COMMISSIONS ARE LEGAL.

Attorney-General Idleman has submitted his opinion on the status of the state commissions. He decides that the railroad and other commissioners are legally entitled to hold their offices until the legislature meets again. We are now, and have always been, opposed to the system of commissions, and we have been more outspoken against the railroad commission than any or all the others. At the same time, we had no fault to find with the composition of that commission. It was the commission, and not the members thereof, that we objected to. As the commission is to continue to exist, we congratulate the members thereof on their good fortune. It is not everyone in these degenerate days that can have a sinecure and a special car at hand all the time; but the board of railroad commissioners have both.

The dispatches recently stated that Governor McKinley had said that if the republican party put a free silver plank in its platform that he would not, only not accept the nomination for the presidency, but that he would leave his party. It is not at all likely that Governor McKinley said anything of the kind, or that he said anything at all on the subject that he could avoid. Governor McKinley is a politician, and does not take the trouble to express an opinion that will only serve to make him enemies. He is like Reed or Allison, or any other politician, and would take the nomination for president no matter what the platform contained. Mr. McKinley would like to climb into the presidential chair, and he will not be particular as to the kind of stepladder offered him.

Joaquin Miller comes back from Hawaii with a tale of torture and inquisition. Miller, it must be remembered, is a poet, and consequently is allowed considerable license. His story is good until another is told, but we fancy that it oversteps the bounds of its acknowledged license, and partakes of the characteristics of lousiness. Joaquin was always an aggressive fellow—in rhyme.

Mitchell Notes.

Today as been pleasant and warm, although clouds hung heavy and threatening. Tonight is a little cooler than the day, and still the indications are for a storm. The past week has been very changeable and disagreeable, no two days bearing the same temperature. The range has been from cold to warm, and storms of every conceivable nature. Last Tuesday night the mercury fell four degrees lower than at any time last winter. There has been some rain, and a great deal more is needed. Complaint everywhere is that the ground is too dry for plowing, and many places must be left uncultivated unless there is enough falling weather to wet the ground. But with all the dryness, grass is looking well and there is plenty to support stock.

Sheep are in excellent condition for this time of the year. There has been a sheep buyer in this county, but I have not heard of any offers or any sales. Cattle have been selling at $10 and $12 for yearlings and $14 and $15 for 2-year-olds.

R. E. Misner is getting lumber on the ground to build a large store in lower town, also a dwelling.

Sam Brennen is building a small dwelling in lower town.

Married—March 13th, John Seigfort and Miss Lena Campbell. Many happy wishes go to them.

E. E. Allen has gone to John Day, and will bring his two eldest daughters home. They have been at that place going to school this winter.

CENTRAL CITY, Col., March 29.—Alfred Martin and Henry James, miners, were crushed to death in Sleepy Hollow mine today by a rock falling upon them.

Call It a Craze.

AN ALARMING STATEMENT CONCERNING WOMEN.

HOW BAD HABITS ARE FORMED.

The New York Tribune says: "The habit of taking headache powders is increasing to an alarming extent among a great number of us throughout the country. These powders as their name indicates, are claimed by the manufacturers to be a positive and speedy cure for any form of headache. In many cases their chief ingredient is morphine, opium, cocaine or some other equally injurious drug having a tendency to deaden pain. The habit of taking them is easily formed, but almost impossible to shake off. Women usually begin taking them to relieve a raging headache and soon resort to the powder to alleviate any little pain or ache they may be subjected to, and finally like the morphine or opium fiend, get into the habit of taking them regularly, imagining that they are in pain if they happen to miss their regular dose."

In nine cases out of ten, the trouble is in the stomach and liver. Take a simple laxative and liver tonic and remove the offending matter which deranges the stomach and causes the headache. Dr. Pierce's Pleasant Pellets are composed entirely of the purest, concentrated, vegetable extracts. One Pellet is a dose; sugar-coated, easily swallowed; once used, always in favor. They positively cure sick headache and remove the disposition to it.

Mr. E. VARGASON, of Otter Lake, Lapsee Co., Mich., writes: "I not infrequently have an attack of the headache. It usually comes on in the forenoon. At my dinner I eat my regular meal, and take one or two of Doctor Pierce's Pleasant Pellets immediately after, and in the course of an hour my headache is cured and no bad effects. I feel better every way for having taken them—not worse, as is usual after taking other kinds of pills. 'Pleasant Pellets' are worth more than their weight in gold, if for nothing else than to cure headache."
