months. There are men walking this earth today who believe Egan represents in his personality all that has brought them to want and woe."

An Awful Accident. A $300 span of horses belonging to Mr. C. B. Durbin, met death last Tuesday in a very singular manner. Charley and George Dodd were up on the plateau, about two miles southwest of the Meadow Lawn farm, cutting down juniper trees, hauling them to the edge of the steep bank and dumping them over, so that the wood could be procured from the canyon beneath. In hauling a large tree up to the dumping place, the team got a little too close to the edge, and over went horses, tree and all, over a precipice nearly 300 feet in height. When the tree started to roll, the horses struggled frantically to free themselves from the death trap, but it availed nothing. When they came to the edge of the steep precipice they both reared high in the air, and fell over backwards, falling about 150 feet before striking the bowlders beneath, and then rolled about 150 feet farther, into the canyon. The scene was an awful one to the two men who witnessed it, and when they reached the canyon they found the poor brutes almost smashed, and hardly an unbroken bone in their bodies. It was Mr. Durbin's best team, and he would not have taken $300 in cash for it.—Antelope Herald.

A Rise in Mutton. The best news we have heard for a long time is this: Last week a St. Louis mutton buyer, whose name no one seems to have learned, bought 1400 head of sheep from Alvey Wilcox, paying $2.60 per head for the ewes and $2.40 for the lambs, with the wool on. He also bought 1600 head from Kohler & Karlen, at $2.75 for ewes, $2.95 for wethers and $2.40 for lambs. John Grant also sold his entire band, 2000, at $3.15 per head. He likewise bought a large band of cattle from parties on the river, paying 3 cents per pound all around. This is the highest price paid since the democratic party took hold of the governmental reins, two years ago, and we sincerely hope the same will keep on the upward incline.—Antelope Herald.

Oregon Is Supreme. The railroads are authority for the statement that travel from the East and West is increasing rapidly every week. This is a sure indication that times will steadily improve throughout Oregon. Any part of Oregon is head and shoulders above any of the states west of the Mississippi river, so far as agreeableness of climate is concerned, and also presents, better advantages to the man who wishes to make an honest living.—La Grande Chronicle.
