ARE PREPARED TO ACT

Russian and French Fleets Will Enforce Demands.

COMMUNICATION WILL BE CUT OFF

Much Opposition to It There—Its Ratification Uncertain—The Minister Interviewed.

New York, April 26.—A special to the World from Tokio says: "Russian and French fleets in these waters are prepared to stop Japanese communications unless Japan abandons all claims upon territory in Manchuria."

The Treaty of Peace at Peking—Much Opposition.

LONDON, April 26.—A Peking dispatch to the London Times says: John W. Foster, the American adviser of the Chinese peace envoys, and the secretary of Li Hung Chang, have arrived here, and the treaty of peace between China and Japan is now before the emperor and his ministers. The Chinese foreign office yesterday consulted with different foreign legations. Many censors presented memorials against the treaty.

Prince Kung, president of the foreign office, and of the council of ministers, has obtained seven days more sick leave. Other officials hesitate to recommend the ratification of the treaty.

Viceroy Li Hung Chang will probably go to Che-Foo if ratifications are executed there as proposed.

He Thinks the United States Should Interfere.

WASHINGTON, April 26.—Minister Kurino of Japan today gave the Associated Press a very significant interview on the Eastern question. He said in his opinion the commercial interests of the United States in the East, particularly in Japan, are so much more extensive and important than those of Germany or France, that it would be eminently desirable in the event of a Franco-German alliance with Russia to prevent the consummation of the peace treaty for the United States to take an active part in offsetting such an alliance. Kurino wished it clearly understood, however, that he had not received any instructions from his government, and there had been no suggestion of official or unofficial character from him to the state department that the United States should be enlisted in its support. His views were the result of his personal information of the extent of the United States' interests in the East.

Kurino was asked what the result would be if China's procrastination or foreign interference prevented the ratification of the peace agreement. "Then," he replied, "war will be renewed May 8th with far more vigor and determination than before."

In a Critical Condition.

SHANGHAI, April 26.—A dispatch from Peking says affairs there are in a critical condition. Some generals favor the continuance of the war. Censors object to the treaty of peace and officers are claiming that the emperor alone should decide upon the terms. The ratification of the treaty, consequently, is uncertain, and if it is ratified, it is feared there will be trouble with the army.

White For Vice-President.

WASHINGTON, April 26.—The Evening News, the recognized organ of the administration, whose utterances are known to be controlled by the president's official family, in a long article upon the vice-presidential possibilities before the next national democratic convention, says:

"A man who is looked upon as head and shoulders above all other democratic vice-presidential probabilities, if selected because of his extreme location and adherence to the doctrine of free silver, is

Stephen M. White, the senior senator from California. He has been prominent in coast and national politics for years, and is said to be a conservative and conscientious man of great ability and earnestly believes in opening the mints of the United States to the unlimited coinage of the world's silver products regardless of an existing or prospective international agreement.

"Senator White became a national figure in the democratic party seven years ago, when he was temporary chairman of the national convention of his party in St. Louis which nominated Cleveland and Thurman. He is comparatively a young man, being 42 years old, and is a native of San Francisco.

"Governor Budd, of the same state, is also being canvassed, but it is argued that his prominence and qualifications do not approach those of Senator White. Ex-Representative Geary was suggested as a possibility in 1892, but since that time his connection with the American Protective Association has removed him from the lists of eligibles. So far as vice-presidential timber can be found, with free coinage proclivities, in the middle and extreme West, none appears to possess the requisite elements of strength except Senator White. Should a Pacific coast man be named as a concession to the pronounced and aggressive bimetalist element, he will receive the nomination."

The Durrant Case.

SAN FRANCISCO, April 26.—There was as large a crowd as ever at Durrant's examination this morning. The defense apparently have no hope of preventing the prisoner being held, and are devoting their efforts to obtaining information for use at the trial.

Elmer Wolfe was the first witness this morning. He repeated the story told at the inquest of his being present at Dr. Vogel's on the night of the murder; of Durrant arriving about 9:30, of leaving the house with Durrant and several young ladies; of accompanying Miss Lord home, and about midnight seeing a man who resembled the accused near the church.

During Wolfe's cross-examination he was requested to take off his coat, but refused to do so. Counsel for the defense appealed to the court, and Wolfe finally removed the garment, and admitted to counsel that it bore a resemblance to the one worn by Durrant. On the night in question witness wore a dark coat and vest and light trousers, which were now at the ranch where he was employed and could be secured at any time.

George R. King, organist of the church, was then called for the first time. He had been organist for two years; was secretary of the Sunday school, and had helped to arrange the Sunday school library in company with Durrant, who was superintendent of the Sunday school. He had no key of the side door of the church, but had one to the library. He put the new lock on the library door, being assisted by Durrant, who was the only one other than himself who had a key to it.

Hard to Handle.

SAN FRANCISCO, April 26.—The United States grand jury has brought in an indictment against Foss, Capricio and all of their accomplices in the Chinese certificate fraud cases. A number of intricate legal problems have already come to the surface in the case, the chief of which is that the United States statutes do not specify that it is a crime to conspire to bring Chinese into the country in violation of the law. As a result, about the only charge that can be the new vegetable shortening. The healthfulness, flavor, and economy of this wonderful cooking product has won for it the widest popularity, which in turn has attracted the attention of business parasites who are "working off" imitations and counterfeits. pushed is that of forgery. While it is known that somebody forged the name of Collector Wellburn to the certificates, the difficulty will be to prove who did the forging.

Beef Trust Waiting the Result of Morton's Investigation.

CHICAGO, April 26.—E. J. Martyn, manager for Armour & Co., said yesterday that the statement of the beef trust in reply to the charge of conspiracy to put up prices would be made when Secretary Morton announces the results of the investigations now being made by his inspectors at various points. Agitation against the packers in the East has resulted, he admits, in a sharp falling off in shipments of meats to seaboard cities. Many people have either quit buying beef or have restricted their purchases.

Free Silver and Iowa.

DES MOINES, Ia., April 26.—Free-silver democrats have determined to call a state convention of bimetalists in this city early in June. Measures are being taken to secure the attendance of Senator Wolcott, of Colorado, and other free-silver men of national reputation to deliver addresses.

When your heart pains you and unusual palpitation is frequent, accompanied sometimes with shortness of breath and low spirits you are suffering from a disordered state of the liver, digestion is imperfect and there is wind on the stomach. If allowed to remain the trouble will ultimately reach the kidneys and then become dangerous to life. Steps should be taken to stay its progress on the appearance of the first symptoms. Dr. J. H. McLean's Liver and Kidney Balm is especially adapted for disorders of this kind. Price $1.00 per bottle. For sale by Snipes-Kinnersly Drug Co.

On a Silver Platform.

FRANKFORT, Ky., April 26.—Governor John Young Brown has announced his intention of beginning at once a canvass of the state for United States senator, his platform being the free and unlimited coinage of silver at the ratio of 16 to 1.
