BRIEF MENTION.

aves From the Notebook of Chronicle Reporters.

Thirty sacks of wool were received at the Wasco warehouse yesterday evening from Hay Creek.

Mrs. Nellie Hines, room 50, Chapman block, has Spanish creams for the face; also Dow's electric belts. Tells past or future by the hand or cards. Call and see her. 1w

Mr. S. T. Erwin, Indian agent at Fort Simcoe, arrived in from Yakima yesterday. He came to meet Mr. McCormick, who will return with him to the Simcoe reservation.

Mr. P. McCormick, special agent in the Indian department, arrived in from Warm Springs yesterday, after a week's visit to that reservation. Mr. J. C.
Lucky ex-agent, came in with him.

A convention of Epworth Leagues of The Dalles district will be held at Arlington, Or., on May 15th and 16th, for the purpose of organizing a district league. About twenty leagues will be represented.

Senator Dolph and Tom Kelly took breakfast together this morning at the Umatilla house. We will give the full particulars of the affair later, but in the meanwhile if you doubt the assertion, inquire of Mr. Kelly.

The original "nine-cent man" of the Masonic temple, Portland, will open tomorrow a store opposite The Chronicle office. Everybody knows him and everybody knows that the nine-cent man doesn't haggle over a cent. He sells his goods regardless of prices, and as he is going to close out his stock they will be sold even at 25 cents on the dollar. Remember the place, and be on hand at noon at which time the store will be opened.

Mrs. Olive Ames was in the city last evening and tried to make arrangements to have Professor Loska, the celebrated mind reader, give one of his exhibitions here, but did not succeed. The subjects of mind reading, hypnotism and kindred matters pertaining to the occult, possess a deep interest for the larger portion of humanity, and we believe such an exhibition would attract a larger audience than anything that could be presented.

We hope Mr. Loska may yet be induced to give The Dalles people an exhibition of his powers.

A Fake Lottery.

The bicycle craze had a decidedly new feature yesterday. There has been a scheme for disposing of the machines of the genuine lottery style, and yesterday after a drawing for the machine put up by C. S. F. Baker, when it was learned that his sister, Mrs. Koonz, had drawn the lucky number the ticket holders became suspicious and began to investigate. A boy named Ferguson had drawn the ticket from the box, and it is claimed that this particular ticket was crumpled and soiled to such an extent that it caused the first suspicion that all was not right. Some of those interested interviewed the Ferguson boy, who, it is said, admitted that Baker had hired him to do the drawing giving him a ticket which he held concealed in his hand when he reached in the box, and which of course he drew out and so won the prize. When this became known there was considerable excitement and bad feeling and the result was that Baker was arrested, charged with selling false and fictitious lottery tickets. The case was set for trial at 2 o'clock this afternoon, at which time the defendant and his attorney, Judge Bennett appeared and, as the latter had not examined into the matter the case was continued until 4 o'clock this afternoon. The matter is before Justice Davis.

A Lively Runaway.

There was a lively runaway this morning that came near getting to be an epidemic. Sandoz' team, the wagon loaded with stable refuse, started the fun on Union street. As they came up the street Keller's horse hitched to a light hack, snuffed danger and struck out ahead of them. Turning up Third street at the courthouse corner they started Bob Hood, who was driving up that thoroughfare, and he fearing a smash-up put the buckskin to his nags and tried to run ahead of the storm. Up Third they came at break-neck speed, and it was hard to tell for awhile which was going to come in ahead, but Hood side tracked himself the first opportunity, while the Keller horse getting all he wanted, was easily caught, but the San-doz team were still headed towards Dufur and going faster than a flying machine when last they were seen.

Peace Declared.

A dispatch from London received from China this morning says: Li Hung Chang's son-in-law telegraphs that the treaty of peace was signed in Simonosaki today, April 16, and that the terms are:
First—The Independence of Corea.
Second—Japan's retention of the conquered places.
Third—Japan's retention of the territory east of the Liau river.
Fourth—Permanent cession of Formosa.
Fifth—An offensive and defensive alliance between China and Japan.

City Bonds Sold.

The bids for Dalles City bonds were opened last night at 8 o'clock and were as follows:

A. H. Curtis, of The Dalles, bid for $20,000 worth, paying for each $500 bond, $550.50, or 10 and 1-10th per cent. premium.
Theis & Barroll, of Spokane, bid for $40,000 worth, 2 and 1-20th cents premium.
E. H. Rollins, of Boston, 1 1/2 cents premium.
R. H. Hurd, Seattle, 8 1/2 mills, premium.

The bonds were sold to Mr. Curtis and to Theis & Barroll. Mr. Curtis pays to the city for $20,000 bonds, $22-020, and Theis & Barroll $40,820. The total is $62,840, or $2,840 premium.
The bid made by Mr. Curtis is peculiarly gratifying. It shows the confidence our own business people who are thoroughly acquainted with the country and its resources have in it. The bids from the outside are also good, all at a premium, though slight. The bonding of the city's indebtedness is a grand thing.
It cuts the interest charges down by one fourth, and at the same time pays off nearly $3,000 of the principal. With economical management the city's indebtedness should now be gradually wiped out. The city's warrants now are mostly in the hands of her own people probably 95 per cent. of the whole amount being owned here. The same may be said of our county indebtedness, and besides this large share of Klickitat county's script has found its way into the hands of Dalles people.

There is not a business proposition that crops up but shows that The Dalles is one of the thrichest business centers in the Northwest and the ownership of our county and city warrants is no exception to the rule.

Real Estate Transaction.

The following have been filed for record since our last report:
