

The Yanks and Rebs at Gettysburg.

A few years ago the Northern and Southern soldiers met at Gettysburg...

"Yes we Yanks licked you Rebs here," remarked a cool and phlegmatic veteran...

"Bus didn't we lick you out of your boots at Manassas?" exclaimed a hot and impetuous veteran from Georgia.

"Granted," said the cool Vermonte. "Didn't we smash you at Cold Harbor and wipe the ground up with you in the Wilderness?"

"Well, yes," said the Yankee. "Didn't we tie you all up in a knot and make rags of you all through the Peninsular campaign?"

"Granted," said the Vermonte, "but how was it at Appomattox?"

"Yes, how was it at Appomattox?" shouted the Georgian, growing sentimental as his eyes filled with tear.

The above is one of Eli Perkins stories, and he is brimful of them. Don't fail to hear his lecture at the Baptist church, Thursday, April 4th.

Kingsley Notes.

Plowing in full blast once more. We wonder why it is that the young ladies who attended the dance on the 17th, smile so queerly at the boys when they meet them.

Wm. Hunter is over from Rutledge shaking hands with his numerous friends.

Great Oaks

From little acorns grow, so also do fatal diseases spring from small beginnings. Never neglect symptoms of kidney troubles; if allowed to develop they cause much suffering and sorrow.

Symptoms of kidney troubles should be promptly attended to; they are nature's warnings that something is wrong. Many persons die victims of kidney diseases who could have been saved had they taken proper precautions.
