A LYING PAPER.

The Brooklyn Eagle, a leading democratic newspaper, whirls the bloody shirt thusly:

"The concerted effort of the South to fasten an income tax on the government had its motive in Southern resentment against national pensions for Northern soldiers who put down Southern rebels.

The Brooklyn Eagle makes an assertion that it knows to be false, and one that it has manufactured maliciously for the purpose of bolstering up a cause that it cannot defend with argument.

Rockefeller has $100,000,000 and he is protected in its possession and enjoyment. By whom? By the common people of the United States, by the middle classes who pay as much for having $5000 worth of property protected as Mr. Rockefeller does for having $100,000,000 protected.

Our patrons will find De Witt's Little Early Risers a safe and reliable remedy for constipation, dyspepsia and liver complaints. Snipes-Kinersly Drug Co.

John Sherman was reasonably honest then. He defended the income tax, and answering a taunt of Cassery, California's senator, he said: "The income tax is a just tax; it is the most just and equitable tax ever placed upon the statutes of this or any other country."

The income tax has come to say, and to grow, and those whose vast wealth is used to corrupt legislation and purchase courts, may yet find that it had been better to have paid the taxes on their incomes, than to have found that an indignant people had left them no incomes to be taxed.

It is not the North, neither is it the South that demands an income tax, it is the demand of the great common people of this great common wealth, and a demand that it will be well for those who have incomes to heed.

The wedding of Hon. George Nathaniel Curzon, M. P. and Miss Mary Leiter, was celebrated at Washington City, Monday. Mr. Curzon is a titled Englishman and said to be a clever gentleman.

The railroading record was broken Sunday, by a special newspaper train on the Pennsylvania road. It ran from Camden to Atlantic City, 58 miles, in 45 minutes, or at the rate of 76 miles an hour.

PERSONAL MENTION.

Mrs. P. E. Michell is in the city. Mr. E. Y. Judd, of Pendleton is in the city.

PHYSICAL STRENGTH,

cheerful spirits and the ability to fully enjoy life, come only with a healthy body and mind. The young man who suffers from nervous debility, impaired memory, low spirits, irritable temper, and one derangement of mind and body that result from, unnatural, pernicious habits usually contracted in youth, through ignorance, is thereby incapacitated to thoroughly enjoy life.

To reach, re-claim and restore such unfortunates to health and happiness, is the aim of the publishers of a book of 135 pages, written in plain but chaste language, on the nature, symptoms and curability, by home-treatment, of such diseases. This book will be sent sealed, in plain envelope, on receipt of this notice with ten cents in stamps, for postage. Address, World's Dispensary Medical Association, Buffalo, N. Y.

For more than a quarter of a century physicians connected with this widely celebrated institution have made the treatment of the diseases above hinted at their specialty. Thousands have consulted them by letter and received advice and medicines which have resulted in permanent cures.

Sufferers from premature old age, or loss of power, will find much of interest in the book above mentioned.

Sick Headache, constipation and indigestion are quickly cured by De Witt's Little Early Risers, the famous little pills. Snipes-Kinersly Drug Co.
